Well-Known Jeweler Retires From Business

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Dallas, Ore., June 20.—John H. Shepherd, who has been in the jewelry business on Main street, for the past several years, is holding a clean-up sale today of stock and fixtures and will retire from the business. Mr. Shepherd has secured R. M. Harding, an expert sales manager to conduct the auction which will be continued until the entire stock is disposed of.

Change in Management.

C. E. Hoyt this week purchases the interest of his partner, W. S. Quigley, in the Imperial hotel and will hereafter conduct the business by himself. Mr. Quigley, the retiring member of the firm, has returned to his former home in Portland.

Miss Elta Dillard, of Roseburg, is in the city visiting at the homes of relatives and friends.

Judson Foster, of Bridgeport, was in the city this week visiting relatives and friends.

Dr. L. A. Bollman is in Seattle visiting at the home of his parents.

Elmer W. Baldersee has gone to Black Rock, where he will work in the logging camps this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fuller have returned from a short visit in Portland.

Will Hartley has returned from a week's visit in Portland.

R. A. Miller, a prominent Portland attorney, was in the city this week attending court.

Miss Edith Starbuck, of Portland, is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Starbuck on Court street.

Henry Muscott returned Friday evening from a several days' stay in Portland.

Miss Rose Sheridan, a teacher in the Dallas schools, returned to her home in Shedd, the first of the week.

Mrs. John Lockman, of Salem, was in the city the first of the week the guest of friends.

Mrs. C. L. Barnes and daughter, Miss

Mande, are in Portland this week visiting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Castle. Mrs. J. Grant returned this week from Portland, where she has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Simon Grindheim.

Mrs. Lloyd Richard, of Eugene is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bayter, on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Cherrington left this week for Portland, where they will join Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Williams for a trip to San Francisco. After a short visit at the exposition Mr. and Mrs. Cherrington will return to their home in New York City.

Mrs. Mollie Muscott returned this week from Portland, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. K. Hill.

MANY LOGS WERE LOST.

The head gates at the log pond went out last Thursday afternoon and left the Stayton ditch high and dry for a short time. The Stayton Ditch Co. got a crew of men at work the next day and a temporary dam and it is thought that almost everything will soon be running.

The Salem ditch people kindly turned in enough water from their ditch up to Tuesday of this week to keep the city water works going, and the electric light plant moving at night.

One of the most serious losses, besides the acadages, is the fact that about 250,000 feet of logs belonging to the Brown-Petzel Lumber Co. got away through the damaged head gates and are straggling from the spillway to the Santiam river. It will probably cost several hundred dollars to put these back in the log pond. Just who is going to pay for this has not yet been decided.—Stayton Mail.

MAY BE PLAYING POLITICS.

(Woodburn Independent.)

It is intimated that Major Carle Abrams will withdraw or has withdrawn his resignation as major to please Adjutant-General White and to keep any one else from promotion.

There will be considerable politics played in the Oregon National Guard before the expiration of Governor Withycombe's administration.

The hot water tank empty and the washing half done

VERY unpleasant but usually the case when you depend on the coal fire—The

RUUD
Tank Water Heater

Will correct this difficulty and give you hot water in sufficient quantities to carry the work to completion without vexatious delay, and at a low cost for gas. Connected complete, ready for operation. Pay with your gas bill—small monthly payments.

"For its work and its policies"

The Standard Oil Company (California) has been awarded many honors for its high grade products exhibited at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, but the one it prizes most—the one in which it feels the deepest sense of gratification—is the special award—"for its work and its policies."

Gold Medal of Honor

This means that its treatment of its employees, its dealings with the public, its attitude toward competitors, its service to its patrons, its methods of producing, transporting, and refining petroleum—in short, the company's business morals and practices—have been found worthy of the special praise of a great national jury of awards.

The company is justly proud of this signal honor as a recognition of the fundamental policies under which it has operated from the beginning.

