PRESIDENT EMERITUS OF KIMBALL COLLEGE DIES AT PASADENA

Rev. H. D. Kimball, Passes Away, of Cerebral Hemorrhage After Pneumonia

Telegraphic information was received here this morning announcing the death of H. D. Kimball, D. D., at Pasadena, California, at 7:30 o'clock last evening, of cerebral hemorrhage following a long siege of pneumonia, aged about 75 years. The remains will be taken to Chicago for burial, accompanied by the grief-stricken widow, who, upon her return to their home in Pasadena, in about one month, will stop off in Salem for a few days.

Dr. Kimball was born in New York state, near the city of Troy, received a common school education and was ordained in the Troy conference of the Methodist church about 50 years ago, since which time he has been actively engaged in the ministry up to the time of his coming to Salem as founder and dean of the Kimball College of theology, of Willamette university, the magnificent building for which funds were donated by Mrs. Kimball. At the time of Dr. Kimball's departure from here, last fall, being forced to seek a change of climate on account of his failing health, he was president emeritus of the college.

Deceased came to Salem from Spokane, about 9 years ago, where for several years previously, he served as pastor of the Vincent M. E. church and came to Spokane from Chicago where he was pastor of several of the prominent churches. To Chicago he came from Fall River, Massachusetts. Mrs. Luella D. Kimball, the widow, is the sole survivor, so far as could be learned here.

Rural Carriers Elect Officers For Next Year

The annual session of the Rural Letter Carriers association of Oregon ended its business meeting last night by the election of officers for the ensuing year and the passing of a resolution urging the members of the next legislature providing for the election of road supervisors by the vote of the people of the road district. They also agreed that the money raised by taxation in the road districts be spent in the district in which the tax was levied.

The officers elected are:

President, D. E. Whiteman, Oregon City; first vice president, L. A. Peak, Monroe; second vice president, B. E. Seelick, Boyd; secretary-treasurer, R. W. Smith, Springfield; executive committee, C. W. Brasher, Salem; W. H. Boyd, Beaverton; and J. E. James, Baker.

C. W. Brasher of Salem was elected national delegate to the convention of carriers which will take place at Detroit, Mich.

POPULAR DOCTOR HERE FIVE YEARS

Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn Likes Salem Better Longer He Stays—Business Large and Growing

The well known doctor of optics, Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn, enters on his fifth year of residence in Salem, with a great deal of pleasure to himself and also to his many friends and customers. He has occupied the same office ever since he located here, and the people have to know just where he may always be found.

During the four years just past the doctor has fitted several thousand of people with glasses for the proper correction of their eyesight. Most of these people live right here in Marion and Polk counties, but a good number of them live as far south as Ashland and some of them north as far as Portland. Everyone who comes in personal contact with Doctor Mendelsohn is at once impressed with his honesty of purpose.

NORTHWEST LIBRARY CONFERENCE BEGINS

Officers For Ensuing Year Will Be Chosen At Session Held Tonight

The third session of the Pacific Northwest Library association, now being held in the city, opened this morning with a report of the treasurer, and a report of the publicity committee of which Charles H. Compton, of the Seattle public library, is chairman.

The public table discussions were opened by John B. Kaiser, librarian of the Tacoma library, who spoke on "Further Co-operation With the Schools." George W. Fuller led the discussion on "Some Experiments in Economy." Before the close of the morning session, a book mending demonstration was given by B. B. Futernick of San Francisco.

This afternoon state conferences were held. M. H. Douglas, librarian of the University of Oregon, representing Oregon, and Judson T. Jennings, librarian of the Seattle public library, representing Washington.

The following program, besides the election of officers for the ensuing year will be taken up this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

"Some Phases of Art Work in a Public Library," Miss Annie H. Calhoun, head of fine arts division, Seattle public library.

"The New Provincial Library and Its Treasures," E. O. S. Scholefield, librarian, Provincial library of British Columbia, Victoria.

"Questionable Books," Miss Ethel R. Sawyer, director of the training class, library association of Portland.

POPULAR DOCTOR HERE FIVE YEARS

Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn Likes Salem Better Longer He Stays—Business Large and Growing

The well known doctor of optics, Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn, enters on his fifth year of residence in Salem, with a great deal of pleasure to himself and also to his many friends and customers. He has occupied the same office ever since he located here, and the people have to know just where he may always be found.

During the four years just past the doctor has fitted several thousand of people with glasses for the proper correction of their eyesight. Most of these people live right here in Marion and Polk counties, but a good number of them live as far south as Ashland and some of them north as far as Portland. Everyone who comes in personal contact with Doctor Mendelsohn is at once impressed with his honesty of purpose.

