PEDDLER'S LICENSE LAW TO BE TESTED BY IDEAL TEA CO.

C. E. Hinshaw Claims $500 Damages For Loss of Business Through Arrest

The Ideal Tea Company today filed a suit in the circuit court to test the validity of the city ordinance prohibiting peddlers from soliciting business and selling their wares without first taking out a city license. The suit is the outgrowth of the arrest of C. E. Hinshaw May 24 on the charge of peddling without a license and filed in the name of the Ideal Tea company, a corporation and C. F. Hin-shaw against the City of Salem, Charles F. Elgin, as city recorder and J. T. Welch, as city marshal.

After his arrest Hinshaw appeared liver his orders already taken. He asked for two weeks time to deliver but the request was refused. By rea-son of the business lost through the
