SEND IN SOCIAL NEWS.

The Capital Journal is always glad to print social news from outside of Salem, and will appreciate anything of this kind sent in over the telephone or by mail. In sending in news the writer's name should always be signed, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the matter is reliable. We do not print anything sent in unless we know the author of it.

UNDER the direction of William Wallace Graham, a local symphony orchestra is to be formed, the first gathering of musicians to be Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the promotion department of the Commercial club rooms. All musicians using orchestral instruments who are able to read music are extended a most cordial invitation to be present and assist with the initial organization plans. It is necessary that at least 20 join the orchestra, and it is hoped that the response will be immediate and enthusiastic, as it should be. An organization of this kind means much individually and collectively to the musical advancement of Salem people, and there is no reason why it should not become a large and splendid body.

The North Salem tennis court, located southeast of the Jason Lee Memorial church, for which funds were raised at recent church entertainments given by the young folk, is nearing completion, and will soon be ready for regular work. R. A. Harris, executive printer, and Mrs. Edward Tallman, Sr., have volunteered their services in instructing the players in the mysteries of the game. Considerable interest is being manifested, and already the enthusiasts are in receipt of requests from other clubs for matches. Those actively interested are the following, who are mostly high school or Willamette university students: Misses Averill Harris, Emma Minton, Marjorie Minton, Ernestine Roberts, Blanche Drake, Agnes Gregson, Ethel Frazier, Marie Paronangian, and Messrs. Emil Horning, Emory Deane, Harry Levin, Sam Tyler, William Chittick, Joe Minton, Lloyd McIntyre, Ben Minton and Leland Roberts.

Miss Addie Patterson was a hostess Saturday evening, entertaining informally, her guests being the academy members of Willamette university. Beautiful roses and large white snowballs combined effectively for decorations. After most enjoyable diversions, Miss Patterson was assisted by Roy Vinay in serving lemon and meringue. Mrs. Della, of the faculty, favored with a humorous reading, as did also Miss Josephine Troy and Fred Mickelson.

At a called meeting of the officials of the Omega class of the Leslie Methodist church, it was decided to postpone indefinitely the annual banquet of the class which had been announced for this evening. The reason given for changing dates was that so many of the members and former teachers had other interests at this time, and it was impossible for many to be present. The banquet will probably be held early in the fall.

Miss Elma Weller has issued invitations for a piano recital to be given by one of her advanced pupils, Miss Leona Wiedner, at her studio, 695 North Liberty street, corner of Division, this evening at 8:15 o'clock. Miss Wiedner will be assisted by Weller Chamberlain, harpist.

The officers of the freshman class of Salem high school and a few friends were entertained at the residence of Waleott E. Buren Saturday evening. Games and music were the diversion of the evening. The following were present besides the host: Doris Churchill, Althea Esch, Tora Mortensen, Charity Burleson, Norma Wechter, Nellie King, Isabelle George and Miss Fitz, Ira Meerer, Frank Lockman, John Seefeld, Wynham Buren, George Weller and Ira Fitz.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Gilbert, of Portland, who have made an extensive visit at New Haven, Conn., are on their way home. They expect to visit the Panama fair at San Francisco before returning.

The John J. Roberts and T. A. Livesleys are home from a delightful sojourn in Southern California. The former were absent five weeks, the Livesleys being away two months. Much of the time of both families was passed motor-ing, their stopping place being San Francisco. Motor trips were taken to San Diego, Del Monte, Santa Barbara, Pasa Robles and all the other adjacent places of interest.

The membership campaign, launched this week by the Y. W. C. A., is gradually gaining momentum and it is confidently expected that the final returns will be a surprise and delight to all those interested in the local association. Badges with the words "one thousand" have been given to each of the ten members on the six teams under the leadership of Mrs. Zolce, J. Biggs, Mrs. W. G. Assala, Miss Alice Linton, Miss Audrey Hicks, Miss Ruby Wilson, and Miss Lillian Applegate. The girls who are to take an active part in the campaign have responded most enthusiastically, and each team is confident of winning the prizes offered for the greatest number of points. The contest closes May twenty-six, necessitating immediate and generous response on the part of Salem women and girls if the desired 1,000 membership be secured. Renewals count for points so that if each of the four hundred charter members resign membership cards this number will not be substantially in making points for the various teams. Friday afternoon the leaders will meet in the rest rooms of the Y. W. C. A. and submit their lists of new names which will be published in Saturday's Journal and frequently thereafter as the contest grows.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner were expected home today from Newkovic where they have been enjoying an outing at the Steiner cottage.

