DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back is Aching or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt, which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. Always keep up the water drinking, and

Bremerton Navy Yard Better Than Mare Island

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 4.—The Bremerton navy yard has the natural advantages that the Mare Island yard has not—that is deep water.

So said Senator Ben R. Tillman, of South Carolina, chairman of the senate committee on naval affairs, who, with Major General George Barnett, commandant of the United States marine corps, visited the Bremerton navy yard yesterday.

"They can never make Mare Island yard worth while for big vessels, as they will never be able to get battleships into it," the senator declared.

Senator and Mrs. Tillman and party are in Portland today.

WITNESS AFTER WITNESS IN SALEM

Such Evidence Our Readers Cannot Dispute.

As we take up the Journal we are struck by the hearty, unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mr. Hill does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them. But they are not. They are our neighbors, living among us. Their word is too easily proven to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.

C. W. Hill, wagon maker, 1939 N. Front street, Salem, says: "I had more or less backache and my kidneys were disordered. Doan's Kidney Pills have always relieved me in a short time. I know of several other people who have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. You may continue publishing the statement I gave before recommending them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hill had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y.

His Victim's Shoes Send Him To Prison

Olympia, Wash., Aug. 4.—Identified by a pair of shoes, Joe Parrott, 22, a logger, today faces a life sentence in prison for the murder of Fred Weiss, of Olympia. It took the jury in Judge Wright's court yesterday only 25 minutes to arrive at a verdict of guilty, though the case against Parrott was extremely circumstantial. Weiss was found murdered in the outskirts of Gate City. Parrott, witnesses testified, had been in Gate City several days, and when he was arrested in Tacoma he wore a pair of shoes which were identified as having belonged to Weiss.

THE CASHIER COMPANY TRIAL

Portland, Ore., Aug. 4.—Attorneys for the seven officials and salesmen of the United States Cashier company, on trial in the federal court charged with conspiracy to use the mails in a fraudulent stock selling scheme, were preparing their evidence for presentation today.

The government rested its case late yesterday and Judge Deane declared a recess until Thursday.

Justice Hughes now has ten LL. D.s; and he has admirers who wish for him a title that surpasses them all.

Social and Personal

CAROL S. DIBBLE.

Mrs. V. W. Johnson was a dinner hostess Sunday when she entertained for her house guests, Miss Florence Hanna, Miss Charlotte Hanna and Miss (Chloe) Waggoner, of Woodlake, Nebraska. The house was prettily decorated with sweet peas and roses. Those who enjoyed this affair were: Mrs. Chas. Waggoner, Miss Florence Hanna, Miss Charlotte Hanna, Miss Vivian Young, Miss Vida Young, Miss Verneeta Rickett, Miss Mabel Rickett, Miss Leila Joanson, Aubrey Johnson, Roy Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Seovel and two sons, Robert and Arthur, motored to Tacoma this morning to spend a week.

In a group of paintings in the Oregon building at the Panama-Pacific exposition, "that is always studied with keen interest," says Anne Shannon Monroe, is the work of Edna Breymann and Clyde Leont Keller. Miss Breymann, whose art work is attracting much attention, is a cousin of Mrs. R. P. Boise and Mrs. Charles L. McNary, of Salem.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The examination of the state's witnesses in the Bursell murder trial, which began yesterday afternoon, will probably be completed this evening before court adjourns. This morning Mrs. Adelia Zimmerman, the wife of the deceased, Mable Zimmerman, the daughter, and Carl Zimmerman, the 12-year-old son of the deceased, were the principal witnesses. Their testimony was substantially the same as in the former trial and they told the story of the killing as eye witnesses, except Carl, who ran into the barn when he heard the fusillade of shots. D. J. D. Drake, the Silverton photographer, who took some pictures of the scenes about the Zimmerman home, was called. Dr. Carleton Smith, who performed the post-mortem examination, testified as to the bullet wounds in the deceased, Frank Bowen, who first arrived at the scene of the killing, testified with Donald Bowen, August Lindholm, G. D. Bowen and Harry Desart.

A suit for divorce was filed this afternoon by Della Hepper against Henry Hepper, her husband. The plaintiff alleges that her husband circulated scandalous stories about her and that she is unable to live further with him. She asks for an undivided one-third interest in a lot in this city and $5000 permanent alimony. This case was tried out in the circuit court once before and Judge Galloway dismissed the suit. The former suit was brought by Henry Hepper.

The J. C. Spencers will leave the latter part of the week for the country, where they will visit their friends, the C. H. Sawyers, at their farm eight miles south of Salem. Next week the two families plan a camping trip to Slab Beach and other coastal points, where they will remain several weeks. During Mrs. Spencer's absence, Mrs. Edwin Sherwood will take charge of her Sunday school class, the Omega.

Miss Pallie Smith, who has been visiting her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, at the Fairgrounds, has returned to her home in Tillamook.

The Frank Beazleys, accompanied by Miss Grace Tyler, are spending a short time at Newport.

