ENGLAND WOULD SEND HUGE AIRSHIP FLEET TO BOMBARD GERMANY

By W. A. Penfold (United Press). London, July 13—With the English being inability to send a direct fleet of airships against Germany at present, the British government is taking every possible step to send as many airships as possible in the world. The French, who have been able to send airships to bomb German cities, are now planning to send a fleet of 150 airships to bomb German cities. The fleet is to be sent by sea, under the command of the English government, and will be equipped with the latest equipment.

GERMAN LINERS MUST REMAIN INTERNED IS OPINION OF ENGLISH

By Ed L. Liggett

The United States government has decided that all German liners must remain interned in American ports. This decision was made by the Secretary of State, who has been informed by the British government that the United States should not be responsible for any damage that may be inflicted on German liners interned in American ports.
