

Social and Personal

By MOLLIE RUMORE

SEND IN SOCIAL NEWS.

The Capital Journal is always glad to print social news from outside of Salem, and will appreciate anything of this kind sent in over the telephone or by mail. In sending in news the writer's name should always be signed, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the matter is reliable. We do not print anything sent in unless we know the author of it.

THROUGH the Oregon building at the fair has already achieved fame in the distinctive way in which its officials have featured the characteristics of the people of the state of Oregon it has now added a very individual touch in the person of Mrs. Agnes Scott Dunaway.

There is scarcely a woman who would better represent Oregon at an exposition than Mrs. Dunaway. She has seen all the other expositions, her trip to the Centennial in '76 as commissioner from Oregon making a very funny story as she told it to an absorbed group of listeners. Several men were appointed with salary and all expenses and one woman, Mrs. Dunaway, sans salary, sans expenses, sans everything but the high honor of being a woman commissioner at the first great exposition of the world's history. Money was not flowing as freely in Oregon forty years ago, as it is today, so Mrs. Dunaway faced the journey without the Sherman-wit of a ticket. But with her gift for speaking over as command, Mrs. Dunaway saw the way clear before her. Going up the Columbia, by boat, she interested the captain, a great soul, in her determination. The cabin was cleared at his orders and a lecture flock ed to hear what was a most unusual event in those days—a woman speaker. Mrs. Dunaway's pars shone in a satisfactory manner the result—eighty dollars. Stopping at Wallula she secured a conventional hall and again became a captain of finance. Proceeding in this way to Winona she boarded the train and reached Philadelphia in time to represent her state with all due credit. Since then Mrs. Dunaway has witnessed the following expositions: Chicago, Omaha, St. Louis, Lewis and Clark and Seattle, and now she's concluding her fair experiences with the declaration that the Panama-Pacific surpasses them all. Estimated by experience and vitality, Mrs. Dunaway may well be regarded the youngest person in the Oregon building. Her time is well taken up with viewing the exposition in her wheelchair, attending functions, delivering speeches and relating early day stories in gatherings of eager listeners. Mrs. Dunaway is well known in this state as a prominent pioneer leader in Woman's Suffrage. Through her work and strong personality she has scores of friends throughout the state who are following with interest her doings in the northern state. What a moving crowd of people who have given up their lives to the service of the state in diverse ways the Oregon building is proving! Among these is Mrs. Agnes Scott Dunaway, a woman worthy of the loudest cheering upon her. Oregon may indeed be proud.

The Bush party, composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush and their guests, Mrs. Eugene Feller, Miss Eugenie Feller and Kirkard Feller, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Asa Bush and Miss Bush's guest, Miss Alice Brown, of Westfield, Massachusetts, which has been enjoying numerous and extended winter trips to remote places of interest in the state, left last night for Boston Park, Washington, by way of Tacoma. They will be away the greater part of the week.

Mr. Fred K. Higgins of Marshfield is visiting his grand parents, Mrs. and Mrs. George S. Dowling of East Main street. Arriving Wednesday, she will remain for several weeks yet.

Mrs. Ivan Billinger, of Soviet Russia, returned to her home Saturday after passing several weeks with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Cook. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Bassett and their small son, and Lloyd Bassett. Both Mr. Higgins was to remain for a few days. Mrs. Bassett did her best to remove some time at Mrs. Billinger's house guest.

Mrs. Esther Miller, of Granite Park, who has been the music guest of Miss Mary Finley, during the Keweenaw League Institute, returned to her home this morning. She is a sister of Keville Miller, the popular Williamsburg university student who is the surprise success of the summer, who is enjoying a short vacation at home.

Miss Ruth Wilson and Miss Eleanor Horning, popular graduates of the 1914 class of the Salem hospital, left Monday evening for Alaska, where they will pass a year. The most recent word from them was from Kotzebue.

Mrs. Lena Heintzel, of Salem Mills, was expected to arrive today to pass several days with Mrs. W. H. Cook.

Mrs. H. E. Evans, of SEI Broadway, will leave with her daughter, the recently married Mrs. and Mrs. Watson Bush, of Kansas City, Missouri, who arrived in Salem Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil C. Rock, of North Commercial street, entertained as their guests from Saturday until last night, Mr. Rock's mother, Mrs. Lora Rock, of Portland, and his sister, Mrs. K. G. Swett, of Terrebonne.

The J. W. Scotts, of Ashland, Washington, who have been visiting Mrs. Scott's sister, Mrs. J. C. Petty, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Pogue are returning to their home, Mrs. Pogue's mother, Mrs. J. W. Bransberg, of Elkmont Falls, Edwin Cox, of Eugene,

PERSONALS

Col. Theodore Roosevelt Spent Five Minutes In Capital Yesterday

P. S. Spears is a visitor in Portland today.

P. P. Pele, who is in the city yesterday from Mammoth.

P. L. Price of Dallas, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

John C. Fleming of Dallas, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Virginia Knowland is visiting in Portland with relatives.

The only attempt made in the way of an address, was when he raised his voice slightly above his usual conversational tone and said:

"I know you people and I believe in you and your crops, especially your crop of babies."

The speech might have been longer but just at that moment several anxious mothers pressed forward with children in arms and the address was cut short in order that the Colonel might shake hands with the babies and say nice things to the mothers. To one old soldier he said:

"Well, I see you aren't afraid to fight. You were no mollycoddle."

