

"Lowest Prices at Meyers but Never at the Sacrifice of Quality"

A Special Cut-Price Sale of Women's, Misses' and Children's Bathing Suits and Caps

This timely offering of Bathing Suits at special prices offers excellent chances to save on needed garments for your trip to the beach or bathing resort.

The House of Quality

Caps Regularly Priced From 35c to 85c Each All at Special Cut Prices at Meyers---Purchase Yours Now

Seasonable Merchandise Attractively Priced - - - Mens Department

Bathing Suits and Trunks for Men and Boys at Special Cut Prices

A Large Assortment to Select From

Salem's Big Department Store

Meyers GOOD GOODS

MEN'S DESIRABLE UNDERWEAR AT SPECIAL CUT PRICES

The popular Porosknit and Ballbrigan garments--known the world over--nationally advertised--for health and comfort--regular 50c garments, extra special price 37c a garment

STRAW HATS AT ONE-HALF PRICE

- $2.00 Straw Hats ..... $1.00
$2.50 Straw Hats ..... $1.25
$3.00 Straw Hats ..... $1.50
Silk Hats, each ..... 65c
Silk Caps, each ..... 89c
One lot of Straw Hats--your choice, each ..... 50c

All Around Town

Dr. Mendelsohn, specialist in fitting glasses correctly. U. S. Bank Bldg.
Bob Addison, who was injured two weeks ago in a motorcycle accident is able to be out on his machine again.
Dr. G. A. Whitcomb M. D. Physician for preservation and restoration of teeth. Hubbard building.
Mrs. A. E. Chesworth is undergoing treatment for a fever on her right hand she is with her daughter, Mrs. W. K. Richardson.
Dollar watches at Stone's drug store.
Today the river shows a stage of 2 feet above low water mark. A rainfall of .18 inch was recorded yesterday.
Tonight and tomorrow--Mary Pickford--Ye Liberty.
Walter Thomas Mills will lecture this evening at the Unitarian church, Chemeketa and Church streets. He will speak on "Making the Beginning Under Industrial Democracy."
Miss attention--Meet at the club rooms at 1:30 p. m. Thursday to attend the funeral of Will F. Jones. Bring your suit.
Mrs. Carl E. Reynolds and four children, of Portland, who have been visiting at the home of her father-in-law, W. C. Reynolds, in this city the past 10 days, returned to her home in Portland this afternoon. Her husband, still known in this city, is traveling salesman for the Lilly seed company, of Portland and spends his wife and babies for a brief visit with his parents today and tomorrow.
Luther J. Chapin has just returned from the Bartonsville school where he went to inspect the home gardens of the pupils in that district. He reports the children taking much interest in their gardens and all preparing for the Bartonsville school fair to be held next September. Tomorrow Mr. Chapin will go to the French Prairie neighborhood to assist in securing access to the public to be presented in the government to serve aid in the drainage of that section.
William Bratke and Harvey Stanton, two thought and talented anglers of this city, made a flying trip to the McKenzie river, above Harrisburg, by motorboat Sunday and returned Monday morning enjoying the exhilarating sport of being the favorite trout from six last. Bratke, "bigging" a fine string of speckled beauties, bringing from said to 14 inches in length, they had a most pleasant visit and many took very much interested as a result of their conversation with nature.

