CALLING THEM DOWN

Boys, I am going to call you down in a "shoo-fittin'" sort of a way. You fellows of twenty or there abouts! Whom I see on the corners all day.

You fellows that gather in a group of nine

Or a crowd of a dozen or more,

To gossip of sports and to pass the time On the sidewalks in front of some store.

At times you get rough and commence to swear

You forget that some people are near.

Or is it because you refuse to care

What the women in passing might hear?

You stare at the passers like ill-bred gawks,

Don't you know that such staring is rude

That shoppers and others who use the walks

Would appreciate manners less crude?

PORTLAND ATHLETE CAPTURES BURGLAR AFTER HOT CHASE

Portland, Ore., July 23.—The athletic prowess of Walter B. Honeyman, former Multnomah club star and prominent in business and society man, stood him in good stead early today when, after a chase of several blocks he halted one of a pair of burglars who a few minutes previously had invaded the sleeping apartments of himself and wife.

Shortly after midnight Mr. and Mrs. Honeyman were awakened from sound slumber by a pair of unmasked burglars who commanded them to "keep still." They did. The burglars leisurely ransacked the bed room taking considerable jewelry, and escaped.

Honeyman arose, hastily dressed and started in mad pursuit, while his wife telephoned police headquarters.

Honeyman, running at top speed soon came within sight of the burglars and opened fire with a revolver. After four shots one of them surrendered.

At the police station the burglar gave the name of Elmer Brown.

MINISTER SULLIVAN RESIGNS

Washington, July 23.—James M. Sullivan has resigned as United States minister to Santo Domingo. It was learned authoritatively today.

The resignation followed the recent investigation of allegations that he had been guilty of misconduct and was unfit for the office. His successor has not yet been selected.

Plot To Kidnap Head of Mormon Church Foiled

Denver, Colo., July 23.—J. W. Melrose, assistant to Roy O. Sampson of the department of justice, denied here today that he had said the highwayman who planned to kidnap Joseph Smith, head of the Mormon church, intended to hold him for $100,000 ransom. He declares he admitted that federal agents had uncovered a plot to kidnap the head of the Mormon church in time to break up the scheme, but that he made no other statements.

That Edward B. Trafton arrested in Rupert, Idaho, May 22, this year, and now a federal prisoner at Cheyenne, Wyo., directed the plot, was also denied by Melrose. Trafton is charged with having been the lone highwayman who, on July 29, 1914, held up fifteen coaches of tourists in Yellowstone park and secured $8,000 in money and valuables.

It is believed here the gang of highway robbers recently operating in Yellowstone park and those connected with the abduction a few days ago of E. A. Empey, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, are the same parties who intended to capture Joseph Smith.

Mormon Leaders Astounded.

Salt Lake City, July 23.—Leaders of the Mormon church were astounded today when they read press dispatches from Denver announcing the unearthing of a plot to kidnap President Smith, of the Mormon church, and hold him for ransom. The venerable president is being closely guarded today.

Bishop Davis Smith, a son, expressed his astonishment.

"This is the most startling and unexpected thing I have heard in years," he said. "I had no previous intimation that a plot existed, nor did any of the officials of the church. I am not prepared to say the reports are not true, but I am positive that some of us never heard of such a plot until the federal officials referred to it."

Cost of Living Again Is Mounting Skyward

Chicago, July 23.—The cost of living is edging skyward again. But hope for lower prices in the near future is good, according to Sol Westefeld, chairman of the relations committee of the National Retail Grocers' association.

Westefeld declares meat, cabbage, flour, sugar, apples and beans are all higher than they were a year ago. The war is chiefly the cause. Prices of eggs, butter, potatoes and lemons are slightly lower.

"A barrel of flour today costs from $1.80 to $2.40 per barrel more at wholesale than it did last year," said Westefeld. "However, there should be a decrease of $1 per barrel within a month, because of the proximity of the new wheat crop, which has been much delayed by the unusual rainy spell."

ALBANY CLAIMS OAK TREE WHICH IS BEARING APPLES

Albany, Ore., July 23.—An oak tree bearing apples is growing in Linn county beside the road near Verdure station. The apples resemble the ordinary variety and have a splendid taste.

How this unusual thing came about is not exactly known but the theory that a seed was accidentally dropped in a dirt laden tire of the oak tree is advanced.

At any rate a full fledged limb of an apple tree grew out of the oak and is laden with luscious apples.

MAYOR GILL FOR PEACE

Seattle, Wash., July 23.—"Because a man believes in peace rather than in carrying a sword about between his teeth, he is not a politician," declared Mayor Hiram Gill, speaking before the King County Veterans' association Thursday.

"It takes a high type of courage to maintain peace," he added. "Some times it is weakness and fear that lead men into battle."

