SEND IN SOCIAL NEWS.

The Capital Journal is always glad to print social news from outside of Salem, and will appreciate anything of this kind sent in over the telephone or by mail. In sending in news the writers' names should always be signed, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the matter is reliable. We do not print anything sent in unless we know the author of it.

WALKING expeditions are occupying a conspicuous place on the lady's calendar these days in all the larger cities, clubs being formed of congenial groups, who enjoy long jaunts into the country once a week during the spring and early summer months. The walks are usually preceded or followed by luncheons at the homes of the different members, the devotees of this form of wholesome diversion becoming as attached to these trips as they were to indoor affairs earlier in the season. Miss Margaret Mulkey and Miss Gladys Reynolds, students at Willamette university, left early Saturday morning on a similar expedition, walking out across the Bethel hills, in Polk county, to be week-end guests of Miss Olney's Turner and Miss Louise Sears, of McCoy. Groups of students can be seen every afternoon journeying into the country enjoying to the fullest extent the beauty of river, country side and flower-bordered pathways, which lead out in every direction from the city.

One of the first walking clubs to be formed in Salem is the "Tuesday Evening Walking Club," the second evening of such work being set aside for the members for a long jaunt into the country. Those who belong are Miss Norma Wechter, Miss Virginia Washburn, Miss Nellie Scherwin, Miss Marie Schrab, Miss Ruby Wilson, Miss Edna Anderson, Miss Agnes Irving, Miss Mary Phillips, Miss Adella Nye, Miss Martha Carrell, Miss Margaret Burns, Miss Edna Simonton, Miss Alice Blake, Miss Hertha Byrnes, Miss Bernice Clark and Miss Bertha Clark.

Mrs. Nellie McGowan, of Medford, fourth grand daughter of the Eastern Star, arrived in Salem this afternoon, and tonight will make her annual visit to the local chapter. She will be honored by a six o'clock supper in Masonic temple and will be the latest guest of Mrs. George H. Barnett during her stay. Charles H. McFie, grand worthy patron of the order, is also expected to be present tonight.

In the item yesterday of the recital given by the pupils of Miss Joy Turner, it was mentioned that only violin pupils appeared. This was an error—both piano and violin students being present. The names of two of the most proficient players were also omitted—Ross Harris and Floyd Sigmond.

Mrs. Jasper and Mrs. Wenger. Miss Fisher will give a piano solo, the younger pupils to furnish entertainment numbers.

The young folk of the First Methodist church and congregation will join in an April party given by the Epworth league in the old parsonage, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy O. Smith are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a little son, Lawrence Franklin, born Thursday. Mr. Smith is of the law firm of Smith & Shields.

Mrs. H. E. Moore and daughter, Sadie, of Dufur, are the guests of friends here.

The Silver Thimble club of Silver Bell circle will meet with Mrs. Elva R. Estes, 1408 east State street, tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Laura Louisa, of Searsville, a graduate of last year of the Sacred Heart academy, and who is passing several weeks with Salem friends, was an honored guest last night when the girls of the academy entertained with a delightful juvenile party. A large number were present, all coming in frocks which had been worn in more youthful days, many of the alumnas participating. Miss Louisa will remain for some time yet.

Mrs. Fred Barker will be at home to the Elite Embroidery club Thursday afternoon at her home on Broadway.

Mrs. Viola Verder Holman, violinist, has been secured by the Banglow Christian church on Court street to play at the Sunday school services each Sunday morning. An orchestra is being formed by her and will also be a part of the morning services later.

For the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Van Winkle, who are leaving the first of the month to take up their residence elsewhere, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis entertained informally the office associates of Mr. Van Winkle, who has held the position of secretary of the district land board, at their home Saturday evening. The Van Winkles will go east first, later returning to San Francisco, where they plan to make their home.

Everyone who attended the entertainment given at the Banglow Christian church Saturday evening by Earl R. Fleishman, a student of the Eugene divinity school, was delighted with his work as an impersonator, a burlesque artist and dramatic reader. His program was most artistically presented, and he has been asked to return on a newly date to give another entertainment at the same place.

While Firemen Wrangle Buildings Are Burned

Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—While the fire departments of Los Angeles and Huntington Park wrangled today over the question of on which side of the city boundaries a burning building stood, the fire spread until it had destroyed the post-office sub-station, a hardware store, a grocery and two houses.

"We called the Los Angeles fire department and they refused to go.

ENGINEER CANTINE WILL MEASURE UP IN JACKSON COUNTY

To Settle Differences Between Court and Contractor—Josephine Gets $5,000

As a result of a conference between the state highway commission with a delegation of county officials and Representative Vawter, of Jackson county, and Representative E. E. Blanchard, of Josephine county, it was tacitly understood that Highway Engineer Cantine, in co-operation with the county court and contractors, measure up and determine what is the contractor's just due for work claimed to have been performed over and above the estimate of former Highway Engineer Bowly and to arrive at a just and equitable adjustment of the differences between the county court and Contractor Sweeney. It was also made a matter of record, upon the request of Representative Blanchard, of Josephine county, that 5,000 of Jackson county's 20 per cent of the highway fund be expended in Josephine county.

