COURT HOUSE NEWS

A suit for divorce was filed yesterday by Beryl Logan against Homer Logan. The couple were married in Salem in 1913 and have one child, Dorothy, aged six months. The plaintiff alleges cruel and inhuman treatment for cause. She asks for a decree of absolute divorce and for $50 as suit money and support, and the custody of the child. Carey F. Martin is attorney for the plaintiff.
The case of Conrad Meyer against T. G. Bliga was called in the circuit court, department No. 1, this morning as soon as the jury in the Burrell case retired to the jury room. Mr. Meyer is bringing action to collect the sum of $1651.88 less the sum of $390.51, which he alleges is due for the rental of a theater building in Albany under a contract entered into by Mr. Meyer and Mr. Bligh. Mr. Bligh contends that while he managed the Albany theater that he paid all of the rental due and that it turned it over to Mr. Laflar, of this city, and has no further connection with the case. He claims that after he transferred the lease to Mr. Laflar he had no further interest in the matter. Attorneys Weatherford & Weatherford, of Albany, and Guy O. Smith, of this city, are appearing for the plaintiff, and John A. Carson and John McNary for the defendant.
Judge Galloway was delayed this morning in reaching this city from Lafayette to open court in his department of the circuit court and did not take up the matter of the resignation of Insurance Commissioner Wells as receiver of three mutual fire insurance companies in this state, one of which was the Horticultural Fire Relief of Oregon. Judge Galloway will probably decide the matter tomorrow.
A default judgment and foreclosure was ordered in the case of the Star Land Co. against Albert Lewis and others in the circuit court this morning by Judge Galloway. The judge ruled that the plaintiffs should have judgment in the sum of $900 with $75 as attorney's fees against Albert Lewis, Sr., and Leonard Lewis. A mortgage on the east 100 feet of lot No. 1 of block 10, Southwest addition to Salem, was ordered foreclosed.
The inventory and appraisal in the estate of Letitia Evans, deceased, was filed today in the probate court. The inventory shows that the deceased was possessed of property to the total value of $9659. William H. Egan, George Finney and Lou Martin were appraisers.
Marriage licenses were issued yesterday afternoon by the county clerk to Harry J. Westmer, a Salem cigar maker, and Helen Maurer, a school teacher of this city; also to Jesse W. Savage, a Salem gardener, and Anna D. Schirmer, a cashier.

PORTLAND NEWS TODAY

Portland, Ore., July 23.—After a quarrel with his white wife, Ben Tanaka, a Japanese interpreter, tried to set fire to his own home, fearing that she would sue him for divorce and obtain the property for herself, according to his confession to District Attorney Evans today.
Six months ago Tanaka eloped with Miss Mamie Poole, a Lincoln high school student.
Tanaka is held under $2000 bonds.
Sprinter Will Compete.
Portland, Ore., July 23.—Sam Stenstrom, the University of Washington sprinter, will make the trip to San Francisco to participate in the far western and national championships, according to information received here today. He was chosen to represent the Pacific Northwest association, but it was feared he might not be able to accompany the team.
Senator Tillman to Alaska.
Portland, Ore., July 23.—Senator Ber Tillman, of South Carolina, accompanied by his wife, his daughters, Miss Sally May Tillman and Mrs. Henry W. Hughes, and his two grandchildren, the little daughters of Mrs. Hughes, will leave tonight for Alaska. The party will go as far north as Skagway. While the trip will be primarily one of pleasure, Senator Tillman will look into the plans for the new government railroad to be built in Alaska.
Four Boys Arrested.
Portland, Ore., July 23.—Four boys are under arrest and warrants are out for others as the result of a riot which followed a baseball contest at the Lincoln playground last night. Victor Brown, aged 16; Patrolman Monisch and A. Bradford, a playground director, were very roughly handled and severely injured by the mob of 50 men and boys before being dispersed.
Brown was seen upon by the crowd, and Monisch and Bradford were injured in rescuing him.
Warrants Not Called For.
Portland, Ore., July 23.—That the times are not as hard in Portland as they might be is indicated by the failure of 225 people who served on election boards last June to call on the city treasurer for a total of $790 due them in salary.
U. S. Treasurer Coming.
Portland, Ore., July 23.—United States Treasurer John Burke is scheduled to arrive here tonight from San Francisco for a visit with his brother, Thomas Burke, United States collector of customs.
Treasurer Burke was formerly governor of North Dakota.
A PRAYER FOR THE HORSE.
By direction of the police commissioner of New York there is posted in every stable where police horses are kept a card of which the following is a copy:
To Thee, My Master, I Offer My Prayer:
Feed me, water and care for me and when the day's work is done, provide me with shelter, a clean dry bed and stall with enough for me to lie down in comfort. Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me sometimes, that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you.
Do not jerk the reins and do not whip me when going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you mean, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if there is not something wrong with my harness or feet.
Examine my teeth when I do not eat. I may have an ulcerated tooth, and taste, you know, is very painful. Do not tie my head in an unnatural position or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail.
And finally, Oh, my master, when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but do thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way and your God will reward you here and hereafter. You may not consider me irrevocable if I ask in the name of Him, who was born in a stable. Amen.
CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC.
The Ladies' Wa Hi club of the Waldo Hills held their annual July picnic at the beautiful Silver Creek Falls, Sunday, July 18.
Most of the party arrived in autos from 10:30 to 11, and in another hour, a dinner, such as the ladies of the Wa Hi club are famous for, was spread under the magnificent trees that surround the lower falls on all sides.
After dinner the young people made

Wells Resigns As Receiver of Defunct Mutual Companies

Stating that the extra work and numerous letters received daily are taking too much time from his regular duties State Insurance Commissioner Wells yesterday asked Judge Galloway to relieve him of the duties as receiver of three defunct mutual insurance companies. The companies of which Mr. Wells has been serving as receiver are the Horticultural Fire Relief of Oregon, The Oregon Merchants' Mutual Fire Insurance association and the Pacific Home Mutual Fire Insurance company.
Mr. Wells requests Judge Galloway to relieve him of the duties of receiver August 1. The appointment of new receivers for these three companies will entail an added expense to the policy holders of about $500 per month as Mr. Wells has been serving without pay for this work.
In his letter Commissioner Wells says in part:
"Dear Sir: This is to notify you that it will be impossible for me to continue as receiver for the Horticultural Fire Relief of Oregon, the Oregon Merchants' Mutual Fire Insurance association, and the Pacific Home Mutual Fire Insurance company for the reason that I can not do justice to the work of the insurance department and give proper attention to the receivership."

STOCK-JUDGING CONTEST.

Although but a few people turned out to see the stock-judging Saturday in Stayton by Professor Pitts, of the O. A. C., yet it was a success from every point of view, as the interest was keen and the different points were closely followed by the crowd. A much larger attendance would have resulted if the day and object had been longer and better advertised.
The good points of a dairy cow were taken up in the forenoon and a nice bunch of six or seven cows were in the ring.
The professor gave a lecture before judging the herd and explained every point and answered many questions. E. Shepherd's cow won first, J. E. Shepherd's second, and Jno. Mielke's third. Score cards were supplied and one of

HERE is a wonderful and unusual play. Not sentimental, but emotionally superb. A play about everyday people such as we meet in daily life. But it is as big as human passions are deep; it is as strong as human nature is weak. You must make it a point to see this—it is too big a picture to miss.

An interesting talk on the horse was made in the afternoon, but undoubtedly the most interest centers around the dairy cow.
The Stayton Grange is to be thanked for their efforts in getting Professor Pitts here, and it is to be hoped that there will be more such demonstrations in the future.—Stayton Mail.
