

SOCIETY

MISS E. A. PIERCE, of Portland (Miss Martha Bowerman), who was a mid-week visitor in Salem the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. H. Bowerman, of Leslie street. Her marriage was an event of much interest, taking place in Salem. Dr. and Mrs. Pierce are located at 600 East Twenty-eighth street, Portland. Mrs. Pierce has taken an active part in a number of conspicuous social events in Portland this year and is named as one of the patronesses for the benefit matinee to be given at the Helix theater Easter Monday by the Child Welfare commission. This event is of state-wide interest and will attract many from outside Portland. Governor and Mrs. Withycombe are to be among the box holders, and a number of Salem folk are also planning to attend.

Pacific exposition. Initial plans were to take passage on the Great Northern, but as its sailing date has been postponed until April seventeenth the party will go down on the Shasta Limited.

The recent change in officials of the state fair, is the source of both regret and pleasure. Regret in that it takes one of Salem's best liked families from the city, and pleasure in that it brings another popular family to Salem. The Frank Merediths have practically grown up with the capital city, and have always been prominently identified with its business and social life. They are planning on making their new residence in North Yakima, but the definite date of their departure has not been decided upon as yet. M. and Mrs. Meredith have two charming children, Jennette and John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Al Jones and their children will remove to Salem about April fifteenth, their former home being in Joseph, Eastern Oregon. Mr. Jones was joined by his family here during the session of the Legislature, Mrs. Jones being showered with charming social attentions during that time. They will locate in one of the official cottages at the Fair grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Steusloff were hosts for their informal card club entertaining Tuesday evening at their home on North Commercial street.

Mrs. Anna Ballou Hofer and small daughter, Dorothy, left Wednesday night for Pasadena, California, where they will remain for some time, perhaps making that place their future home. Pasadena is Mrs. Hofer's girlhood home, a number of her relatives still residing there. Mrs. Hofer's sister, Miss Ballou, will join her later, her daughter, Miss Marie, and son, Paul, going down at the close of the school year. The former is an instructor in the Domestic Science department of the high school, Mr. Hofer being a Junior at the Oregon Agricultural College. The entire party will spend some time at the exposition.

Miss Elene Fawk left Thursday evening for San Francisco, accompanying the Fawk's house guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reed and their daughter, Frances, all of Denver, Colorado. Thursday evening in honor of the visitors Miss Fawk entertained with a twelve cover dinner, decorating her table in cherry blossoms.

The party will spend three months doing the exposition and visiting other places of interest.

Previous to her departure, Miss Fawk had been entertaining with a series of dinners and luncheons. Saturday evening places were arranged for twelve at a dinner complimenting week-end guests, Dr. and Mrs. Seth M. Kerrou, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Payne of Eugene, pink table beautifully festooned with the board.

Mrs. Edward C. Goodwin and Miss Fox of Portland were the inspiration for an eight cover luncheon Monday afternoon, golden daffodils ornamenting the table.

Honoring Mrs. Charles L. McNary, upon her return; Mrs. Frank B. Meredith, who is removing shortly to North Yakima to reside, and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker upon the occasion of her birthday, Mrs. R. P. Boise entertained her bridge club, Thursday afternoon, asking additionally, Mrs. John H. McNary, and Mrs. William C. Knighton. Assisting Mrs. Boise was Mrs. George Rodgers.

Mrs. F. M. Rodgers, of Evanston, Illinois, who has been passing the winter in Portland, is being entertained as the house guest of the Charles and Edward Wellers.

Mrs. John H. Scott was at home to her bridge club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Miles of Portland arrived last night and will remain a week or ten days, the house guest of the F. A. Moores and Miss Chelista Moores of Oak street.

The E. A. Turner home, 335 north Capitol street, was opened for a delightful evening party, Tuesday, Miss Joy Turner entertaining in honor of Mrs. Virgil L. Lloyd (Wagona Savage) of Spokane, Washington, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Savage of North Front street.

Decorations charmingly betokening spring, were arranged in all the entertainment rooms. Library, reception hall and parlors displayed primroses, jonquills, cherry blossoms, ferns and palms, the dining room being especially attractive, ornamented in pink. A large formal bouquet of pink carnations centered the table, surrounded by pink shaded candles, crab apple blossoms and potted plants being used about the rooms. A pretty birthday cake was lighted with pink tapers and decorated with tiny rose blossoms. Mrs. Lloyd secured the dime, when the cake was cut, Mrs. Paul Johnson the thimble and Eloise White the button. The entire collation was also carried out in pink.

Guessing the identity of baby pictures, formed an interesting diversion, Mrs. Blanche Liston Niemeyer receiving the favor. Musical selections were also a most enjoyable feature, Miss Alice Judd, Miss Marguerite Mers, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Mrs. Merlin Harding and Miss Turner contributing vocal and instrumental selections. Mrs. Neimeyer also gave a reading.