Miss Minnetta Magers will pass tomorrow in Portland.

Miss Marie Bennett, who left a few days ago for a several weeks' sojourn at the San Francisco exposition, writes from Dunsmuir, Northern California, that she is being detained at that place owing to the recent cloudburst. The occupants of three passenger trains are in a like predicament but are making the most of the accident, enjoying the entertainment offerings of the little railroad city. Miss Bennett, who is with the United States National band, is on her annual vacation, the time of which will be extended to the first of June, owing to the detention. She and made plans to attend the commencement exercises at Berkeley but will be unable to do so, trains not being expected to leave Dunsmuir before the latter part of this week.

Personal friends of William H. Boyer here are pleased to learn of his appointment as chief music supervisor of the Portland public schools. Mr. Boyer has been identified with Portland musical life for the past 20 years, becoming most widely known, perhaps, as founder and conductor of the Apollo club, which appeared in Salem in concert this winter.

The long anticipated opening of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations took place in Portland today with a very large attendance. Mrs. Frederick Schoff, of Astoria, president, is presiding, and Governor Willson was asked to deliver the welcome to the guests. Prominent women from all over the United States are to be present, and it is expected that many from here, particularly interested in child welfare work, will be present. The program for this evening and tomorrow follows:

General topic, "Child Welfare in Home, Church, School and State." First session, Public Library, Wednesday evening, May 12, 8 o'clock. Invocations, Greetings, Governor With-combe, Mayor Albee, Superintendent of Schools Althea, president of Oregon Branch Congress of Mothers, Mrs. A. Climate Failed; Medicine Effective sufferers from Tuberculosis often think that medicine will not help them. Fresh air, regular habits and good food aid in restoring health, but more often needed. Many have been restored to health by Eckman's Alternative. Read this—

"Gentlemen—Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia, which developed into Tuberculosis (health) were found. In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 160 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Now I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain estate." (Abbreviated).

ADVICE FROM A WISE MAN.

Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and up-building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Small size, 25 regular size, $2.50 by leading druggists. Write for booklet of recoveries.

VESTLIKE OVERBLOUSE SALIENT STYLE FEATURE

CHIC SUMMER FROCK

Plum colored silk was used in the development of this chic summer frock, the noticeable feature of which is the vestlike overblouse, which is fancifully buttoned and braided. Under it is worn a soft blouse of cream georgette crepe, with long mutton leg sleeves and a straight buttoned cuff. The collar turn over with Byronic effect. The skirt is a gathered one and is attached to a fitted yoke by stitching.

Registration, room A: "The Work for Child Welfare in 1914-1915"; annual reports of National officers; discussion.

Third session, Thursday afternoon, May 13, 1 o'clock. Parents' educational bureau demonstration 551 Courthouse (get ticket at information bureau, Public Library); 2:30 o'clock, Public Library, group of children's songs, Miss Mable Riggart; "Sunday Schools and Parents' Training," W. C. Penrice, Chicago.

Thursday evening, Benson Hotel, reception to National officers by Oregon Branch of Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations; contralto solo, "A Fairy Love Song" (Willby); Mrs. Lulu Daid Miller; tenor solo, J. Ross Fargo; duets, Tuscan folk songs (a) "A Street Full of Flowers," Mrs. Miller and John D. Turner; (b) "A Flight of Clouds," Mrs. Miller and Mr. Fargo; solo, John D. Turner; (c) "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" (old English), (d) "On the Road to Mandalay"; Miss Piper, accompanist.

Mrs. Charles Carter, of Portland, has been entertained during the week by Mrs. E. M. Brown, of South Commercial street. Mrs. Carter formerly resided here and has many friends who welcome her on her visits to Salem.

