

Social and Personal

By MOLLIE BUNNEMAN

WITH the all-enticing call of beach and mountain ringing in one's ears, it is rather difficult for the chronicler of society to find much to write about except "comings and goings." Beginning Sunday, and continuing every Sunday during the summer, a special excursion train from Woodburn to Albany, by way of Mt. Angel, Silverton, Gervais and Salem, connecting with the regular morning train to Newport, will leave Woodburn starting at Salem at 6:30 a.m., reaching Salem on the return trip at 11:30 p.m. This offers an opportunity for every city dweller to enjoy a brief trip to this favorite resort, providing they are not among the more fortunate ones who own cottages there or are privileged to pass several weeks there.

Miss Mary Babcock and Miss Georgia Broyles have returned from an outing at Ecola Beach, near Seaside.

Mrs. George Hays, of Irrigon, Oregon, is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles McCarter. She will remain until September first.

Mrs. Nathan Pickett, who is known to all her friends as "Grandma Pickett," who has recently returned from a year's stay with relatives in Tacoma, has come up her residence with Mrs. Charles Scott, of Highland, shared hours Wednesday with Mrs. Thompson, formerly of Portland, who has also come here to reside, and Mrs. Virgil Kenworthy, another new addition to Salem, when the ladies of the Highland Friends Aid society entertained with an informal reception at the Scott residence. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. Julia Showerman, Mrs. Jacob Strauss, Mrs. G. J. Price, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. W. P. Ringo, Mrs. H. E. Pemberton, Mrs. John Carpenter, Miss Vera McMillan, Mrs. Arthur McMillan, Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. Josephine Harkett, Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Mr. Mrs. H. E. Hooper, Mrs. H. J. Frazier, Mrs. F. Frazier, Mrs. Lorenzo White and Mrs. Sears.

The members of the Degree of Honor sewing society were entertained yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Eugene Aufrause. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Emil Aufrause in a fortnight, at her country place east of Salem. The work being done is to be used at a bazaar later, to create a fund for charity, or to cover necessary expenses of the organization. Those present were: Mrs. B. D. Holman, Mrs. E. Thatcher, Mrs. J. A. Davis, Mrs. Mattie Johnson, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. William Each, Mrs. Martha Viseo, Mrs. E. G. White, Mrs. J. Crosson, Mrs. Pearl Matlock, Mrs. Maggie Disdier, Mrs. Loney, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. T. Paul Jade, Mrs. B. A. Sillwood, Mrs. Barb Hunter, Mrs. Gladys Hill, of Mill City; Mrs. Queen, and Mrs. Aufrause, of Danville; Mrs. E. Mason, Mrs. Ethel Aufrause, Mrs. L. Holman, Mrs. Horace Dykes, Mrs. J. P. Read, Mrs. Sylvia Richter, Mrs. E. C. Bailey, Mrs. L. Hill, Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Harry Ralph.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Westphal, of Martinsburg, West Virginia, stopped off for a pleasant three days' visit with Mrs. Westphal's son, Mrs. E. T. Astor, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, of McMinnville addition. Mr. and Mrs. Westphal were members of a personally conducted party of about forty West Virginia friends and neighbors who came west in a special car for a tour of the San Diego and Panama Pacific exhibitions and other points of interest. They left Salem July 10th to join their party at Portland, Idaho, and will visit Yellowstone park and several large cities on their return trip home. They were very favorably impressed with Oregon and declared that Salem was one of the prettiest

PORTLAND WOMAN ILL

San Francisco, July 23.—Brought to the central emergency hospital from the Stratford hotel, a woman claiming to be Mrs. V. Gordon, of Portland, was treated for poisoning today. She declared she had taken poison tablets by mistake for headache medicine. Friends said her husband was a member of the Portland chapter of commerce.
