The dinner was informal. Those present were heartily in accord with the merging plan and authorized further investigation into the matter. ion into the matter.

The meeting resulted in the board of governors of the commercial club being instructed to look into the proposed instructed to look into the proposed merging plan, and also to investigate into the possibility of employing Mr. Chase in perfecting the organization. They are to report their findings to the entire commercial club at a meeting to be called sometime in the future.

Personal Service Needed.
"Personal service," dedlared Mr.
Chase, "is what is needed more than anything else in building up a city. Three things are also necessary—men, money, and motives. Money is one of the neccessuries but a city with the right men behind it running it in the right way is sure to go ahead. "The fault of the western people is

Admits Delivering Speech.

Roosevelt frankly and empantically admitted that he had delivered a speech in 1914 in which as said farmes was a "meanre." When the speech was read to him he also admitted he had declar ed that Barnes and Murphy ought to be in the same party and appeared to take extreme delight in admitting his attacks in the last gubernatorial campaign when he made charges of a Barnes-Murphy coalition in the New York legislature.

Once, while Ivins was quoting var-ious passages from one of the colonel's speeches, he took the copy from the at-torney and read it himself with true platform orator;
