PRATUM NOTES

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Mr. and Mrs. C. Giese had a bad accident Sunday evening. Mr. Giese's horse was frightened by a passing team and started to run. Mrs. Giese was thrown out first and her arm broken near the wrist. Mr. Giese remained in until the buggy lurched into the ditch when he was thrown out heavily, and was seriously injured, sustaining heavy bruises and internal injury. The accident happened near Pratum, and help was soon in coming. Mr. and Mrs. Giese were both taken to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ed Eisenbach, at Pratum.

Miss Mary Harper is now going back and forth on the train to Salem. This gives her the advantage of staying at home while still being able to attend school.

Mr. George Schnapp has been breaking a cold this past week. The cold managed to keep things lively for awhile but at the close of the week, was pulling fire in the harness.

Mr. Harvey Leiby, who is attending the O. A. C., is spending a few days with his parents.

Mrs. Clifford Jones and children, of Salem, are spending a few days with home folks.

Mrs. Charles Eyre visited relatives in Salem last week.

Mrs. Chas. Rice and little son, together with Miss Vein Lodi, Master Ellis Welby and Master Elmo Steiner, went strawberrying last week. They spent a pleasant day in the strawberry field and returned at night with well filled pails.

The Memorial church is seriously convening the farmers of this section. Very few have their potatoes in, and the late planting will cause a late harvest, probably as well blessed with rain as the planting time.

The Memorial church is passing a subscription list for a new organ and already have many signers. The church will soon possess a fine organ. A choir will be organized as soon as the new organ is obtained.

A Children's Day program will be given at the Memorial church on July 1. Plans are already under way for the program.

Mother's Wild Ride

Fails In Its Purpose

San Bernardino, Cal., June 1.—Dashing down the steep rocks of the San Bernardino mountains in the automobile of George Fiedham, carrying her dead baby, which she believed merely to rush the infant to a physician here today. When she arrived the doctor told Mrs. Mann her baby had been dead an hour. She collapsed.

Several days ago Mrs. Mann took the baby to Mormon Camp in the mountains for its health. Today she approached Fortman, who was motoring through the hills and brought him to carry the child to medical aid. The desperate drive with its pitiful climax resulted.
