

Special Prices on Men's, Women's and Children's Bathing Suits

Dependable Trunks, Bags and Suit Cases

The kind that hold their own in the mad rush of transportation—they carry your belongings safely. Lots of such here and at prices that won't flatten your pocket book. Full sized Trunks—Wardrobe

You will find just what you need from this big stock and trunk troubles will be over for years to come.

Trunk section on the second floor

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY

Meyers GOOD GOODS

This Sale Ends Saturday Children's Wash Suits

COMMENCING MONDAY 65c, 75c and 85c Grades—Extra Special 45c each

Here is a most unusual offering of Children's Wash Suits for the coming week—Made of good firm seersucker and cambrics—blue and white, tan and white—plain white—grey and white. Mothers should by all means take advantage while this low price rules. Sizes 2 to 6 years—Up to 85c grades—This week . . . . . 45c each See the window display.

"LOJU" Loganberry Juice

Beginning Today "LOJU" is on Sale at the following Salem Stores:

- L. M. Boggs & Co. Hotel Marion
C. M. Eppley Crown Drug Co.
R. D. Gilbert D. J. Fry
Weller Bros. Capital Drug Store
Roth Grocery Co. Inc. Red Cross Pharmacy
H. Dee & Son Frank Ward
A. Dause & Sons The Spa
J. C. Perry Gray-Belle
Salem Commercial Club Elks' Club
Moose Club

Retail Prices per Bottle

Table with 2 columns: BEVERAGE (Ready to Drink) and CONCENTRATED JUICE (Dilute to Taste). Rows show prices for 4, 8, 16, and 32 oz bottles.

"LOJU" by the glass at the Fountain.

Northwest Fruit Products Co. SALEM, OREGON

All Around Town

Dr. Mendelsohn, specialist in fitting glasses correctly. U. S. bank bldg.

F. N. Derby is building a large modern barn on his peach farm near Keizer.

Have you tried Loju?

The river is falling today, with a stage of 6 feet below zero, or low water mark.

That useless article is cash to you if you will tell about it in a Journal New Today.

Several lots in South Salem have been sold this week by Judson W. Reeves to Alano Seaman. The deal was handled by Scott & Hyman.

If you have found something and you do not feel justified in keeping it use a Journal New Today.

Those who are interested in the cooperative Llano del Rio colony in southern California, will hold another meeting this evening at the Peterson studio in the Hubbard building.

Drink Loju today.

W. H. Lee, who was charged with giving liquor to Mrs. Laura Lutz, pleaded guilty to the charge in police court yesterday afternoon and was fined $25. Mrs. Lutz made the complaint.

You can buy an imported tweed suit at Mosher's for $30 for a few days only.

Dr. M. C. Pindley and family will leave early next week for a vacation of a few weeks in southern Oregon. The doctor and City Attorney W. H. Trindle will go up into the hills for a rest of 10 days or more.

See Mosher's domestic tweeds that are selling for $25—they are money savers.

J. C. Perry, of the Perry drug store, and family, left today for an auto tour to The Dalles, by way of the Columbia highway. They will return Saturday.

The national convention of the American Osteopathic association is being held in Portland from August 1 to 6. Drs. White and Walton, who are in attendance, will not be in their office until Saturday, August 7.

Lloyd Ramsden, who has been in a Corvallis hospital since July 4, when his leg was broken in a collision with an automobile, has so far recovered that arrangements are being made to bring him home this week.

You'll never find a woman who knows how to cook a good meal varying about next spring's fashions. Smoke Apex, the extra mild 5c cigar. Sold everywhere.

A one-acre tract has recently been purchased by Jacob Alleg in South Salem, on the Jefferson road. He will at once begin improvements on the tract, which will include the building of a home.

P. J. Blesse and wife, from Oxford, Neb., and Miss Lydia Kammerer, of Seattle, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Shipp, at their home, 1104 South Fourteenth street. The entertainers were greatly pleased with the city and hope in some near future time to permanently locate here.