New York Globe: It seems an invitation to disaster to name war vessels Lightning, Terrible, Invincible and the like. Tortoise, Lady Mary and Vulnerable might fare better.

WILLAMETTE'S ANNUAL BULLETIN IS ISSUED

Several Changes In Faculty For Coming Year—Academy To Be Featured

The Willamette University Bulletin has just been issued, giving the announcements for the 1915-1916 term.

September 13-15 will be devoted to registrations and examinations. Instruction will begin September 16.

The coming term of the University will show several changes in the faculty, the most important and far-reaching being in the election of the new president, Dr. Carl Gregg Dooley, formerly president of the West Virginia Wesleyan college, at Buckhannon, West Virginia. Another addition to the strength of the teaching force, is in the election of Burgess P. Ford, for the past two years has been superintendent of the schools at Estacada, Or. Mr. Ford has been elected principal of the Academy, and will also instruct in English.

Besides these two important changes, several new teachers have been selected for the coming year. Mrs. Helen Miller Senn, professor of public speaking, comes here from Portland. She is a graduate of the National Conservatory of Dramatic Art and Expression, and of the Boston College of Expression.

Miss Margaret Gill, instructor in Fine Arts, now becomes one of the regular teaching force of the University, as her work has this year become incorporated in to the regular course.

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, is another new teacher, coming here to become instructor in Art History. She has had three years' research work in India, Egypt, Palestine, Greece and Italy.

John O. Hall, a graduate of Columbia University, has been elected Professor of Social Science, and is one of the new members of the faculty.

From the West Virginia Wesleyan college, of which he was president, Dr. Dooley brings with him two of his instructors, Robert E. Strauffer, who studied at the Chicago University and Harvard college, will teach in English literature, and Gustaf Elsen, in modern languages. Prof. Elsen has studied in the universities of Berlin, Paris, Madrid and Denmark.

Miss M. Gertrude Jones is also one of the new instructors. She will instruct in Latin.

Two of the graduates of the 1913 class of the University will become instructors in the academy this fall. Miss Grace E. Thompson has been elected instructor in science, and Miss Mary L. Cone, instructor in English. Both of these young ladies are well known in the city and were graduated with high honor at the close of the last term of the university. As yet, instructors have not been elected to fill the department of ancient languages, director of the school of music, or for voice, piano or violin.

Miss Edith Benedict, who has so satisfactorily filled the position of registrar for the university, has been retained for the coming year.

The general course of instruction has not been materially changed. Perhaps the effort to bring the Academy into more prominence as a part of the university, has been the most important change for the coming year. The course has now been entirely standardized, and under the direction of the new principal, Burgess P. Ford, it is expected to bring it up to the equal of any in the west.

According to the University Bulletin the principal expenses for one college year of thirty six weeks, may be brought down as low as $200. The average expense for the same term is estimated at $265, and the high expense for the 36 weeks $370. In estimating the college year expense, the Bulletin adds, "a student should add something for clothing and laundry and other incidentals."

would force almost immediate evacuation of the besieged city by the Russians. Czerek is 20 miles southeast of Warsaw and should a crossing of the Vistula be forced at that point, a German force would be thrown toward the rear of the city, threatening the railway lines over which the Slav retreat will be made.

No ammunition is being wasted on the fortress of Nowa Georgiewsk, northwest of Warsaw. The Germans in that region are maintaining their advance just out of range of the fort's heavy guns. As the field forces of the Slavs are being steadily thrown back, Nowa Georgiewsk is being left isolated and its fall will come with that of Warsaw.

William M. Ivins. Noted New York Lawyer, Dies

New York, July 23.—William M. Ivins, the noted lawyer, died here today at his Fifty-eighth street home of Bright's disease and cerebral poisoning.

William Mills Ivins is best remembered as attorney for William Barrow, Jr., in the recent libel suit against Theodore Roosevelt at Syracuse. He was republican candidate for mayor of New York City in 1905 but was defeated.

Ivins was born in Monmouth county, N. J., April 22, 1851. He graduated from the law school of Columbia university, N. Y., in 1873. He was judge of the general sessions of New York, 1884-1888, and chairman of the New York charter commission 1901-02. He was a member of the law firm of Ivins, Wolf & Hugnet, of New York.

will precede its capture unless the Austro-German advance from the southeast attains unexpected momentum.

A great deal also depends upon the success of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's attack against the Narzew line. Unless his forces meet with an unexpected reverse it is believed here that evacuation of the city by the Slavs cannot be long delayed.

When the Russians finally withdraw it is expected they will repeat the tactics followed at Przemysl and Lemberg. In this event the main forces would withdraw, leaving a garrison strong enough to prevent rapid pursuit of the retreating troops and capable of inflicting considerable losses in retreating the final assault upon the city's defenses.

On the right flank the Teutonic forces are approaching Warsaw from the southeast along the Vistula, intending to cross the river at Czerek. This