Ernest Blum, a four-year-old child living at Marion, died yesterday. His next services and interment will take place at Marion today.
W. E. Dawson, of Chicago, has been in the city several days, looking over the country with the intention of buying a farm. He is registered at the Capital hotel.
Sailing on the steamer Northern Pacific next Saturday, are the following parties: Miss Madie Hatfield, V. Ross Part, J. B. Young, Lewis Smith and Fredrick Debeck.
Lloyd Ramdorn, who had his leg broken while riding a motorcycle in a collision near Corvallis, is reported today to be progressing as rapidly as could be expected.
The basement of the new McKinley school building is now fairly completed, the first story being rapidly put on the first story being rapidly put on the first story. It is expected that the building will be completed by the middle of September.
The following party will sail tonight next afternoon at 1:30 o'clock on the steamer Great Northern, from Portland: Miss Elizabeth Meyer, Mrs. J. B. Sutherland, M. Wilson, Miss Helen Neugebauer, August Neugebauer, A. L. Wallace and E. Cooke Patton.
The mercantile department of the commercial club is today moving from the former quarters in the McCracken block to the commercial club round the corner, who has had charge of the business men's league, will continue in charge of this department in its new location.
The morning program of the Chautauque are now bringing out a much larger attendance. This morning W. H. Reed gave a biographical sketch of Franklin and read from Dickens' "Christmas Carol." Tomorrow morning Mr. Reed will read from "The War Man," by Ark Dyke.
The Christians were notified today by W. L. Jones, secretary-manager of the club, that they were to be active for the coming fall. It will be held September 27 to October 1. The club will be provided with several appealing lectures and will meet at 8:00 and 9:00 o'clock.
J. C. Jones, district manager of the

Walter Thomas Mills
Free Lecture, Unitarian Church, cor. Chemeketa and Church Sts., Tonight July 7, 1915, at 8 o'clock.
Subject: 'Making the Beginning Under Industrial Democracy'
Everybody Come!!

Stock Exchange Shows Weakness Due To War

(Copyright 1915 by the New York Evening Post.)
New York, July 7.--For the weakness on the stock exchange there was both direct and indirect causes today. One was embodied in the larger selling of our stocks and bonds by Europe, and the other in the feeling of doubt again created by the character of the reported tentative suggestions by the German government.

HOP GROWERS SIGN UP UNDER WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT

Adolph Wolf Ranches, Aggregating 563 Acres, Will Insure Pickers

For the first time since the workmen's compensation law went into effect, two years ago, hop growers have taken advantage of protection under the act when Adolph Wolf & Son, of Silverton, hop growers and dealers, listed their six hop yards with the industrial accident commission, aggregating 563 acres of hops and all located in Marion county. Five of the yards are listed under the firm name of Adolph Wolf & Son, the latter being Julius Wolf, and one under the name of Adolph Wolf in his private capacity.

Nels Darling, Great Booster, Is Feasted At the Marion Hotel

About 50 of Salem's representative business men and citizens and almost as many ladies of the Cherry City, gathered around the festive board at the Marion hotel this noon to honor Nels Darling, one of the leading orators of the Chautauque in session here this week and one of the foremost "boosters" of the country, who was the guest of the Salem Commercial Club at this banquet.

TROUT FRY AND GAME BIRDS TO BE SHIPPED HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

In response to a request on the part of the fish and game commission of Oregon for representatives with the fish and game department of California, looking to the stocking of some of the principal lakes and streams of the state with trout and the trade with new varieties of game birds, great success was achieved in the governor's department yesterday.

Carranzistas and Villistas Clash In Hot Battle

Laredo, Texas, July 7.--Fighting between Carranzistas and Villistas in the battle about Durango continues, according to reports here today. The total casualties were placed at 2,000 in semi-official reports. The Carranzistas are said to have lost 100 killed.

Interference With Red Cross May Force Hand

Washington, July 7.--Interference with Red Cross agents may yet force President Wilson's hand in dealing with Mexico. Red's was official today declared they intended to proceed with the relief work attempted in the southern republic.

Stock Inspector Must Live In County Where He Works

At the request of State Veterinarian Lott, an opinion was rendered by Attorney General Drown this morning to the effect that, while it was not necessary for one to be a resident of a county at the time of the appointment to stock inspector, under the provisions of the new livestock sanitary act, it was incumbent on the appointee to have been appointed to serve in that position in order to qualify for the position.