Mrs. (Dr.) E. E. Fisher goes to Portland tomorrow to pass the remainder of the week attending the sessions of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations. Mrs. Fisher is prominently identified with the Grant school association which is the only one in Salem to be in the state federation.

Mrs. Louise Kay, of Portland, is returning to her home today after passing some time in Salem the guest of friends. She is remembered as Miss Louise Hoyt and formerly resided here.

William R. Rathvon, of S. B. of the Board of Lecturers of the Christian Science church, will give a free lecture on Christian Science at the Opera House tomorrow evening. Mr. Rathvon is of Denver, but is a member of the Mother Church of Boston.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful blood tonic. It will build you up quicker than any other medicine. It gives strength to do and power to endure. It is the old standard tried and true all-the-year-round blood purifier and enricher, tonic and appetizer. Nothing else acts like it. For nothing else has the same formula or ingredients. Be sure to ask for Hood's; insist on having it.

H. D. TROVER FOUND GUILTY OF GIVING LIQUOR TO W. GAUNT

Case Will Be Appealed To Circuit Court On Writ of Review

The jury in the case of the city against H. D. Trover, in which the latter was arrested upon a charge of violating the city ordinance prohibiting the selling or giving away of spirituous or vinous liquors, returned a verdict of "guilty of giving away beer," at 2:30 this afternoon. Upon the recommendation of the jury Police Judge Elgin imposed a minimum fine of $25 and Counsel John D. Turner, for Mr. Trover, took until 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in which to take the case to the circuit court on a writ of review.

The testimony in the case as given both by the city's witness Will Gaunt and by Mr. Trover was to the effect that Gaunt came to the photo studio of the defendant Saturday evening and told Mrs. Trover that he wanted to get some pictures. Mrs. Trover stepped to the rear door of the apartments and informed Mr. Trover that somebody was there to get some pictures, whereupon Gaunt retired and said he would return in a few minutes.

It appears that Gaunt went directly to the basement where Mr. Trover was drawing some beer out of a keg into a picher and when Gaunt appeared he offered him a glass of beer which Gaunt accepted. Mr. Trover stated on the stand that Gaunt took a dime out of his pocket and offered it to him and he told him that he was not selling liquor, that it was against the law and that he did not want it. Gaunt replied, in substance, that he could do what he pleased with his money and threw it upon a shelf. Mr. Trover gave him a second glass of beer and Gaunt did the same, tossed another dime on the shelf which Mr. Trover states, he told him not to do.

Gaunt did not claim upon the stand that he had purchased the beer and when the officers made the arrest and conducted a search they found the two dimes where Gaunt said he had tossed them. The jury, in returning the verdict of guilty, indicated that it was reached upon the technical ground of violation of the city ordinance which provides that a person cannot even give away malt or alcoholic beverages to anybody except an immediate member of the family, and the writ of review will be taken on the ground of insufficiency of evidence to warrant the complaint and alleged defect in the ordinance.

The jurymen were E. W. Spencer, H. S. Poisel, George Van, Oliver Beers, R. A. Carson and H. H. Lucas. C. J. Innan and John D. Turner appeared for the defendant and City Attorney William H. Trimble represented the city.

JERSEY BREEDERS' SALE OPENS AT INDEPENDENCE

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Dallas, Or., May 12.—The first sale of the Polk County Jersey Breeders' association opened at Independence this morning, and during the course of the sale 135 head of A. J. C. C. Jerseys were sold at auction. There have been very few breeders' sales, if any, in this country which included so large a proportion of register of merit cows as will be found at this sale, it being beyond the ability of any one breeding farm to put up a like offering. The sale began this morning at 10 o'clock in charge of Col. D. L. Perry, an auctioneer of national fame from Columbus, Ohio. The sale managers are Frank Longhary, F. E. Lynn and C. G. Hewitt. The stock offered for sale is the property of the following promoter Jersey breeders of the state: C. P. Hembree, Monmouth; C. G. Hewitt, Monmouth; Frank Perrydale, Harry Bluff, Independence; James Short, Monmouth; Frank Longhary, Monmouth; C. R. Newman, Astoria; N. C. Anderson, Buren Vista; F. Loy, Independence; J. B. Stump & Sons, Monmouth; C. L. Hall, Ballston; Ross R. Nelson, Independence; W. B. Allen, Independence; W. O. Morow, Independence; Ed. Cary, Carlton, and J. W. Finn of McCoy.

