along the Columbia highway is magnificent and probably unsurpassed in the entire country.

C. L. Sperling, who has just returned from several days' inspection of his hop fields near Independence, reports that the lice have become troublesome in that locality. Although spraying is of temporary benefit and must be continued to prevent their return, Mr. Sperling is of the opinion that a few days' hot weather with a right wind would do more than anything else to kill these pests.

The Ford automobile agency has announced its prices for the season of 1915-16. For the runabout, the factory price will be $390, equal to a delivered price here of $445. The touring car is announced for $440, which, with freight added, will bring the Salem price to $495. Last season a rebate of $50 was offered, provided the sales exceeded 300,000. This year, with the reduced price, there will be no offer of a conditional rebate. The style of the cars have not been changed. The Vick Bros. agency here have contracted for 604 cars.

The Marion county association of civil war veterans will hold its next meeting Thursday of this week at Silverton. This meeting is to also include the ladies of the Relief Corps, the ladies of the U. A. R., Sons of Veterans and Spanish War Veterans, as well as their families. Thursday morning autos will leave for Silverton from the corner of State and Commercial at 8 o'clock and again at 9 o'clock. The last meeting of the Marion county association of civil war veterans was held last April at Woodburn, and after the Silverton meeting Thursday, in Salem next December.

Salem's municipal bathing beach worked overtime yesterday. Beginning at 1 o'clock the crowds began to gather on the beach, and by 2 o'clock in the afternoon 200 bathers were enjoying themselves. The municipal sew was also on the job, during the afternoon, by actual count, 373 men, women and children were ferried to the island. The bathing resort yesterday was especially popular with the young ladies from the city, as well as from the surrounding towns. Quite a number from Chemawa were observed bathing. At

Speaking for myself, I'll take the country where the mercury doesn't try to get out at the top of the thermometer; where the grass is green all year around and where you don't have to trudge. There isn't any comparison between this country and the Sacramento valley of California. That is the way Mayor Harley O. White feels about it. Mr. White returned yesterday from an auto trip that covered 1900 miles. The trip included San Francisco, northeastern California, Crater Lake and Klamath Falls. He left here July 4 and arrived home August 1. After several days' riding in the Sacramento valley with a temperature ranging from 100 to 114, Mr. White is well satisfied with the Willamette valley.

The petition for the paving of the Fairgrounds road was signed Saturday evening by 16 property owners, which represents a majority of the property owners affected by the proposed paving. In their petition they agreed to pay 60 cents a square yard, provided the remainder of the money required for the improvement can be arranged from other sources. As the state highway commission has already voted to give $2500 and the business men of the city $1000, the prospects are favorable for having the road completed before the next state fair. The petition for the improvement will be presented to the city council this evening.

After making a thorough investigation in all parts of the county, Luther J. Chapin, county agriculturist, is of the opinion that clover seed will run about 50 per cent of a crop. The wheat yield he estimates at from 30 to 40 bushels per acre, and oats from 69 to 75. As far as grain crops are concerned, on account of the increased acreage and the immense yield, he figures that Marion county will produce fully 50 per cent more grain than last year. The corn prospects are also encouraging although it is a late start on account of the cool weather. But at present it has a healthy color, is doing well and everything is favorable for a good crop.

LARGE LAKE BOAT ASHORE

Chicago, Aug. 2.—The steamer Maniton, one of the largest boats on the Great Lakes, bound from Mackinaw to Chicago, lost her way in the fog early today and went ashore at Wilson beach. The vessel was proceeding cautiously when she shoved her nose into a sand bar. The steamer was halted for a few moments, then backed away and continued on her course. The 200 passengers aboard remained calm.

GERMAN CRUISER SUNK

London, Aug. 2.—A British submarine sank a German cruiser off the German coast last Monday, the admiralty announced today.

Haitian Capital Searched For Arms By Marines

Washington, Aug. 2.—Port Au Prince is being ransacked by American marines and bluejackets for arms, Admiral Caperton reported to the navy department today. Hoping to prevent another attack upon the American landing forces, the admiral ordered all natives disarmed. He is confiscating all guns and ammunition found. Many Haitians are hiding their arms, however, and the city is being carefully searched.

The first natives to be disarmed were those maintaining military organizations. Admiral Caperton reported that he then issued an order forbidding gatherings at night. In spite of this prohibition the Wesleyan mission was attacked Saturday by a mob searching for a man who had killed a prisoner in the jail and been secreted in the mission.

Food is scarce and the poor of the city are suffering, Caperton reported. French marines are guarding the French legation, but France recognized this country's complete control of affairs in Haiti under the Monroe doctrine before sending the force ashore. The French minister asked Admiral Caperton's permission to land marines from the cruiser Desbarres.

The battleship Connecticut will reach Port Au Prince Wednesday to reinforce Admiral Caperton.

Miss Lella V. Eggl, of Burns, returning from a visit to the Pacific-Nasann exposition, is in Salem for a few days, the guest of Miss Lou Davey. Miss Eggl went overland to San Francisco by auto, but returned by train in order to visit with friends in this city and Portland.
