DESERTED BOY FINDS A HOME

Big Brother Movement Means Much to One Youngster Left Alone in World.

(Eugene Guard.) The Elks' Big Brother movement, recently organized, will result in the placing of at least one Eugene boy back in school and also in obtaining him a home.

R. W. Telfer, a Eugene Elk, has adopted Fred Chenoweth, a 10-year-old boy, clothed him and placed him back to school and he states he will keep him there at his own expense. According to the story which the boy told Mr. Telfer, he has been working at odd times for one year and a half trying to support himself. He claims that he was deserted by his foster parents one year and a half ago and since then has had no regular lodging place.

Mr. Telfer first met the boy in a howling alley where he was setting pins and took an interest in him. The boy was brought to Eugene three years ago by his foster parent and has not been in school since that time. He was adopted by these people when he was a year and a half old in Guthrie, Oklahoma. His father is dead, but he thinks that his mother is still alive in Oklahoma. A year and a half ago he went out in the fields to pick hops and when he returned his foster parents had left and he had to shift for himself.

He has heard no word from them, he claims, until recently, when he was in the hospital as a charity patient. His foster parent heard of his plight in some manner and wrote him a letter, stating that they would send him a ticket in a few days so that he could go to them. He states he never received the ticket and had not heard from them since.

He will reside with Mr. Telfer at 433 Lincoln street and will go to the Gray school, where he will probably enter the seventh grade. Mr. Telfer states that the boy is very bright and is very anxious to go to school and with the proper training will make a good man.

STATE BANK RE-ESTABLISHED.

According to Bank Superintendent Sargent the State Bank of Yonahla, which closed some time ago will be re-organized and the depositors will not lose a dollar of their money. When the bank failed the total amount of deposits was $92,000. The stockholders, Mr. Sargent says, are a unit in favor of the reorganization scheme, and he is also assured that the eastern stockholders are also agreeable. State Bank Examiner George H. Tracy left for Portland today to hold a conference with the eastern stockholders concerning the reorganization of the bank.

K. White aged about 19 years, H. Powle and John Taitte, two boys aged about 15, were lined up before Judge Elgin this morning in police court and were given a lecture. No charge was placed against the boys though they were brought to the station Saturday night by the police on complaint of Prof. W. P. Fargo, of the high school. Mr. Fargo claimed that the boys were seen in his home and he captured the two younger ones and held them until the officers arrived. Nothing was missing from the house and the matter was left for further investigation.

W. E. Ross and Howard Newman were given 10 days in jail each by Judge Elgin on a charge of drunkenness in which both plead guilty. The men were in a street car on North Commercial street yesterday afternoon and Newman displayed a razor with the blade open and terrorized the passengers.

FRANK DAVEY SAID TO BE WILSON'S SUCCESSOR

Member of Last Legislature and Former State House Employee Believed Choice

Although no appointment has as yet been made it is practically certain that Frank Davey, of Burns, Harney county, will succeed Tom R. Wilson as bookkeeper and horticultural expert at the state penitentiary and will probably take up his new duties within the present month.

Mr. Davey needs no introduction to the readers of the Capital Journal, having been a resident of Salem for more than 20 years before going to Harney county to accept the appointment of register of the United States land office at Burns, seven years ago and to publish the Harney County News. He was a member of the legislature from Harney and Malheur counties at the last session and remained over in Salem after the session for a few weeks visit with old friends and, incidentally, to lay his lines for returning to Salem as a permanent resident.

Mr. Davey is a staunch Republican and one of the leaders of the party in the state and is known as one of the best and most eloquent extemporaneous orators in the state. Since it is certain that he will receive the appointment at the prison it goes without saying that he will move back to Salem with his family, consisting of Mrs. Davey and son Bert, and daughter, Louis, all of whom will be made joyfully welcome to the Capital City. Mr. Davey is eminently qualified to fill the position which he will occupy and will prove a valuable adjunct to the business management of the prison.

Marion Will Spend Much Money On Building Roads

A total of $152,088.52 is to be provided for the roads in Marion county for the year 1915 according to the report of the county court. This is only the estimated amount, however, as a part of this sum will not be collected but a large amount of volunteer work will be done during the actual amount up to a greater sum than this. Of this sum $104,248.08 is to be raised by the district fund by a four mill tax provided in the county budget, $48,200.00 is raised by special taxes in some 20 county road districts. The largest amount raised by special taxes is in district No. 7 where $5407.43 was voted with district No. 14 with $5,556.71 as a close second. Some of the districts included in the list below have overdrawn their accounts, others have a surplus, and the amounts given have 3 per cent deducted for taxes uncollectable.

Everything comes more quickly to those who refuse to wait.

Wengers, Ross had a complete "dope" hunt in his possession when searched and had just served 180 days in jail for having morphine and cocaine on his person.

E. Irwin, who has been watchman of the center street bridge since he left the police force, when he served for several years, was suddenly taken ill Sunday afternoon at about 4 o'clock and was removed to his home at 451 North Eighteenth street, where he is now under the doctor's care. The doctors were unable to state whether the trouble was acute appendicitis or gallstones. Mr. Irwin's son said today that his father's condition had improved slightly today but that the patient was still very low.

High Jinks at Grand Tonight

The transformation from a sunny forenoon to a moonlight evening at a French bathing resort will offer to the student of stage art at the Grand tonight, a chance to study the delicate touches of a master of the craft, Arthur Hammerstein, producer of the musical comedy, "High Jinks." The ordinary observer will probably attribute the remarkable difference of the second and third act scenes wholly to the differences in color and intensity of lights, but the more careful observer will remember that differences in angles and inclination also play an important part, and in order to make a scene observed in daylight look "natural" in moonlight transformation, some radical differences in adjustment must be made. This can best be appreciated by an observation anyone can make. Let him study intently the landscape from his front door at noon. Then let him look at the same time on a moonlight night. Immediately he will notice how "unnatural" instead of "natural" it looks. Mr. Hammerstein set his artists and electricians studying this "unnatural" as it may be called, and they worked out the differences of effects that can be noted by careful observation of the second and third act scenes of "High Jinks."

State Treasurer Has Hard Time Getting Fire Tax In

State Treasurer Kay is busy rounding up the several counties of the state for long past dues of their portion of the expense incurred in forest fire patrol work, the majority of which have paid up to the last year, but there are 14 counties which are back in their payments from one to three years. Under the law the state pays all of the expense of forest fire patrols but one-third of it is chargeable to the counties. For the year 1914, according to the statement just issued by State Forest Elliott, the total expenses of fire patrol for the state was $15,855.65 and the amount due from counties, one-third of the total is $5,285.22. The total amount expended in Marion county was $410.10 and $136.70 is due from the county for the year 1914. Back payments due from 14 counties for the years 1911, 1912 and 1913 amount to a total of $4,092.37 and Treasurer Kay is making an effort to collect the bills up to the date.

Esch Leaves For East To Bring Cook Back to Salem

Sheriff William Esch left this city yesterday afternoon at 4:30 for Brooklyn, New York, to return with A. B. Cunningham, alias A. B. Cook, who was arrested in that city on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses in this city. Mr. Esch accompanied his husband on the trip. Harry Minto also left with Sheriff Esch to make an extended trip through the east to study prisons and prison conditions. This is an indication that Mr. Minto has been appointed as warden of the state penitentiary by Governor Withycombe, though no formal announcement has yet been made. Mr. Minto served six years as deputy sheriff of this county and four years as sheriff of this county and this time established an enviable record as an official and in his dealings with law breakers.