F. H. Brundage, forest supervisor of the Santiam national forest, with headquarters at Albany, is in the city today, conferring with County Roadmaster Oliver regarding the construction of a trail from Detroit to Hoover. This trail has been authorized by Marine commission, and the work will be done by the forest service for the county, as this service is already properly equipped for such work.

The trail from Niagara to Detroit, which has been constructed by the forest service, in cooperation with the county, has now been completed and ready for service. One bridge remains to be completed, but a temporary route has been made, obviating traveling on the railroad track.

L. A. Geier, who conducts a pool room at 136 State street, pleaded guilty to a charge of allowing a minor to loiter about his place of business in police court this morning, and received a fine of $10. John Tule, the minor in question, also pleaded guilty to a charge of loitering about a pool room and was fined $10.

Ora H. Porter, representative from Douglas county, has been looking into the record of the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg at the office of the secretary of state. A small number of politicians at Roseburg are making a determined effort to out Superintendent Elders from his office as head of the Soldiers' Home.

The Chemeketa campfire girls were quite fortunate in their first business venture, that of selling ice cream cones during the concert given last evening in Wilson park by the Salem Military band. About 45 was the net profits of the evening's work, and now the treasury of Chemeketa Camp Fire Girls No. 1 shows signs of prosperity, and the girls are all happy.

Miss Mary Cox, a teacher in the high school at Elwood, Indiana, is visiting at the home of Mrs. L. M. Reeder. Mrs. Cox was a former schoolmate of Mrs. Reeder, and also of Al Poland, of the Salem police department, several years ago in Indiana. Miss Cox will return to Indiana Thursday. She stopped off in Salem on her way home from the fair at San Francisco.

The state public service commission today received a request from L. H. Atry, agent of the American, Great Northern and Wells-Fargo Express companies in this state, to allow the increase in the schedule of rates in this state that has recently been allowed by the interstate commerce commission. The new schedule is an increase of 2.50 per cent on smaller packages but no increase on packages of 50 pounds or over.

Thos. B. Kay, director of the legislative department of the Commercial club, with a committee, will entertain the 35 young Australians who are touring the country, and who will appear at the opera house under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. They will be here two days, August 12 and 13. Those appointed by Mr. Kay on the entertainment committee are J. H. Lanstrom, Ralph Moore, P. E. Pollock, J. H. Young and Clarence Hamilton.

A racing homer pigeon, five months and two weeks old, was liberated in the city Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock and arrived in Seattle at 6:49 o'clock in the evening. The distance, as the pigeon flew, is 186 miles, and the time required in flying, nine hours and 20 minutes, is considered a remarkable flight for so young a bird. Although Sunday morning was cloudy, some sun set free the young pigeon circled twice then started in a direct line for Seattle.

P. F. Clark, known as "Squire" Clark, living one mile beyond Seaside, with an accident this morning that fortunately resulted in but a few scratches and bruises. Mr. Clark, who is 58 years old, was driving his saloon with a spirited horse, but accustomed to automobiles. When a few miles out of the city the horse became frightened at a passing auto, throwing Mr. Clark out of the loggy into the side of the road. He was brought to town, where his injuries were dressed by Drs. Reed and Smith, and was taken to his home by neighbors who happened to be in the city.

LOGANBERRY OUTLOOK HIGHLY ENCOURAGING

Carload of Juice Shipped to New York Yesterday By Local Firm

One year ago, but few cases of loganberry juice were shipped to the eastern markets during the month of August. Yesterday, a local firm shipped a solid carload of loganberry juice to New York City. One year ago, the loganberry juice was practically unknown in the east. Now, thanks to the advertising given it by William Jennings Bryan and the publicity through loganberry day at the Oregon building, the larger daily papers in the east are freely discussing it. The New York Tribune gives considerable space to Bryan's taste for the juice, and the New York Evening Telegram says its prices. And all this has happened within one year.

This sudden change in the fortunes of the loganberry should be taken into consideration by the growers who have become discouraged.

