Girl Lawyer Will Oppose Her Father

Berkeley, Cal., April 26.—Miss Margaret Hayne, the California University girl just admitted to the bar, declared today that she would open a law office opposite to that of her father, a highly successful attorney, and ran friendly opposition to him, just to demonstrate that women can make as good lawyers as men.

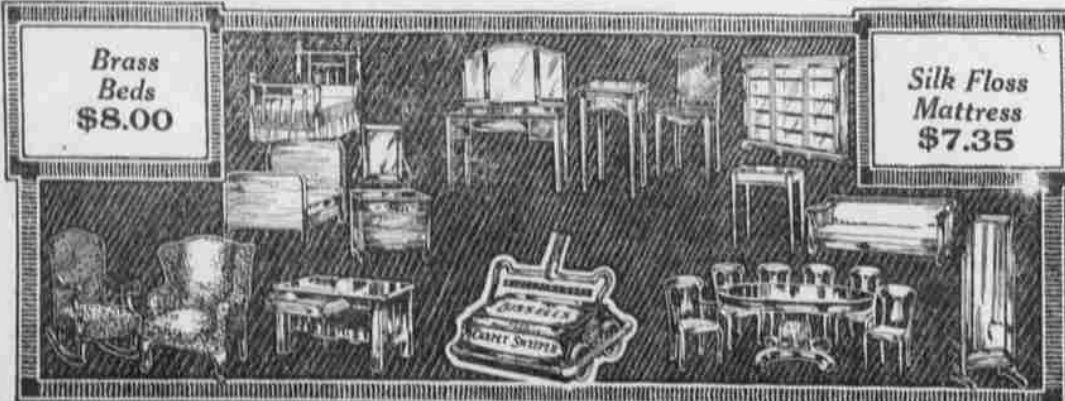

Conditional Pardon Is Revoked By Governor

Governor Withycombe this morning mischievously revoked every time their husband Thomson on January 4 of this year, bands smile.

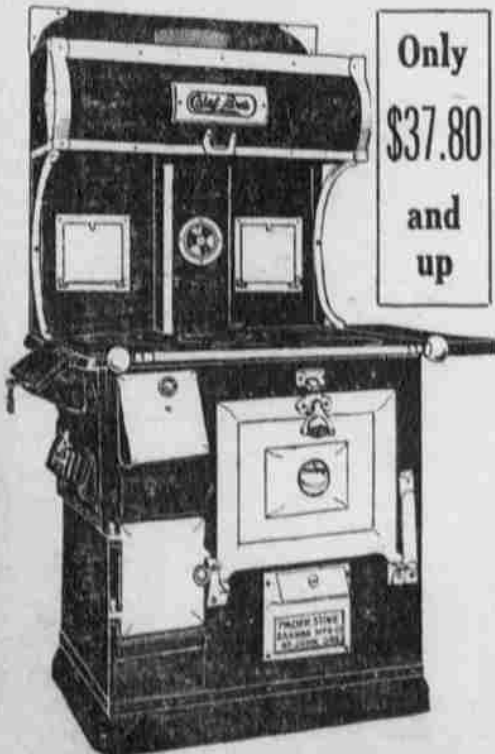

Thomson was committed to the penitentiary, a revocation of conditional pardon which was granted to Richard tentary upon conviction of the charge of assault not, being armed with a dangerous weapon, from Jackson county, on April 7, 1912. His minimum term of sentence expired April 7 of this year. He is now held by the sheriff of Jackson county to whom Thomson is said to have confessed to the issue or passing of forged checks.

Most women suspect there is some mischief brewing every time their husband Thomson on January 4 of this year, bands smile.