Englewood Residents Honor Rev. H. B. Dorks

Last night, June 18, the people of Englewood, regardless of church affiliation, gave a reception at the little chapel to show their appreciation of the fact that the U. B. conference recently held in Salem had in their wisdom retained Rev. H. B. Dorks as pastor of that congregation, thereby honoring the affiliation of this estimable family for at least another year. Mrs. Carrie Chase with two assistants had spent the day in decorating the church room and basement for the occasion. Miss Grace Mollenkopf gave an interesting solo. Next was prayer by Rev. Blodgett after which Revs. A. A. Winter of the United Evangelical church, R. N. Avison of the M. E. church, R. G. Summerlin and W. N. Blodgett of the U. B. faith, and L. H. Suter. All made short addresses expressing a welcome to this estimable family, after which Rev. Dorks responded in a very appreciative manner. Mrs. Elbert Thompson gave two readings and Miss Gladys Zell and the little girls of Mrs. Dorks' Sunday school class sang "Jesus Bids Me Shine." Next was a solo by Della Ralston, which was well delivered. The Gleason sisters sang a song entitled, "The Stars."

The congregation then sang, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," after which Rev. Dorks pronounced the benediction. The audience then retired to the basement where the ladies had provided lunch.

The general arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Carrie Chase and the program was planned and controlled by Mrs. Flustman. The program was unimpaired. Taken altogether there was probably no more pleasant and sociable affair ever held in Englewood, which locality is noted for its sociability.

Wise is the man who knows his fan.

Compensation Act An Advantage To Workmen

"The Workingman's Compensation Act" was discussed last evening at the social services held in the Unitarian church.

Dr. F. H. Thompson, who helped draft the fee schedule for the services of doctors acting under this act, said that he regarded the passage of this act as a landmark.

PORTLAND'S SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Portland, Ore., June 21.—Samuel P. Lockwood was elected school director Saturday over Dr. Ernest A. Sommer, incumbent, by a vote of over two and a half to one. Complete returns from every precinct in the school district give the following results:

Lockwood 5,284
Sommer 2,018

Lockwood's majority 3,266
The total vote cast was 7,302. The heaviest vote was cast during the last three hours of the day. Lockwood carried every precinct but two. Sommer carried school precinct 4, for which the polling place was at the Atkinson or trade school, and precinct 13, for which the voting place was at the old Felling school. The vote in precinct 4 was: Lockwood, 15; Sommer, 16. The vote in precinct 13 was: Lockwood, 61; Sommer, 66. Only the two candidates were in the race.

GERMAN ATTENDS SULTAN

Amsterdam, June 21.—A German specialist has been summoned to Constantinople to attend the sultan, according to Berlin dispatches here today. The nature of his illness is not disclosed.

compensation law as the best ever passed by the Oregon legislature as it works to the benefit of all. During the past year 5,000 cases have been handled by the commission. As first aid in accidents, the expenses are not allowed to exceed $250. One of the advantages of the law is that where a man is injured, he is paid a compensation until he can return to work, and in case the time exceeds six months, he is ordered to another employer. The compensation cannot exceed 60 per cent of the injured man's regular wages, and this compensation is regulated accordingly to the wages he was making. For total disability, said the doctor, the injured party is placed on a pension for life. The widow is allowed $30 a month in case of the death of her husband and an additional amount for each child under 16 years of age. The law allows $100 burial expenses.

Benjamin Williams assessed the law from a legal standpoint. He regards insurance by the state as much more satisfactory than old line fire insurance, as the expense is not so great, and the state has an eye more for the public interest than insurance companies with headquarters in the east. This country has a higher accident rate than any in Europe, said Mr. Williams.

All big companies are now doing what they can to prevent accidents. A paper mill at Oregon City gives a prize of $10 each month for the best suggestion of how to prevent accidents. During the last year the United States Steel Corporation has reduced its accidents 50 per cent, and the Illinois Steel Company, 60 per cent. "In time," said Mr. Williams, "I believe that private companies will be forced out of the labor insurance business and I also believe that within a year, every mill in the country will have its organization for safety."