"Right now, we are at the bottom of the loganberry industry," said H. S. Gile today. "But we have come to the turn in the line, and I cannot too strongly urge the discouraged ones to hold on, as the entire loganberry future has changed for the good, almost with in the last few months." In discussing the loganberry, Mr. Gile bases its bright future on the new conditions under which the berry can be marketed. The growers are using a greater amount every year and there are increasing possibilities in that line, the juice is now being manufactured by firms that will make regular shipments an ordinary event, and as a last resort, the berries are dried and put up in cartons. One year ago, dried loganberries were shipped out by the grower as he sold them by the pound. Now they are packed in attractive cartons, with instructions how to use, besides other advertising matter to bring them before the retail trade. The largest wholesale grocers of the east are becoming interested since the berry is packed in the carton.

All these conditions have developed within the last few months. One year ago no one would have prophesied that a carload of the juice would be shipped to the Atlantic seaboard by one firm, or that a carload would be changed into a factory for the manufacture of the beverage.

The publicity given by the eastern papers has been a factor in directing the attention of the world to this new beverage. The New York Tribune, Sunday date of July 25, says: "Bryan professes loganberry even to the grape juice he made famous while secretary of state. It seems that while Bryan was in the subject, and Oregon was his a palmer of loganberry juice. The grape juice plodder lasted for one day, and was changed to loganberry."

The New York Evening Telegram also does considerable advertising for Oregon, when it is referring to Bryan, it says: "He has discovered grape juice and now sings the praises of the loganberry. Exponents come here. God bless it."

Blueberry production is here, but we believe you have to go to New England to properly understand the blueberry.

JOSEPH K. STARR FILES JUSTIFICATION OF HIS OFFICIAL ACTS

Wheeler County Prosecutor Under the Ban of Recall By Citizens

Joseph K. Starr, the prosecuting attorney of Wheeler county, whom certain of the citizens of that county seek to recall, filed a justification of his past official actions with Secretary of State Elliott today. The recall petition contained an excess of the required number of signatures and the secretary of state called a special recall election to be held August 10 in Wheeler county. The petition alleged that Starr refused to prosecute certain persons charged with bootlegging and other alleged illegal practices and also charged to him. The certificate of nomination by individual electors of Thomas B. Kelly, of Fossil, who will be the rival candidate of Mr. Starr at the election, was also received today at the secretary of state's office. This petition contains 31 names; 24 are required.

In his justification, Starr says: "My recall is not sought for the reason set forth in the recall petition. It is sought by certain citizens for the purpose of getting personal spleen and to prevent the enforcement of the law against a criminal, who, because of his influential connections, thinks he is above the law. Had I failed to enforce the plain provisions of the law against this criminal, my recall would not have been attempted.

This is a "wet" county and the local option law is in force in but four precincts. Mitchell precinct is "wet" and illicit liquor sales within the town of Mitchell cannot be prevented in the state courts. The voters of that section of the county have been vitally misled by the "minority" whose office of my administration has been seized by force without merit since before the grant of a habeas corpus, and the defendant in the Hubbard Street case, and I cannot control these operations.

The question now is: how would it be if I were recalled from the office of district attorney? Are the newspaper editors and their cliques greater than our government and laws?

George R. Barker, secretary of state of Idaho, expressed a favorable opinion of the 1915 1916 edition of the Oregon Blue Book to Secretary of State Elliott today. Mr. Barker complimented Mr. Elliott in expressing so much useful information between the citizens of the little volume and asked regarding the cost. The book cost less than 10 cents per copy, as 25,000 copies were printed at a total cost of $1,072.

Dr. Sargeant Al Poland, of the Salem police force, begins his two weeks' vacation tonight. Mr. Poland will spend a few days in Portland later in the week for a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Poland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Reed, who reside near Station.