He is a man of few words, to the point, and time has proven that what he says is correct. He does not mince matters nor does he hide the truth.

As a specialist for the correction of the eye with glasses, Dr. Mendelsohn cannot be equalled, he having attained his knowledge in Germany some thirty-three years ago and has continuously kept up his studies in this specialty.

Unlike other doctors, Dr. Mendelsohn advertises in the newspapers, because he believes it is legitimate and that the newspapers are the medium through which he can make frank and honest statements of his ability to care for the eye. The doctor does not make a single statement that cannot be backed up and selects only the most reliable newspapers for his advertising. There are few persons in Marion and Polk counties who have a wider range of acquaintance than has Dr. Mendelsohn and he believes the time will come when he will know about 90 per cent of all the people in this county.

In an interview yesterday he said he hoped the day would not be far off when parents would pay more attention to the eye sight of their children, so that one, while a child, might be saved all after effects on account of neglected eye sight. Children's eyes should be examined every year, he holds.

OFFICIAL COUNT IS NOW IN EXCESS OF THE ORIGINAL LIMIT

Reorganized Commercial Club Is Established Upon Certain Foundation of Success

Twenty-nine and one-half new memberships were added to the reorganized Salem commercial club membership roll as a result of this morning's canvass of 24 of the members of the committees on solicitation, which reported at the midday luncheon at the Hotel Marion this noon, which brings the grand total official count up to 801 1/2 members. This does not take into consideration, however, the great number of prospective memberships which are being held up by banks, railroad companies and other corporate interests which have been promised but require official sanction of the boards of directors before they can be enrolled as bona fide members.

This being collection day it was impossible for the great majority of the business men who were serving upon the committees on solicitation of membership to get out upon the job today and, under the circumstances, the appearance of 24 of them to report for work this morning was considered a very good showing. This was also in the nature of a clean-up day and none of the committees had signed up for more than three half days work in the canvass.

The commercial club officials and organized committees are now busily engaged in checking up the lists to find out who has been missed and to add a great number of new arrivals who were not included in the original list. The work of classifying the members according to their requests and assigning them to bureau work, is going on rapidly and it is expected that bureau election dates will be announced within a few days.

MARRIED

MARTIN MOFFITT—At the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Carl H. Elliott, Tuesday, June 1, 1915, Miss Stella Martin to Venes Morris Moffitt. They will reside in Salem.

DIED

DORSEY—At the Josse apartments, 491 North Cottage street, Salem, Ore., Monday, May 31, 1915, at 11 o'clock p. m., Sidney Austin Dorsey, aged 18 years, 4 months and 16 days, of enlargement of the heart.

At the time of the attack of the illness, in February of this year, which proved fatal, deceased was a student of the high school of Salem and a member of the sophomore class. He was a young man of exceptionally good habits and well advanced in his studies, and his death has proven a very severe blow to his aged mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Dorsey, with whom he lived during his seven years' residence in this city. He was born in Dayton, in Yamhill county, the family home.

Funeral services will be held at Rigdon & Richardson's undertaking parlors in this city at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon, which will be conducted by Rev. A. A. Winters, of the United Evangelical church, and the body will be taken, by the auto hearse, to Dayton, where, on Thursday morning, the regular church services will be conducted over the remains at the United Evangelical church by Rev. J. Bosworth, of Portland. Rev. Winters, however, will accompany the remains upon the journey from Salem to Dayton and attend the services there.

Besides the mother the deceased is survived by a sister, Miss Shirley Dorsey, who has been teaching in the public schools of Panama for the past few years, and is now on her way home, but will not arrive until the 10th of June, too late for the funeral. Another sister, Mrs. Myrtle Feed, of Moscow, Idaho, who will arrive at Dayton in time for the funeral services there, and a brother, George, of Dayton. The father has been dead for several years and the remains of the son will be laid to rest by the side of those of the father in the Dayton cemetery.

Mrs. Dorsey, the mother, has been a member of the United Evangelical church for many years, and was very prominent and popular in ladies' circles and in church work. Mrs. Dorsey and Mrs. Bellnap, of Dayton, an aunt of deceased, can be reached by their friends at the home of Mrs. L. K. Page, at 492 North Cottage street.

Two Thousand Men Work at Ship Yard

San Francisco, June 1.—With work on half dozen new steamers under way and additional activity planned, it was announced today that the Union Iron Works will soon place an additional 2,000 men at work in its shops. The force was cut down to a great extent several months ago. The company is building two steamers to cost $700,000 each, a tank steamer for the Standard Oil company and several smaller vessels. One of the large ships is being built for Mayor Rolph of San Francisco and will ply between this city and New York.
