

SOCIETY

MISS MARY SCHULTZ

Popular violinist, presented at the large Pearce-Stephoffs musicale given recently, and who will, as a member of the Portland Amateur Symphony orchestra, appear at their April concert as soloist for William Wallace Graham.

THERE were many events of a social nature this week which were well worthy of notice, beginning with the Cherrin ball Monday evening...

The annual ball of the Cherrins, which partook of the nature of a large informal valentine party, given at the armory Monday night...

net over white, designed after the new full-skirted, many flounced models and worn with an old rose blouse and sash. Mrs. Romeo Goulet—White Charmeuse, shadow lace overdrapes, made up with pale pink.

Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr.—Black lace over white satin. Mrs. D. I. Howard—Black lace over black satin.

Mrs. Fred W. Wagner, wife of Representative Wagner, of Ashland, and Mrs. W. A. Jones, wife of Representative Jones, of Joseph, and Mrs. Jesse Evans Flanders, of Portland, were honored on the first occasion...

her home the members of her informal club and a number of guests additionally. Flags, Oregon grape and patriotic novelties ornamented the rooms...

Mrs. George Schaefer was asked to assist, the guests being Mrs. Julia Bress Finckel, Mrs. H. W. Bress, Mrs. D. Brunner, Mrs. George Thompson...

Mrs. M. J. Sharkey and daughter, Miss Margaret Schaefer, of Portland, are the house guests of Mrs. Sharkey's daughter, Mrs. James E. Heenan.

Mrs. Helen McCormack, of Spokane, who is attending the University of Oregon, will be the week-end guest of Miss Catherine Carson.

Mrs. George Schaefer was asked to assist, the guests being Mrs. Julia Bress Finckel, Mrs. H. W. Bress, Mrs. D. Brunner, Mrs. George Thompson...

Mrs. M. J. Sharkey and daughter, Miss Margaret Schaefer, of Portland, are the house guests of Mrs. Sharkey's daughter, Mrs. James E. Heenan.

Mrs. Helen McCormack, of Spokane, who is attending the University of Oregon, will be the week-end guest of Miss Catherine Carson.

Mrs. Fred W. Wagner, wife of Representative Wagner, of Ashland, and Mrs. W. A. Jones, wife of Representative Jones, of Joseph, and Mrs. Jesse Evans Flanders, of Portland, were honored on the first occasion...

NEW The advance guard of the New Spring fashions has arrived and awaits your reviewing. The styles are so distinctly different from those to which the past season has accustomed you that it is impossible for us to convey to you a true sense of their beauty. Make it a point to see them.

An event of considerable interest, scheduled for March second, is the annual inspection ball of Company M, O. N. G., which will take place in the armory.

The Albany Herald gives the following account of the big Elks celebration at Albany Thursday night: It is said that 600 Elks were present, as many came from towns in this section...

MRS. GEORGE E. EYRE was at home Thursday afternoon to the members of the Willamette Limited club, at her residence on North Capitol street.

Beaver State Printers Society and Commercial Printing. Phone 1512. Rooms 1-3, Patton Block.

75c and $1.00 for Night Gowns ON Beautiful Material The NEEDLECRAFT SHOP 325 State St. Phone 925