THE program of events for this evening is of sufficient diversity to please every taste. Hon. Willis C. Hawley will give the commencement address before the graduating class of the college of law of Willamette university at the First Methodist church, the exercises to begin at 8 o'clock. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith will sing; Miss Mary Schultz will be heard in a violin solo, and Professor T. S. Roberts will give pipe organ numbers. Chief Justice Moore to present the diplomas. At 8:30 o'clock, at the Grand opera house, Miss Louise Bernhardtner, assisted by Miss Marie Campbell, will be graduated from the musical department of the Sacred Heart academy. The recital is open to the public, and knowing of the general popularity of musical entertainments presented by students of this institution, it is a foregone conclusion that the opera house will be filled to capacity. "In a Japanese Garden," a charming musical entertainment by the choir of the Leslie Methodist church, will be another affair of this evening which gives promise of attracting a very large number. It will be a church benefit affair.

The annual co-ed track meet, held each spring at the Oregon Agricultural college, took place Monday morning in the college armory. The meet was between Waldo hall, Cathlamet hall and the downtown forces, and was won by the Waldo hall team by a score of 79 points, to 29 for their opponents. Excellent time was made in all events. Miss Genevieve Frazier, of Salem; Miss Gertrude Thompson, of Portland, and Miss Irene Smith, of Medford, were the high point winners for Waldo hall, while Miss Esther South, of Juntura, starred for Cathlamet. Miss Frazier won the 50 and 100-yard dashes, and the basketball throw writes ease, and took second in the hurdles and third in the high jump. The relay race was won by the Waldo team consisting of Miss Frazier, Miss Thompson, Miss Grace Woodworth, of Portland, and Miss Esther South, of Hood River. The meet was held under the direction of Miss Miriam Thayer, of the physical education department. Miss Frazier is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Frazier, and is in her freshman year. Her ability along athletic lines is well known. During her years at Salem high she held numerous records, including one Pacific coast medal, and besides was one of the most popular students ever attending the local high school.

The senior class of the Salem high school filled auto trucks this morning, going to Corvallis to be guests of Oregon Agricultural college students for the day. Owing to this trip, the play, "The Elopement of Ellen," which was to have been given by the senior class tonight, has been postponed, to take place next Friday night.

The eight circles of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church met at the home of various members Wednesday afternoon to elect officers for the coming year. For the greater part the circles were holding their final session for the season, meeting again early in the fall. The West Central circle met with Mrs. E. C. Raueh, 349 North Cottage street, electing the following: Mrs. W. C. Young, president;

PREVENTS ACID STOMACH AND FOOD FERMENTATION

Most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble is excessive acid in the stomach aggravated by food fermentation. Hyperacidity irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full bloated feeling and retarding the process of digestion. In all such cases—and they comprise 90 per cent of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking in a little water immediately after eating from one to two teaspoonfuls of Bisurated Magnesia, which is doubtless the best and really effective antacid and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for Bisurated Magnesia as other forms are utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties. Bisurated Magnesia, No. 25 E. 20th street, N. Y. C.

Mrs. B. L. Steeves, vice president; Mrs. George Hatch, secretary, and Mrs. Raueh treasurer. The Yew Park circle met with Mrs. W. B. Summerville, of 1160 Center street, but owing to the absence of many of the members, the election of officers was postponed until next month's meeting. The South-east circle elected the following at a gathering at the home of Mrs. E. F. Tolman, Sixteenth and Bellevue, Wednesday afternoon: Mrs. M. C. Halvorsen, president; Mrs. William Lebold, vice president; Mrs. C. C. Kueby, secretary, and Mrs. R. C. Hawley, treasurer. Mrs. B. H. White, of 355 North Capitol street, entertained the following officials: Mrs. F. B. Southwick, president; Mrs. F. A. Clark, vice-president; Miss Eva Dimnick, secretary; Mrs. Frank Myers, treasurer. The South Central circle, which met with Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, on South Commercial street, will hold its annual election next month.

The young people of Rural Chapel will repeat the pleasing dialogue, "The Gentlemen From California," which they gave at their church recently, at the First Congregational church tonight at 8 o'clock, the entertainment to benefit the Christian Endeavor society of the latter church. The dialogue is a Pullman car farce, and is described as being most delightful. Members of the congregation of the Central church will assist with a short program. Miss Alice Judd will give a reading; Miss Leita Hayes will sing; Master Donald Allison will be heard in piano numbers; Rev. J. C. Spencer and Mrs. Guy C. Neugent will contribute solos.

AID "WEAK BROTHER" IS PRINCIPAL OBJECT

Loganberry Association of Oregon to Hold Very Important Meeting On Monday, May 31, Forenoon and Afternoon --Will Devise Ways and Means of Shielding Small Grower From Speculative Culture