Rushing Repairs On Railroad Near Redding

Redding, Cal., May 12.—Repair work on the Southern Pacific tracks damaged by recent washouts and slides was rushed today, the men in charge announcing they expected to reopen the Shasta Route Friday. Passengers in a hurry to get north abandoned their baggage on stalled trains near Kennett and walked four miles through the mud past the break near Motion, which is the worst to another train. Tons of mail for California points is accumulated at Redding. Kennett has been without letters or papers since Sunday night.

Staple provisions in Kennett were nearly gone today, as the town is completely isolated and no food can be brought in. At midnight the water system there resumed operations, after having been put out of commission by cloudbursts, and Kennett received its first fresh water for days.

Two crews of motion picture men arrived today to photograph the damage. The river stage is 10 feet, nine inches over the normal at Kennett, and the weather remains threatening.

L. O. O. M. EXPRESSES THANKS.

The management of the Oregon theatre desires to express its thanks to the Royal Order of Moose No. 498 for the following letter received from them: Salem, Or., May 12, 1915.

S. C. Ayres, Manager Oregon Theatre, Salem, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—At our regular meeting last night the lodge instructed me, as secretary, to extend to you the hearty thanks of Cherry City Lodge No. 498, which was expressed to you upon motion by a rising vote of thanks for the neat little sum netted us by the benefit which you so kindly proposed and managed in your theatre May 6th and 7th.

We appreciate this benefit very much, and also the very courteous treatment which we received at your hands, and I can assure you that the Moose of Salem will honor for the Oregon theatre. Trusting that we may have other pleasant relations in the future, and wishing your theatre the best of success, we are,

Yours sincerely,
CHERRY CITY LODGE NO. 498.

Chautauqua Closing Day

EVELYN BARGELT, Cartoonist and Reader, Will Entertain Afternoon Audience.

With true regard for climax, that inimitable crayon artist, Evelyn Bargett, has been arranged as one of the entertainers of the closing day of the Chautauqua. An afternoon or evening spent in watching her draw her lightning sketches, while she keeps up a running fire of humorous comment, or in listening to her readings, is one pleasant to contemplate long afterward.

Formerly she traveled with a quartet, but there was a general demand that she occupy the major part of the whole of the program, and this plan is now being followed, and her popularity has increased. She is one of the big attractions of the country in cartooning and has the additional talent of being a reader of high class.

Miss Bargett puts an abundance of clever, bright humor into her talks and readings, and her sketches are as beautiful as paintings and not the "rough stuff" usually put on by chalk talkers.

This entertainment will be given in the afternoon, and the week will close that night with the appearance of the Swiss Alpine Yodlers.

Modern Chautauquas and American Business Methods

One cannot review the attractions composing the Chautauqua, which has been arranged through the unselfishness and public spiritedness of some of the people of this city, without wanting to attend every entertainment on the program.

The Chautauqua had its inception many years ago at Chautauqua, N. Y., which gave the institution its name. Other cities took it up, and as the fame grew and the benefits were realized people went hundreds of miles to spend a week listening to great men and to entertainers and musical attractions of a high order.

And finally the American principle of combination and co-operation was applied to it, and the whole country may now enjoy Chautauqua. It is cheaper to bring the lecturer to a thousand people in a town than for the people to go to the lecturer. This is what makes it possible for a small city to avail itself of the advantages of such a gathering—this and another important factor in its success.

By a bureau which has ability, organization and big financial responsibility engaging the talent on bloc a great saving is effected. High class people can be engaged through the whole season for much less than where each must have a separate manager and make his own dates, and lost time and long jumps are avoided.

Thus a series of programs extending through a week can be secured at a price which would pay for only a few mediocre attractions otherwise. The Chautauqua is an excellent illustration of the economies of American business methods.

Usually a girl whose front name is Mae looks more like July or August.