The Jackson county court was represented by County Judge Madden while Representative W. I. Vawter, of Medford, appeared on behalf of the people of Both Jackson and Josephine. Leslie Butler, of Hood River, and John H. Albert, of Salem, members of the advisory board to the highway commission, were also present at the hearing. Judge Madden was the spokesman for the Jackson county contingent and he made a brief statement of the condition which exists in that county with respect to the Pacific highway improvement.

He stated that, through the alleged misunderstanding and extravagance of former Highway Engineer Bowly the county had only 10 miles of finished roads of the 32 miles contracted for through the county, the balance being graded and passable, and out of the $200,000 bonds voted by the county for the purpose but $80,000 was left and that Contractor Sweeney had a claim of $35,000 in excess of Major Bowly's estimate. He also stated that Major Bowly charged the county up with $13,000 worth of road machinery which is inventoried to the state and wanted the highway commission to reimburse the county to the credit of the road fund to this amount. He also represented that it would be impractical and unwise to attempt to lay hard surface upon the Siskiyou mountain grade until next year when the falls will have time to settle, and he was borne out in this by Engineer Cantine, and wanted the commission to divert the $40,000 allotted to the county this year for finishing up the valley road with hard surface instead of the mountain grade.

The commission did not see how it could legally divert the money to the valley road improvement when it was specifically stated in the act that it should be used in the Siskiyou mountain grade and so ruled. Representative Blanchard, in asking that the $5,000 be set aside unconditionally for the use of Josephine county, stated that the county had spent more money on the Pacific highway improvement in the last three years than any county in the state, approximately $250,000 without bonding the county, and that 90 per cent of the county's indebtedness was caused by good road's building. He said that immense amounts of crushed lime rock were being taken out of the mountains for fertilizer; unprecedented yields of copper were being mined on account of the heavy demands of the war and the consequent good market, and the funds were needed for keeping up the roads already improved for the benefit of the county's industries.

Stops Stomach Pains in Two Minutes

The recent discovery by a leading specialist that pure bisulphated magnesium will almost instantly relieve pains in the stomach resulting from indigestion, dyspepsia or acidity is of the greatest importance to thousands of people suffering from various forms of stomach trouble. As it will know sine-cereus of all stomach disorders are directly proportional to excessive acidity. A teaspoonful taken in a little water after meals not only neutralizes the acid and stops the pain, but quickly overcomes the cause of the trouble, soothes the inflamed lining of the stomach, and in a short time effects permanent relief.

RATE NOT UNREASONABLE.

Washington, April 20.—The interstate commerce commission today held that W. N. White & Co., New York commission men, had failed to prove that the Western Union Telegraph company's rate of $1 for a ten-word message from New York to the Pacific coast was "unreasonable." The commission did not go so far, however, as to declare the rate "reasonable."

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY IN 'FRISCO WATER FIGHT

San Francisco, April 20.—Veterans of the proposition to purchase the Spring Valley water system at a cost of $34,500,000. The Spring Valley system at present is owned by a private corporation. Both sides had watchers at the public talks, and both sides claimed the victory. Real estate interests and other big influences strongly favored the purchase. Hot opposition developed, however, a large element declaring that the acquisition of Spring Valley would financially handicap the city so the Hotch Hetchy water proposition could not be completed.

EVANGELISTS BILLY SUNDAY EXPECTS TO GET 50,000 CONVERTS TO HIT THE TRAIL IN PATERSON, N. J.

Paterson, N. J., April 20.—Enthusiasm, bright sunshine, religious fervor and curiosity stirred up by tales of publicity combined to fill every seat in the tabernacle when Billy Sunday opened his campaign Easter Sunday. The crowd was happiest when Billy yelled such sentiments as "God reached up and grabbed the sun and said, 'Here, sun, you stay where you are till Joshua gives you the highball,'" his highball not being used by Billy in its strict meaning, but as a railroad man's term, which is the equivalent of a "clear right of way," or when he started the afternoon meeting with the opening words to one of his parties, "Well, kick 'em off," or when he told about Daniel, "who wouldn't hit the booze of Baby Iou."

SHEP.

Scotty an' I, we pulls our stakes,
An' squats along a pass,
An' hustles us a bunch of rakes
An' runs 'em on the grass.
They calls us herders' round, I guess,
We scarcely ate, or sleep,
But, sir, our stakes was shortly less,
If it wasn't for Shep.

SHAKING HANDS WITH SUNDAY

Sir, we'd not had no pep—
I doubt much if we'd made a bean,
If it wasn't for Shep.

A man gets sawaway-like out here,
The life is hard enough;
The silence is a thing to fear;
The grub is sloppy stuff.
But, sir, we never did complain
If things weren't up to rep',
Because a man can bear some pain
To own a dog like Shep.

Sir, Shep, he spec'lates on the land,
An' sees how much we're shy,
An' then he strikes across the land,
So hot, an' 'law! so dry!
An' purty soon he's bringin' back
Most forty—though no count was kep'.