Little Eloise White, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. H. White, prettily frocked in white and pink, greeted the guests at the head of the stairway, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Murah Hatch Beeman and Miss Mary Pigler.

The guests were: Mrs. Murah Hatch Beeman, Mrs. Floyd Utter, Mrs. Otto Wilson, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mrs. Merlin Harding, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Edith Holcomb, Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mrs. Oscar E. Price, Mrs. Lucille Savage Smith, Mrs. Adolph Guelfroy, Mrs. Florence Liston Bush, Mrs. George C. Pewitner, Mrs. Blanche Liston Neimeyer, Misses Margaret and Ruth Hodge, Gertrude Eakin, Vera Martin, Alice Judd, Mary Pigler, Frieda Spitzbart, Bertha Broyles, Marguerite Mers, Dapha Moore and Marguerite Ostander.

The Canavey Bishops and John J. Roberts are leaving next Wednesday for an extended visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

EUGENE HOUSTON. Who will appear with Miss Priscilla Fleming in original dances in the society vaudeville, given under the auspices of the Senior Guild of St. Paul's church at the new Oregon theater next Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

instrumental selections. Mrs. Neimeyer also gave a reading.

The guests were: Mrs. Murah Hatch Beeman, Mrs. Floyd Utter, Mrs. Otto Wilson, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mrs. Merlin Harding, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Edith Holcomb, Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mrs. Oscar E. Price, Mrs. Lucille Savage Smith, Mrs. Adolph Guelfroy, Mrs. Florence Liston Bush, Mrs. George C. Pewitner, Mrs. Blanche Liston Neimeyer, Misses Margaret and Ruth Hodge, Gertrude Eakin, Vera Martin, Alice Judd, Mary Pigler, Frieda Spitzbart, Bertha Broyles, Marguerite Mers, Dapha Moore and Marguerite Ostander.

A delightful afternoon affair, planned as a surprise compliment for Mrs. Frank J. Miller, upon the occasion of her birthday, was given by Mrs. Elmer T. Bussell, and Mrs. Thomas K. Campbell, Wednesday at the home of the former, 1059 Center street. Sharing honors with Mrs. Miller were her daughters, Mrs. Le Roy Woods and Mrs. Alton B. Coates, of Albany, Mrs. P. H. Raymond and Mrs. B. H. White.

Charming Easter decorations were pleasingly arranged, displaying a white and yellow color scheme. White hydrangeas, in ferns were placed about the rooms, a huge birthday cake lighted by candles ornamenting the luncheon table.

Miss Marie Campbell was asked to assist, and with Mrs. C. J. Greene, she delighted with musical selections. Mrs. E. A. Small was the inspiration for a pleasingly arranged surprise Wednesday, friends gathering at her home, 267 North Winter street, passing the afternoon in a delightful informal manner.

Those who made up the group were: Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. George W. Putnam, Mrs. C. Hagar, Mrs. William Steusloff, Mrs. L. K. Page, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. James Godfrey, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, Mrs. Hattie Dayton, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. S. M. Herren, Mrs. F. N. Rodgers, of Portland, and Mrs. P. H. Raymond.

Mrs. William C. Knighton will pass the week-end in Eugene the guest of Mrs. Charles A. Gray.

Mrs. E. O. Seicke and Mrs. J. C. Currie arranged five tables, for the Oaks bridge club, Monday evening at the home of the former. Decorations were pleasingly arranged of Oregon grape and spring flowers. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. William Thielen and William McGilchrist, Jr.

One more session will complete the club's calendar this year taking place on the next regular meeting date at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deek-alach on Court street.

Using a simple ceremonial, Rev. Harry E. Marshall, of the First Baptist church, united in marriage, Wednesday at high noon, Miss Lela Mae Kinder and Frederick L. Landess, of San Francisco. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Page, 1575 South Commercial street. Beautiful decorations marked the event as one of the prettiest taking place for some time.

SEND IN SOCIAL NEWS. The Capital Journal is always glad to print social news from outside of Salem, and will appreciate anything of this kind sent in over the telephone or by mail. In sending in news the writer's name should always be signed, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the matter is reliable. We do not print anything sent in unless we know the author of it.

formality was the keynote of the gathering, in two interesting contests, prizes being awarded to Mrs. Miller, Mrs. B. H. White, Mrs. A. B. Coates and Miss Della Hogan. A lovely cut glass vase was presented Mrs. Miller, the gift of members of the informal club, composed of wives of the Railroad Commission of which Mrs. Miller is a member. Beside the honor guests present there were: Mrs. O. P. Hoff, Mrs. LeRoy Leedy, Mrs. E. W. Moreland, Mrs. Carl Smith, Mrs. C. J. Greene, Mrs. T. C. Davis, Mrs. H. H. Corey and Mrs. G. P. Christie.