When Thomas M. Chapman, of 244 North 23rd street, stepped up to him and said: "My son, Fred, was with you, and was killed at San Juan Hill," Roosevelt at once said, "Yes, I remember him; he was with Buck O'Neil."

Roosevelt is making a tour of the west and is now en route to San Francisco.

and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Powers, of Shedd, Oregon. All will remain for an extended visit.

The annual picnic of the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers held at Salem springs, Saturday, was attended by a number of auto loads of the ten people. Judge P. H. Davis, Webster Keyes and George Downing were the speakers of the day. Among those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Abner Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. George Downing, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pollio, Mrs. J. W. Bransberg, of Elkmont Falls; Mrs. Fred K. Gettins, of Marshall; Mrs. Mary Howard, Mrs. Louis Bechtel, Mrs. Angie Keyes, Mr. M. E. Pogue and Otto J. Wilson.

Mrs. L. P. Baldwin, of Salem, Oregon, mother of Mrs. Frank Happen, and Mrs. Lloyd Hansen, of Salem, are visiting here for a month and serving the exposition. —Palo Alto Times.

The Doctor D. J. Frys accompanied by their guests, Mrs. John Hansen and Miss Josephine Herbert, left this morning for Neosho, where the Frys will occupy their summer cottage for the greater part of the season. Their summer guests who are from Missoula, Montana, will remain with them for some time.

Miss Margaret Fisher and Miss Netta Gibson are enjoying a brief visit in Portland.

"Through a coincidence," says an item in Monday's Albany Herald, "all the members of Rev. and Mrs. T. N. Van Winkle's family were present at a dinner yesterday in Salem for the first time since they left the old family home near Homer eight years ago. Former Postmaster J. S. Van Winkle of this city, went to Salem yesterday to see his sister, Mrs. J. G. Patterson of Merrill, Ore., who was the hostess for the past several days had been a guest at the home of a brother while attending a convention in the capital city. When he arrived by train to his surprise that all members of the family were present including the parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Van Winkle, who are now living in Portland taking the time to visit them. Mrs. Patterson and her son, also from Salem, in order to see them before returning to her home, which is away down in southern Oregon. At dinner time it so happened that the wives of Mr. Van Winkle's brothers were not present, having just the immediate family. There are two sons, Fred, and Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle, the parents, and the following children: J. S. Van Winkle of this city; L. H. Van Winkle of Salem, assistant attorney general; Mrs. J. G. Patterson of Merrill, Ore., and J. Frank Van Winkle of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reister, of Des Moines, Iowa, were visiting the latter part of the week with Mr. Reister's sister, Mrs. F. H. White, of East Missoula. They came to Seattle with a delegation of Shermans from Des Moines and will visit Portland, Astoria and other points of interest before leaving Oregon for the exposition. Mr. and Mrs. Reister expected themselves to be very well pleased with Salem and the surrounding country. Mrs. Reister, who visited here six years ago, having made improvements in our Capital City. Mr. Reister is the Iowa state hotel inspector.

A delightful picnic was enjoyed Saturday evening and Sunday for a company of young people near Herrington for young Lincoln. For many months Mr. and Mrs. George Powers, an anticipated picnic since a year ago last Fourth of July when they also enjoyed a delightful time at the same place. The picnic crowd enjoyed the pleasure afforded by the Willamette River and the beautiful picnic grounds. Saturday evening and Sunday were spent seeing sights and in water and land excursions. The table was attractively arranged for the study discs. Those present were Mrs. J. D. Williamson, Mrs. M. L. Bassett, Miss Georgia Bassett, Miss Ruth Wadsworth, Miss Mary Bassett, Miss Frances Gleason, Miss Barbara Livingston and Miss Jessie Hoyt. Meems, Fredricka Beck, Rocky Mountain, July 14th; Fred Wadsworth and Pauline Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williamson and Mrs. M. L. Bassett, Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. K. Higgins and their children, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wesley and their children, visited their summer's setting this morning. They will motor to Tillamook and return Saturday evening.

Miss Harry Hobson left yesterday for New York, where she will remain for four weeks.

Mr. George W. Conroy and wife will have a regular New England vacation this summer, spending the month of August in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. White, of Hockley, remained Sunday afternoon for the White's home and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reister of Des Moines, Iowa. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White of East Missoula and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Des Moines. Miss Mildred White, Miss Elizabeth Nichols, Miss Nichols, Miss Jessie and Miss Ruth Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. White, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard's One Piece Porcelain and Alaska Refrigerators

HARRY THAK RESTS QUIETLY AT HIS HOME

PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—Harry K. Thak, quiet, quiet, quietly at the home of his widow here, only his closest friends called. This afternoon he plans to take an automobile trip to see his old haunts.

Thak has developed a marked desire to avoid certain roads. He has not stated his favorite place. At one time he intended to study law but he is known to have abandoned the idea because he said he is too nervous.

He intends to visit San Francisco but has decided upon no date for his departure.

Philadelphia Herald.—The Germans, always endeavoring and perfecting a handful of submarine

explosives, have recently succeeded in destroying a number of large ships.

These vessels were

the British battleship

"Hood" and the battle cruiser

"Invincible."

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were

engulfed in flames and

blown to pieces.

Both ships were