The demonstration of the road machine last Sunday, near Wheatland, was attended by more than 50 good road enthusiasts. The machine is owned by W. B. Steele of Gresham, Oregon, and the demonstration was given to show what it would do to dirt roads. The machine was run over an improved road for several miles, without showing much improvement. But over the dirt road, the machine brought it out in fine shape, after being rolled two times. "The Jumbo" is now at the McMahon place, and will be used this week to get the dirt roads in that vicinity in better condition. Many of the good roads enthusiasts who witnessed the work of the machine, were of the opinion that it was about the best road maker that has been recently tried out in the county for dirt roads.

The P. E. and E. railway began yesterday to re-plank their bridge on Commercial street between Trade and Mill streets. They are also re-surfacing their tracks on Summer street, between D and Jefferson streets.

Word was received this morning from Joseph H. Albert at San Francisco that the party consisting of Mr. Albert and wife, and Dr. Griffith and wife and Mrs. O. E. Krause, of Portland, had arrived safely in San Francisco, and that the voyage had been on a calm sea. None of the party was sick.

Tonight is the big Moose jubilee at the Moose lodge. The special program will consist of initiations, music and a banquet little different from the rest. As this is a special celebration on the eve of the great Moose carnival, a large attendance is expected.

The Salem Canoe club met last evening, and after attending to regular routine business of the club, elected the following new members: Erroll C. Gilkey, Tinkham Gilbert, Archie Heglin, Wayne M. Price and Miss Eva Melagan.

B. P. Hoyt and family left this morning for the eastern part of the state, where Mr. Hoyt has two sons in the real estate business. Instead of the usual rail travelling, Mr. Hoyt and his family will go entirely by water. They left for Portland this morning on the Grahamona and will transfer there for boats on the upper Columbia.

Ten Year Old Children May Have Bank Account

A child ten years old may open an account in the U. S. postal savings bank, after July 1, according to instructions just issued by Postmaster General Burleson. In sparsely settled districts where the local postoffice is not designated as a postal savings bank, the account may be opened by mail.

Postmasters at all points will have blanks, so that these deposits may be forwarded to the nearest postal saving bank. The amount deposited may also be withdrawn by mail, with any interest that may be due.

A savings account may be opened by a married woman free from any control or interference by her husband. Postoffice officials are forbidden to disclose to any person, the amount of any deposit. Withdrawals may be made without previous notice, and the government promises to repay all deposits, with interest, on demand.

Children who make these deposits, can make them in their own name. More than half a million people have opened accounts with the Postal Saving System. Forty per cent of the depositors are foreign born citizens, and they have more than 50 per cent of the deposits, showing that what might be called the foreign population is doing a lot of saving.

In order that Captain Mosher of the Woodburn Company of the U. S. G. might have three weeks' more practice for his detail on the Clackamas range the Third battalion shoot to be held on the Salem range has been postponed to May 23 until June 6 according to information received by Captain Gehlhar today from Major Carl Abrams. Woodburn has no local range and the company is handicapped in rifle practice on this account. The Company M boys, however, have the opinion that they can practice just as well in three weeks as Captain Mosher's sharpshooters.

D. H. HEWITT DIES AS RESULT OF EXERTION

Monmouth, Ore., May 18.—D. M. Hewitt, an old and highly respected citizen of this place, died suddenly Saturday afternoon as the result of overexertion. His son, G. G. Hewitt, who resides on the old family farm seven miles from this city, had just started out of town when the elder Mr. Hewitt received a telephone message asking him to send out some medicine to his son. The aged man made an effort to overtake the son and the overexertion caused his death. Judge Hewitt, of Albany, and Jasper Hewitt, of Dayton, are brothers of deceased.

The Browning Amusement company are putting up their tents and preparing for the Moose carnival, that will open here tomorrow under the auspices of the Moose lodge. They will occupy Court street from Front to Cottage.

Dr. E. M. Poole, a dental surgeon of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been visiting his brother, A. B. Poole, the State street druggist, is of the opinion that for fine spring weather and beautiful country, this Willamette valley cannot be beat. Dr. Poole has been travelling for the past four months, including all of California, and this valley has made a deeper impression on him than any parts of the west.

The Cherrians started in drilling with a vim and determination last evening, to properly prepare themselves for their appearance in Portland at the Rose Festival. Good work was done in the one and a half hour drill last evening, the attendance being larger than at any former drills. Hereafter the regular evenings for work will be Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Charles Dick is captain.

The P. E. and E. Railway band of 24 pieces is going on with its regular weekly practice besides several meetings during the week when the soloists get together for their special work. The band has had several offers for engagements this summer, and the extra practice now going on is expected to get them in fine shape for the summer work. C. J. Beach is manager, and L. W. Robertson, director.