Mrs. E. A. Small was the inspiration for a pleasingly arranged surprise Wednesday, friends gathering at her home, 267 North Winter street, passing the afternoon in a delightful informal manner.

Those who made up the group were: Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. George W. Putnam, Mrs. C. Hagar, Mrs. William Steusloff, Mrs. L. K. Page, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. James Godfrey, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, Mrs. Hattie Dayton, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. S. M. Herren, Mrs. F. N. Rodgers, of Portland, and Mrs. P. H. Raymond.

Mrs. William C. Knighton will pass the week-end in Eugene the guest of Mrs. Charles A. Gray.

Mrs. E. O. Seicke and Mrs. J. C. Currie arranged five tables, for the Oaks bridge club, Monday evening at the home of the former. Decorations were pleasingly arranged of Oregon grape and spring flowers. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. William Thielen and William McGilchrist, Jr.

One more session will complete the club's calendar this year taking place on the next regular meeting date at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deek-alach on Court street.

Using a simple ceremonial, Rev. Harry E. Marshall, of the First Baptist church, united in marriage, Wednesday at high noon, Miss Lela Mae Kinder and Frederick L. Landess, of San Francisco. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Page, 1575 South Commercial street. Beautiful decorations marked the event as one of the prettiest taking place for some time.

MISS MARGUERITE FLOWER. One of the principal soloists for the Easter services. At the First Presbyterian vesper service, tomorrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock, she will sing 'There Is a Green Hill Far Away.' She will also give solos at the entertainment to be given by St. Paul's church at the Oregon theater next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Miss Flower has also been asked to give numbers at the social service meeting at Unity church next Sunday evening.

An exclusive color effect was carried out in pink and white. The room where the service was read was entirely in white, exquisite Easter lilies, narcissus and bridal wreath combining pleasingly. A wedding bell and bower of greenery and flowers was formed in one corner, beneath which the bridal party stood. Small Marion Shaw, frocked in white, bore the ring in a huge Ely. The bride wore a lovely robe of ivory toned pussy willow crepe de chine, with an overdrape of crepe chiffon. Beautiful Chantilly lace and pearl garitures were used to elaborate the bodice and tunic. The bridal bouquet was fashioned of white carnations and feathery fern. Her veil was of tulle caught with orange blossoms sent by California friends. Miss Cecile Bohannon attended as bride's maid. She wore a pretty frock of pink taffeta, embellished with pearls and lace. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and fern. Albert Shaw was the best man, the piano, rendering Leberghius and playing during the ceremony. Professor T. S. Roberts presided and Roberts also furnishing an accompaniment while Miss Nellie Roberts sang "I Love Truly," just previous to the line.

A wedding repast was served immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. T. Bratty being in charge. The repast was laid for forty in the dining room which was decorated in pink and white carnations being the flowers used.

The bride's traveling costume was a dark blue tailored suit, worn with a close fitting hat. The honeymoon was to be to Portland, the young couple going from there to San Francisco, where they will be located at the Hotel Apartments, 6419 Farm Street. Wedding guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hawley, of McCoy; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Landess, Charles A. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. George Landess, Dorothy May Landess, and Miss Pauline Hawley, all of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carl of Jefferson; Mr. Austin Sims and Mrs. Arthur Rogers of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Colvan, of Seio; Mrs. C. E. Ebert of Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Virgil Smith and daughter, Leola, Okland, Oregon; Mrs. Inoene Thompson, of Turner; Mrs. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. George Bohannon, Mrs. Jennie Wedderburn and daughter, Margaret, Miss Nellie Roberts, Mrs. S. Huddleson, Marion Shaw, Beth Page and Dorothy Hobson.

Beginning early in June, Miss Alice Skiff, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. Skiff, will begin vocal studies with Frank X. Ahrens the distinguished eastern vocal instructor, who passes the summers in Portland. Miss Skiff will remain in Portland during her course of study, stopping with relatives, she has been sincerely missed from our midst to numerous requests to sing, being in compliance to Mr. Ahren's wishes.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, State Librarian, is leaving the fifteenth of this month on a five months leave of absence. Much of this time will be passed in New England states, but numerous other places of interest will be visited.

Friends here of Miss Ann Vester are pleased to learn of her recent success in kindergarten work in the east. Miss Nowlen is a sister of Miss Vester.

(Continued on Page Three)

Beaver State Printers Society and Commercial Printing. Phone 1512. Rooms 1-3, Patton Block.

Open to the Public Today

DR. W. A. COX, Painless Dentist

Has opened his dental office and will give the people of Salem and vicinity everything that science and practice can do in Modern Dentistry. :: Complete Scientific Equipment for every branch of dentistry. :: Competent lady attendants always present.

303 State Street, Corner Commercial