THE EASTER BUNNY
THIS is only the Easter bunny. Big and soft and white, With little pink nose, so funny, And little stub tail upright.

He's out on his annual errand, Locating nests today, Soon to be filled with eggs, Brilliantly colored and gay.

Don't forget to have yours ready, For on his nightly round He hippety hops in a hurry, And late ones won't be found.

—Rosmond M. Pent.

EASTER'S MESSAGE.

It Teaches Us to Rise Anew From Our Selfishness and Sin.

This, to my mind, is the message of the Easter-tide:

We may interpret the resurrection in a dozen different ways; we may believe or not believe that this miracle took place as reported in the gospels. But that Jesus was never slain by the soldiers of Pontius Pilate, but lived to rally his disciples after the agony and terror of Gethsemane, to capture Paul and lead him over stormy seas and desert wastes for the preaching of his word, to call "the glorious company of the apostles, the goodly fellowship of the prophets, the noble army of the martyrs," in all ages and places into the service of his kingdom; to speak to us today as he has "spoken of old time unto the fathers" and to "challenge us to live and die for him and his great cause of righteousness"—all this is as certain as that his body was nailed to the cross of Calvary. After the crucifixion, as before, Jesus was alive. He has been alive in every age, even the darkest, that has succeeded upon the hour of this mortal agony, and he is alive today more truly and wonderfully than he has ever been before in human history. Of this we can be sure!

But what about ourselves? Are we also alive—alive as the eleven were alive when they reassembled in Jerusalem and gave themselves anew to the kingdom of God on earth? Have we arisen from our selfishness, cowardice and sin to meet the risen Christ and pledge our hearts to his, or are we dead, as dead as Judas when the first Easter dawned upon the world? This is the question which this latest Easter puts to us. It is not so much the resurrection of Jesus as of ourselves which need concern us.—Rev. John Haynes Holmes, New York City.

VICTOR HUGO'S EASTER HOPE

I feel in myself the future life. I am like a forest once cut down—the new shoots are stronger and livelier than ever. I am rising, I know, toward the sky. The sunshine is on my head. The earth gives me its generous sap, but heaven lights me with reflection of unknown worlds.

You say the soul is nothing but the resultant of the bodily powers. Why, then, is my soul more luminous when my bodily powers begin to fail? Winter is on my head, but eternal spring is in my heart. There I breathe at this hour the fragrance of the lilacs, the violets and the roses as at twenty years.

When I go down to the grave I can say, like so many others, "I have finished my day's work." But I cannot say, "I have finished my life." My day's work will begin the next morning. The tomb is not a blind alley; it is a thoroughfare. It closes on the twilight; it opens with the dawn.

In the Tyrol.

In the Tyrol the Easter festival is one of great ceremony. During the Easter holidays bands of musicians visit every valley, singing beautiful hymns to the accompaniment of their instruments as they pass along, men, women and children joining in the chorus, bearing lighted torches of pine wood.

HUBBARD NEWS

Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Butler drove to Salem Tuesday and were accompanied by little Lucille Gable.

Dr. Lobb, of Portland, spent Sunday and Monday in Hubbard and said he would be here in a few days to remain permanently.

G. F. Scholl went to Hot Lake near La Grande, in eastern Oregon, Tuesday morning to take the baths for rheumatism. He will be gone about six weeks. J. S. Edwards and family came to Hubbard Monday from Woodburn to make it their home. Mr. Edwards has a good team and was soon busy for N. E. Crow hauling material to his ranch.

The city fathers furnished the tractor people with gasoline Monday and plowed the street from Dr. Ole Lespinasse's office to the west road, a distance of about 1000 feet. The work was done in about an hour.

Saco Yoder returned from eastern Oregon last Friday, where he has located a homestead 35 miles south of Bend. He will take up his residence over there in a week or so.

Mrs. Noah Berkeley died at her home five miles east of Hubbard Sunday night. Death was caused by pneumonia and other complications. Funeral services were held at the Zion church Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

J. M. Misher returned home Wednesday from a three weeks' visit with his brother, A. J. Misher, at Fresno, California. All the time was not spent at Fresno, however, San Francisco and the fair demanding some attention.

E. S. Miller has been planning a new house for his country place a mile east of town for some time, and work on the structure is now in progress. Mr. Miller has the right idea, building the larger house while the family is at home to enjoy it. Local firms are furnishing the material.

Lizzie Francis Hettman, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hettman, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Daniels Monday night of heart failure. Mr. and Mrs. Hettman were visiting at the Daniels home when the little one was called. Rev. C. H. Purcell conducted the funeral services at 2 o'clock Tuesday; interment in Hubbard cemetery.

Last Friday a deal was closed transferring to Mr. Ernie Worle, of Pendleton, Ore., the last 30 acres of the Thurston Grim place. Mr. Grim will leave this fall to go to eastern Oregon, and will retain the farm until that time. Mr. Worle is a man of family and has five children of school age. The tract referred to is two miles northwest of Hubbard and joins Frank Yergen's place. The firm of Crow & Pierce handled the sale.

M. C. Crittenden is preparing to move to White Pine, Montana, about the 30th of this month. He has rented his residence in Hubbard to Martin Nelson. Mr. Crittenden's brother, Frank, lives at White Pine, and from descriptions of conditions there it is thought it will be beneficial to Mrs. Crittenden to make the change. Their friends here hope their expectation will be realized.

Mr. Simon P. Martin and Miss Ruby Andrews spring a surprise on their friends last Sunday night by being married at the close of services at the Hopewell church, S. G. Shetler officiating. The young people have a host of friends, who wish them a happy journey through life. The groom is a prosperous farmer, coming to Hubbard from Michigan a year ago. The bride for some time was employed at the telephone office. The happy couple expect to locate at the L. P. Herzberger place next week.

The parent-teacher meeting will be held at the armory hall Friday evening, April 2, 1915. G. W. Knight will speak on "The Influence of the School on the Community." Professor Lindsay, on "What is Required for a Standard High School." A number of other important topics will be opened for discussion. Among them will be: "Do We Want a Standard High School in Hubbard?" and "Can We Have One With Our Present Equipment?" "Do We Want to Consolidate with White School?"

Saturday, the 8th day of May, is the time set for the charter election for the city of Hubbard. The charter as amended by the council is now in the hands of the printer, and the charter in pamphlet form will be ready for distribution about April 23. The sections of the charter which caused it to be rejected at the election two years ago have been amended so that it will in all probability be acceptable to a majority of the qualified voters. Under the terms of the old charter the limit of taxation was fixed at 12 mills. In the charter now being prepared the limit is fixed at 8 mills. The new charter provides for the restriction of dogs running at large the same as other animals or fowls. Simply a precautionary measure to be enforced when needed.—Hubbard Enterprise.
