QUINABY NEWS NOTES

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Quinaby, Ore., May 19.—The death of Miss Lena Matthes Wednesday, May 12, was a great shock to her many friends. The funeral service was held Saturday at the family home on the Pacific Highway, conducted by Rev. A. A. Winter, pastor of the Evangelical church in Salem, and in ceremony was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. A quartet from the Brooks Evangelical church sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "We'll Never Say Good-Bye Again." There were many beautiful floral tributes and a large number followed the remains to its last resting place, Miss Matthes was born in Appleton, Wisconsin, May 11, 1869, and removed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Matthes, to the Waldo Hills in 1877. Her father died there 19 years ago and the family removed to their present home. Besides her mother, Mrs. Augusta Matthes, she leaves the following brothers and sisters, all of whom were present at the funeral: George, John, Lawrence, Frank, Edward, Willard, Mrs. Marie Mumper and Mrs. Adie Garrison.

A few crates of strawberries have been taken to market by local growers, the first having been grown on the farm of Paul Girod, near the Union Crest school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zielinski motored to Oregon City last Sunday where they spent the day with relatives. They were accompanied by Mrs. Milo Barnett and daughter, Thelma, who visited Mrs. Bennett's sister.

Lewis Matthes has sold his farm at Brooks to Robert Backett of Dakota, receiving $4,000.

Mrs. Herman Amort (Minnie Banick) who was married recently has just sent her parents a box of oranges and lemons from California's celebrated groves.

A son was born to Mrs. Albert Banick last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Jansberg.

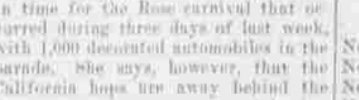

Frank William has returned from the Panama exposition and a trip through the south. His brother, Charles William, formerly connected with the Marion, has returned after several years absence at Ashland and a resort hotel east of Eugene.

Mrs. Crosson, of Salem, was a week-end guest of Mrs. John Paregory.

Mrs. Frank Marshall writes friends from Santa Rosa, California, that she and her daughter, Miss Jennie, arrived in time for the Rose carnival that occurred during three days of last week, with 1,000 decorated automobiles in the parade. She says, however, that the California boys are away behind the Oregon crop, many growers not having tied the strings to the wires yet.