Mrs. N. F. Ransom, of Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Pearl E. Ransom, of Schenectady, N. Y., arrived in Salem today, to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Dubois, of 1860 E. street. They have been visiting the expositions in California and are returning home by the northern route. Numerous social affairs will be given for Mrs. Ransom and Miss Ransom, who is a former college friend of Mrs. Dubois at Cornell university, during their stay here.

Ole Halverson was today appointed administrator of the estate of Lulu Halverson, who died August 3 in this county, leaving an estate consisting of personal property valued at $850. The heirs are Ole Halverson, the husband, and Dorris and Lenora Halverson, daughters of the deceased, all of whom reside in Salem. Oliver Meyers, O. R. Feist and John H. Carson were named as appraisers of the estate.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barker returned yesterday to their home in New York after a delightful six weeks' visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Barker, of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Barker were greatly enamored of the Capital city and had it not been that Mr. Barker's business called him east, where he is manager of a cold storage plant, the Barkers would doubtless have remained here. However, they hope to return later to make Salem their permanent home.

A marriage license was issued yesterday at the office of the county clerk to Joseph W. Wright, a Salem laborer, and Alice Gregson, also of this city.

Honoring her house guest, Mrs. Anna Haase, of Astoria, Mrs. Peter Hansen gave a "500" party at her home last evening, on Saginaw street. There were five tables of cards. A delectable appetizing luncheon was served at 11:30. Mrs. Hubert Hansen and Mrs. Howard Hulsey presiding at the punchbowl. The guests were: Mrs. Anna Haase, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Buren, Mr. and Mrs. John Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Howard Hulsey, Leon Hansen and the Misses Grace Day, Edna Ackerman and Bertha Hansen.

The examination of the applicants for citizenship was going merrily on in Judge Galloway's court today. Karl W. Kihls, of Jefferson; Joseph L. McAllister, of Salem; Andrew Aarbaas, of Silverton; H. F. Craig, P. J. Riestler, Ernest George Burrell, James Craig and Andrew M. Hansen were admitted to citizenship. The case of Peter Biermeier, of Mt. Angel, was dismissed on account of an error in his first papers. The cases of Fred Lorenz, Lieb Silbermann, Louis Cromer and Adolph Belcher were continued.

DECLARES AMERICA FACES AN INVASION

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 4.—Sam Ferguson, a window cleaner, fell from the third floor of the Seattle Hardware company building, First and King streets, this morning, crushed through a glass canopy and landed on his head on King street. Horrified passers-by rushed to his assistance.

Ferguson picked himself up, and inquired the way to a doctor's office. After the doctor had patched up cut on Ferguson's leg and arm he went back to work.

The chains supporting the canopy broke his fall.

DIED

BRUGGER—At the Oregon State Institution for the Feeble-minded, Wednesday, August 4, 1915, Mrs. Mary Brugger, at the age of 80. The remains were shipped today by Higdon & Richardson to Hillsboro, Ore., where interment will take place tomorrow.

BULGARIA IS FLIRTING WITH ALL THE POWERS

By J. W. T. Mason.

New York, Aug. 4.—A promise from Greece, Bulgaria could spare a force to assist the Turks on the Gallipoli peninsula. The uncertain status in the Constantinople campaign might be turned into a Turkish success with the aid of Bulgaria. The allies must quickly give more definite assurances to Czar Ferdinand if Sofia's assistance is to be won from the Teutons.

Bulgaria has stated as plainly as the secrecy of negotiations will allow that she will not fight for the allies unless given a part of Serbian Macedonia wrested from her during the Balkan war. Serbia is willing to restore a part of Macedonia to Bulgaria providing Greece gets an Adriatic outlet. The entente is trying to persuade Serbia to cede the Macedonian territory unconditionally.

Dr. Chace Director of School of Music

Dr. Frank Wilbur Chace, of Sewickley, Pa., has been elected, and has accepted the position of director of the school of music, and will be assisted by his wife in the music department of Willamette university.

The trustees of the university are especially pleased in being able to secure Dr. Chace and his wife and feel that under their direction, the music department of the university will be brought to a standard equal to any on the coast.

At present, Dr. Chace is organist and choir director of a church in Sewickley, a suburb of Pittsburgh, Pa. He has been organist and choir director of Dr. Matthews' church in Seattle and was in charge of the festival music of the International Epworth convention which met in Seattle a few years ago. He has also had charge of the music department of Albion, Mich., college, where he brought the college conservatory up to a standard unequalled in the state.

With his seventeen years experience in organ work, choir directing and in teaching voice, Dr. Chace comes eminently qualified to direct the music department of the university.

Eagles Give Benefits To Soldiers and Sailors

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 4.—A new provision by the Fraternal Order of Eagles to extend the benefits of the order to soldiers and sailors engaged in the defense of their country, is in effect, beginning today. The amendment was adopted by the grand lodge in session here. Heretofore neither sick or funeral benefits were granted to those engaged in extra hazardous occupations. The number of Eagles enlisted with the Canadian troops caused this amendment to be adopted.