Illustrated Lecture Is Postponed, Account Illness

Miss Mary Farman, dean of the women's college of Pacific university, who was scheduled to have delivered an illustrated lecture at the girls' industrial school this evening upon the subject of the "Lifeline of the Pacific," has notified Matron Hopkins of the school that she will be unable to fill the engagement on account of an attack of tonsillitis and the lecture has been postponed until a later date. Captain Lawrence, of the local Salvation Army corps, will deliver an illustrated lecture at the girls' school this evening upon "Salvation work."

Six Generals and 100 Men Killed In Battle At Tepic

San Francisco, July 7.--Passengers arriving here today aboard the Pacific Mail steamship Pennsylvania from San Blas, Mexico, told of a battle at Tepic in which seven Carranzista generals and 100 soldiers and five Villista officers and 60 men were killed.

PERSONALS

Emil Lee, of Silverton, was a visitor in the city yesterday.
Grant McGuire, of Woodburn, is in the city today on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers left yesterday for Los Angeles.
L. M. Carl, mayor of Albany, is in Salem today on legal business.
J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, is in Corvallis today.
E. W. Peterson, of St. Paul, is in the city this week, on jury duty.
W. E. Vincent is in Portland this week, serving on the Federal jury.
A. T. Woolpert, of the Capital Drug store, is visiting in Portland this week.
Carl Green, who has been visiting with friends in Oregon City, returned yesterday.
Gus Moser, senator from Multnomah county, was in the city yesterday on legal business.
Mrs. E. A. Hilton left yesterday for Newport, where she will spend the summer at the Albert cottage.
Mrs. G. A. Molden, of Hood River, formerly of Portland, is in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clark returned yesterday from a week-end visit at Oregon City, visiting with relatives.
W. H. Warner, court bailiff of Lincoln county, was in Salem yesterday to attend the funeral of Miss Dorothy Haugh.
Mrs. John German and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, who have been visiting in the city for the past week with Mrs. Nettie Townsend, returned yesterday to her home in Portland.

Ships Warned By Wireless Of Bombs Hidden In Cargo

(Continued from page one.)
Immediately upon being received here the letter was transmitted to the Police superintendent Pullman and the navy department was asked to use its wireless in communicating with vessels which sailed Saturday. Pullman also communicated with Police Commissioner Woods in New York. Woods reported that he had searched all ships now in New York for bombs which Holt might have planted.

NO BOMBS FOUND.

New York, July 7.--Search made; nothing found--a wireless from the Canadian liner Saxonia stated this afternoon, in response to the warning sent out by the navy department regarding the bomb Frank Holt claimed to have planted aboard a trans-Atlantic liner.

When in SALEM, OREGON, stop at BLIGH HOTEL

Strictly Modern
Free and Private Baths.
RATES 75c, $1.00, $1.50 PER DAY
The only hotel in the business district. Nearest to all Depots, Theatres and Capitol Buildings.
A Home Away from Home.
T. G. BLIGH, Prop.
Both Phones Free Auto Bus.

Mill City Auto Stage

Leaves 475 State street at 4:40 p. m. daily for Turner Annex.
Leaves, Sobellity, Stayton, Melama and Lyco. Arrives at Mill City 7:40 p. m. Returns.
Leaves Mill City 6:30 a. m. and arrives Salem at 9:30 a. m.
Phone 963.

NOTICE!

We have taken over the State Institutions' Auto Stage and will continue to make following regular trips.
Leaves Bligh Hotel 10:30 a. m.
Leaves Training School 12:50 p. m.
Leaves Bligh Hotel 5:00 p. m.
Leaves Training School 7:00 p. m.

Salem Taxicab Co. PHONE 700

Does the Sun Hurt Your Eyes?
USUALLY IT MEANS A DEFECT OF VISION; OUR SCIENTIFIC EXAMINATION WILL SATISFY YOU ON THIS POINT. OUR CORRECTLY FITTED GLASSES WILL GIVE YOU RELIEF.
Miss A. McCulloch, Optometrist
208-209 Hubbard Bldg. Phone 109