Stanley C. Ayres, who has been the manager of the Oregon theatre for the past four months, has been transferred to Albany, by the Willamette Amusement company. Mr. Ayres has been remarkably successful as a manager since coming to Salem, and his transfer to Albany comes in the form of a promotion, as there he will be given full control of the company's business and the booking for the Albany house. W. A. Danielson, part owner of the Oregon, will remain here as manager.

All was hustle and confusion on the third floor of the state house this morning for a few hours occasioned by the moving of the offices of the industrial accident commission and the state highway commission. Under the new arrangement the industrial accident commission will occupy the full row of five office rooms on the east side of the hallway, numbered from 302 to 310, inclusive, and the state highway commission will occupy the two rooms on the west side of the hallway, formerly occupied by the fish and game commission, numbered 301 and 303.

The Cherrians are true patriots. They believe in the slogan, "Try Salem First." Although the new Cherrian suits for the band boys could be purchased in the cheapest manner in this city, the Cherrians decided to patronize home folks first, and last evening awarded the contract for the 22 Cherrian band suits to D. H. Mosher. Today the boys are stepping in to see Mr. Mosher and work will be rushed on their suits in order that they will feel at home in them before making their initial bow as part of the Cherrian organization when they accompany the Cherrians to the Rose Festival in Portland, June 11.

Tom S. Brown, who has been the asylum farmer for the last thirty years and is well known in this city, was attacked this afternoon by Edward Rowe, a patient, with a hoe and Brown's scalp was laid open by a cut five inches long. The patient was working in the garden and Mr. Brown was giving him some instructions as to how to hoe the garden properly when Rowe suddenly resented the assistance and swung the hoe at Brown's head. The wound is not considered serious, however. Rowe has been at the asylum for seven years and has always been quiet and never before has he given the officials any trouble.

After an absence of twelve years, Al C. Hoop, of Seattle, is visiting in the city, the guest of E. Cooke Patton. Mr. Hoop was for many years in the employ of the Dalrymple dry goods company during his residence here. He expressed surprise at the wonderful growth of the city, its wide paved streets and the general civilized appearance in the business and close-in residence district. In fact, he says that he would have hardly recognized the city at all, except for a few of the old landmarks. Mr. Hoop was born and brought up in a home located on the present site of the supreme court building. At present, he is located in Washington, and is the state agent for the Patton Post Card company. His brothers and sisters are in San Francisco, manufacturing a novelty, called "The Wild West Doll."

Four matches of the first round of the Country club golf tournament were played of last Sunday and considering the inexperience of most of the players some good scores were made. The matches between Carl Gabrielson and W. H. Burghardt, D. W. Eyre and T. A. Livesley, Ralph Moore and Arthur Hutcheon were not played on account of the failure of some of the parties to show up. The match between F. W. Stensloff and U. G. Shipley was called on account of darkness and will be finished this week when the rest of the unplayed contests will be finished. C. P. Bishop won from S. G. Sargent, 7 up; F. D. Thielsen won from A. Bush, 1 up; Allen Hutcheon won from C. W. Brown, 3 up; and Carl Anderson won from Hal Patton, 1 up.

BORN

HADLEY—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hadley, at their home in Rosedale, May 17, 1915, a boy, Mr. Billy, a pastor of the Friends' church at Rosedale.

JOHNSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Graham, 461 South High street, May 17, 1915, a daughter.

DEATH OF MRS. ADAM PLEERT

Frances Pleert, wife of Adam Pleert, died suddenly at her home 1/2 miles east of Gervais, Friday, May 14, 1915, aged 55 years, from heart trouble.

Mrs. Pleert had gone to the assistance of her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Vachter, whose home had for about a week last Friday, and worked hard in helping save the furnace. She became exhausted and sat down in a chair, and was taken to her home and died a short time after without giving consciousness. A physician had been called, but arrived too late to give aid.

She was born in Bergala and had lived in this country about twenty years. A husband and three daughters survive her.

The funeral took place Sunday at the Catholic church in Gervais, and was conducted by Father Jensen of St. Angel and was largely attended. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

W. V. S. MAY EXTEND LINE

Judge Dimick was here from Oregon City upon professional business Tuesday. Speaking of the Willamette Valley Southern, he stated that next week a survey will be made from Mouth of Willhoit Springs, for a proposed extension to that point and probably to point four or five miles above Willhoit to tap a rich timber section. Eastern men owning big tracts in the Willamette country are anxious to acquire the timber for their product and are urging the extension of the new line to point four.

Business over the new line is good, though the shipment of lumber through the products of the country through which the line runs, is rather slow. The Portland wood market being inactive. Aurora Observer.
