BEND IN SOCIAL NEWS

The Capital Journal is always glad to print social news from outside of Salem, and will appreciate anything of this kind sent in over the telephone or by mail. In sending in news the writer's name should always be signed, set for publication, but as a guarantee that the matter is reliable. We do not print anything sent in unless we know the author of it.

A N event which will stand out prominently this week will be the picnic next Thursday afternoon and evening given by the members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. This is the annual out-of-doors social gathering of these bodies and usually comes in August, the earlier date for this year being selected at a regular meeting of the W. R. C. owing to many of the members planning on being out-of-town later in the season. No program will be given, the time to be taken up in enjoying a pleasantly informal meal. All members of the W. R. C., G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, and Spanish War veterans will be extended a cordial invitation likewise the members of their families. It is expected that it will be one of the largest of summer gatherings for some time.

Mrs. W. O. Aspin and Miss Margaret Aspin passed the weekend with friends in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Aspin are entertaining L. D. Leidal, Mrs. Aspin's brother, of Fergus Falls, Minnesota, who came west with the Shewers, and who will remain for a short time. Other guests from Fergus Falls, the Aspin's former home, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. La Pitte, were expected today, en route from the Panama-Pacific exposition. They will remain several days.

Mrs. C. E. Barbour entertained most delightfully last Thursday afternoon at her home on South Fourteenth street, her guests being members of the Fourteenth Street Neighborhood club, with a few entertained additionally. This club was formed last winter and has enjoyed a series of gatherings throughout the winter that are to continue through the summer months.