As announced in the Journal of yesterday, the Oregon Loganberry Growers' association will hold a meeting in the Salem commercial club assembly room on Monday, May 31, which probably will be the most important gathering of farmers, from an industrial point of view, that will have been held in this city or state for many "moons," inasmuch as many questions will come up for consideration and disposal of very serious moment to the future of the loganberry industry of the state. At 10 o'clock in the morning there will be a meeting of the board of directors and, at 2 p. m., the regular meeting of members and all growers will take place. It is expected that a very large and representative attendance of growers will mark the occasion. While the objects of the meeting, as proclaimed by the notice being sent out, are to outline an advertising campaign for the present season; canvass the prospects of the market for the 1914 and 1915 crops and the crop conditions for this year; and to endeavor to arrive at a uniform price for picking for this year, the most important question with which the association will have to wrestle will be the taking care of the small and scattered growers outside of the organization. Although the acreage outside of the organization does not total up so very large there are, however, enough of these small, scattered and isolated growers in the state to have a demoralizing effect upon the market if their crops are dumped upon the market indiscriminately and to line these growers up and encourage them to hold out for fair prices will be the endeavor of the association. The association is making a strenuous effort to buoy the growers up to hold out for a basis of 3 cents for the fresh fruit and 20 cents for the evaporated product, which will allow the grower a reasonable margin of profit upon his crop if he is obliged to pay 1 cent per pound for picking, whereas, if he sells below this basis he stands to lose money on his crop and cannot afford to raise the berries for a lesser margin and make any allowance for interest on his investment, labor, etc. The growers who have not joined the association and the pool are those who are located at distant points from the principal marketing centers and, in the majority of cases, obliged to borrow money to cultivate and harvest their crop and those, as a rule, as an easy prey to the unscrupulous speculator and short seller who induce them to dump their crops on the market at almost any price in order that the grower may realize a return upon his outlay and to satisfy the money lender. It is believed that some plan will be suggested and adopted by which all of these growers will be taken care of and given such assistance as is necessary to tide them over the rough spots and protect them from the designs of the speculative speculator. Today, May 20, is the last day in which the loganberry growers can come into the pool of the Salem Fruit Union.

ST. PAUL NEWS

Final arrangements for the installing of the water works have been completed and work will immediately begin on the well for the electric. Emmett & Cornell of Woodburn received the contract. George Hansen secured the contract of laying the mains and will put a force of men to work as soon as the weather will permit. The plant will be located on a lot secured of J. H. Gooding, just east of his store. The principal main will be of three-inch iron pipe, with two and 1 1/4-inch laterals.

One of the most interesting and hard fought ball games ever seen on the local grounds was played Sunday between the home team and Parrott Mountain team with a score of 5 to 4 in favor of St. Paul. The visitors showed excellent team work and their fielding was above criticism, but they seemed to be unable to find Pillett's weak spot. On the other hand the St. Paul team showed lack of practice in their fielding and made several costly errors but redeemed themselves with good stickwork. Pillett pitched his usual steady game, in one inning fanning the visitors in one, two, three or four, once when the bases were full he passed a man, letting in a run later in the game. However, when the bases were again full with no outs, he put out the next three, showing excellent headwork and brilliant pitching ability. The newly reorganized team showed great vim in its playing Sunday and under Manager McDonald's coaching will practice several times each week, which will soon put them in the best of trim.

Everybody should arrange to go to Butteville and take in at least one day of the boat races which will be pulled out Saturday and Sunday. This is an interesting event and the Butteville people and officials have spared no effort or expense that would contribute to its success. Valdemar Fredericksen, agency manager for the American Central Life Insurance company, expects to move his family to St. Paul the first of June and make this his headquarters for future operations. Vincent Francis Keber, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Keber, was christened Sunday, Fr. R. Coleman acting as godfather and Miss Elizabeth Keber of Portland, as godmother. The water company's new tank arrived last Friday. Its capacity is about 2140 gallons and weighs a little over two tons. Miss Beatie Coyle is visiting with her brother, Roy Coyle, at Willomina. Peter McDonald purchased a very fine cow of Tom Coleman. The latter is reducing his herd of Jerseys. Clarence Coyle, Frank Kerr, Maude

TAKE PART IN COUNTY SPELL.

Last Saturday A. D. Wolfer and Levi Welty took their autos full of boys and girls to Salem to take part in the spelling contest conducted by County Superintendent W. M. Smith in the Salem high school building. The party was composed of Minerva Hershberger, Esther Ledtke, Ruby Nichol, Agnes Seaman, Hardy Rankin, Beryle Blosser, Gordon Lindsay, Eulah Braden, Thelma France, Vergie Zehner, Miss Yeider and Miss Weifer. The trip was a delight to the boys and girls. The examining board reports the Hubbard pupils' spelling up to the average with two having grades above 90. A boy from the fifth grade at Woodburn was one of the contestants to carry off the honors. It is found these spelling contests stimulate interest in spelling.—Hubbard Enterprise.

HUBBARD SHOE FACTORY.

The Clement Safety Shoe works is about to begin the work of assembling the parts that make the shoe. The first shipment of plates came in Tuesday and a small shipment of calks came in Wednesday evening by express. A large consignment of this article is expected to arrive by freight not later than Saturday and in that event a force of men will be started on the work. Several thousand pairs of these shoes have already been sold and it looks like a busy season ahead.—Hubbard Enterprise.

DOWNING-WELTY WEDDING.

At the Congregational parsonage, last Thursday evening, Miss Anna E. Welty and Mr. Floyd L. Downing were quietly wedded. The young couple sprung a good surprise upon the community. No one suspected such a thing. Miss Anna has grown to womanhood in this community, and is highly respected by all. She is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Welty. Floyd Downing has been in the community since last fall. He is an industrious young man and is making a good start in life. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the bride's home where they will live for a time. Both young people are associate members of the Christian Endeavor society. All of the Christian Endeavor society, then a long and prosperous life.—Hubbard Enterprise.
