The name is unscriptural. I have very carefully searched my New Testament to find the term "Campbellite," and have utterly failed to find it or any of the one hundred and fifty denominational names, found in the U.S. census reports. This term is nowhere taught in the Word of God as a proper tiffe to wear, as a follower of Christ and I am determined to wear no name religiously of which I cannot read in the Bible.

Can you, and will you do the same! I am not a "Campbellite," because I believe all God's children should be one, and my reason for so believing is that Jesus so taught, very clearly—norably in John 17:20-21, Paul tanght. Hul., Salem; J. George Johnson, Phil-bp R. Johnson, Portland; Clyde N.
