

SHRINERS CAPTURE SEATTLE BY STORM FOR WEEK'S REIGN

Sound City Gay With Fezes, Music, Fluttering Flags and Fun

Seattle, Wash., July 12.—Seattle opened wide her arms today, for her petty cares of business and bowed obedience to the gayest monarch of the world, Frederick R. Smith, of Rochester, N. Y., imperial potentate of Shrine-land, who with his royal divan, will rule the city for one solid, joyous week.

Throughout the day amid a bewildering medley of martial music, waving flags and streamers, fluttering hearts and happy chatter, this royal personage was followed by the arrival of troops of scarlet-coated, fezzed and festive people—a vast invading throng of 50,000 good fellows, their wives and families.

When Imperial Potentate Smith stepped from the train at the union depot at 8:30 o'clock, hands and patrols from visiting temples, platoons of police and a guard of Nile scouts, of Seattle, piloted the potentate to his breakfast at the Washington hotel.

During the afternoon Shrine people toured the city's boulevards in motor cars and got acquainted. Not until early evening was the real program of the day approached.

But, meanwhile a warm and bitter contest was being framed. Ismailia temple, of Buffalo; Moolah temple, of St. Louis, and Palestine temple, of Providence, E. I., each want the next convention held in their respective cities. Dire events were planned to transpire during the week.

Sunday saw thousands of visiting Shriners on the boulevards and splashing about in the surf at the bathing beaches.

Little parades marched up and down the streets at all hours of the day, there were special services in two churches, and just enough music to keep the streets lined with people during the day.

Thirty-six specials have emptied delegates from 59 widely separated temples into the city today.

Included in the arrivals are Imperial Treasurer William S. Brown, of Philadelphia; Imperial Second Ceremonial Master Ernest A. Cutts, of Savannah, Ga.; Imperial First Ceremonial Master Ellis Lewis Garretson, and Imperial Marshal James S. McCandless, of Honolulu.

Officially today is "Canadian day."

Following dinner parties tonight the first program of the week will include children's dances, drills by patrols, vocal music and band concerts by the famous band of Abdullah temple, of Leavenworth, Kansas.

At the same time the imperial divan and other Shriners will be entertained by the light opera, Martha, sung by the Standard Grand Opera company, of Seattle. Still others will find amusement on the roof garden of the Stuart-Henry-White buildings, where a feast of Texas watermelons will be held.

Tuesday will be Tacoma day.

BOWLEY WILL SETTLE WASHINGTON MIX-UP

If former State Highway Engineer Bowley corroborates the interpretation placed upon the contract for the construction of the Rex-Tigardville road in Washington county by Jeffrey & Burton, the contractors, whereby the latter was to receive $2.45 per cubic yard for broken stone measured loose, instead of "broken stone macadam in place" according to the strict letter of the contract, then the highway commission can see no way out of making another appropriation of $3,000 from the highway fund for next year to assist in the completion of this road in fulfillment of its promise. Otherwise the state has already paid the contractors $2,114.84 in excess of the contract price on last year's work and the $3,000 already appropriated for the work for this year will be sufficient to complete the job, according to the report of State Engineer Lewis.

The matter was taken up by the highway commission at the meeting yesterday afternoon and considered from every angle and it was finally decided to ask Major Bowley what construction he gave terms of the contract to contractors, there being nothing in writing so far as can be learned, and the commission will have to abide by his answer. As it is, State Engineer Lewis, says, the contract was let upon the basis of a cost of $20,000 and the work is being paid for upon the cost basis of $24,000.

Bombs Smuggled Aboard In Sacks Of Sugar

New York, July 12.—Nine bombs were found hidden in bags of sugar aboard the British steamer Kirkswald when its cargo consigned to Marseilles was discharged on the last trip abroad, according to officers of the vessel returning here today.

The Kirkswald, a vessel of 4,021 tons, was loaded at the Erie line pier in Brooklyn. Officers of the steamer believe stowaways played a role which for some reason failed to explode. News of the discovery of the bombs was hushed up abroad and their presence was first reported when the Kirkswald returned to this port.

FORMER ATHLETE IN HOSPITAL

Salem, Ore., July 12.—Fred Moulton, of Klamath Falls, football and track star for the University of Oregon from 1906 to 1909, was committed to the Oregon state hospital today from Multnomah county. Injuries received during a football game are believed to have led to Moulton's mental breakdown.

Moulton, during his college days, was familiarly known as "Iron Foot" and "Kakki" and was without a peer in northwest collegiate football circles as a punter. He was captain of Oregon in 1909, in which year he was graduated from that institution. Moulton also had few equals as a pole vaulter, and is an expert rifle shot.

STOMACH MISERY QUICKLY VANISHES

Your money back if you want it is the way in which Daniel J. Fry, the popular druggist, is selling Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy.

This is an unusual plan, but Mi-o-na has so much merit and is so almost invariably successful in relieving all forms of indigestion that he can't but little risk in selling under a guarantee of this kind.

Do not be miserable or make your friends miserable with your dyspepsia. Mi-o-na will help you. If it doesn't, tell Daniel J. Fry that you want your money back and he will cheerfully refund it.

A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon start you on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food.

Mi-o-na has been so uniformly successful that every box is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. What fairer proposition could be made.

Daniel J. Fry gives his personal guarantee of "money back if you want it" with every box of Mi-o-na that he sells. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.