ROUND TRIP TO BEACH WILL COST FIVE CENTS

Hereafter those who wish to take advantage of the city's municipal bathing beach will be taxed 5 cents for the return trip to the island, via the sewer tunnel. This much was decided last evening at a meeting of the civic department of the Commercial club. This action was made necessary by the action of the city council in holding up the appropriation of $250 for the maintenance of the beach. When the plan for a municipal bathing beach was first proposed, the Commercial club appropriated a sum, expecting that the council would provide the remainder necessary to keep a man in charge and provide for the free ferry. As objections have been made to appropriating city money, on the ground that the beach is not within the city limits, some means had to be provided for maintaining the service that has proved so popular. Hence the fare of 5 cents, the round trip, and until the matter of the city coming to the rescue of the municipal beach, it is hoped that this small amount charged will provide an income sufficient to keep the beach open to the public.

PERSONALS

Note Hubbs, of Silverton, is in the city today. A. E. Mitchell, of Albany, was in Salem yesterday. C. B. Webb is a business visitor in Portland today. J. M. Keeler, of Junction City, was in the city yesterday. Jacob Anstutz, of Victor Point, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Andrew Quall, of Silverton, was a visitor here yesterday. Theo. M. Barr went to Portland this morning on the electric. Earl Woods and Gideon Bowen, of Silverton, are visitors here today. J. C. Campbell and wife are visiting this week in Hutchinson, Kansas. Mrs. Mason Bishop and little daughter, Henrietta, are visiting a few days in Brownsville. A. A. Halverson left this afternoon to accompany the body of his wife to Mason City, Iowa, where burial will take place.

County School Superintendent W. M. Smith returned today from a business trip to Turner.

George B. Jacobs, a prominent hop grower of Independence, was a visitor in Salem yesterday. C. E. Ross, of Silverton, is in the city today, in connection with the Russell murder trial.

Dean Alden, of the Willamette university, is in Seattle where he will remain several weeks in the interest of the university.

E. Cooke Patton will arrive at Flavel tomorrow on the steamer Northern Pacific, and will visit a few days in Portland before returning to the city.

Neils Sjodin, of Galesburg, Ill., is here visiting his brother, Dan Wicklander, of this city. Mr. Sjodin has been visiting Chas. Wicklander, in Portland, and before returning to Galesburg, will tour the San Francisco and San Diego expeditions.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Morgan and daughter, Betty Jane, left last evening for San Francisco. After an extended visit in that city, they will leave for New Orleans for an indefinite stay.

Thomas Walker, of Milwaukie, was in the city last evening. He is driving for J. F. Forbes and family, of Van Nuys, Cal., in their auto trip to the coast. The party were registered at the Bligh.

Here is a chance for the thirsty ones in the city to "Try Salem First." "Loju," the drink made from the juice of the loganberry, manufactured in the city by the Northwest Fruit Product company, is today on sale at 21 drug stores and groceries, and two lodger rooms.

When in SALEM, OREGON, stop at BLIGH HOTEL. Strictly Modern Free and Private Baths. RATES 75c, $1.00, $1.50 PER DAY. The only hotel in the business district. Nearest to all Depots, Theatres and Capitol Buildings. A Home Away from Home. T. G. BLIGH, Prop. Both Phones. Free Auto Bus.

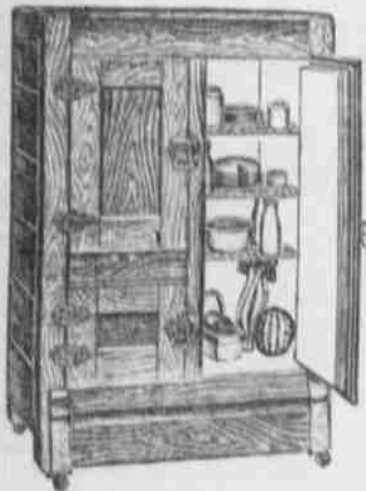

Sale of PACKARD SHOES Reduced 25 per cent

1/4 This is a sale of Shoes of known quality. They don't make better Shoes than Packard. Take advantage of this 1-4 reduction.

Sale Lasts This Week Only

G. W. Johnson & Co. 141 North Commercial Street

THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

REFRIGERATOR Specials

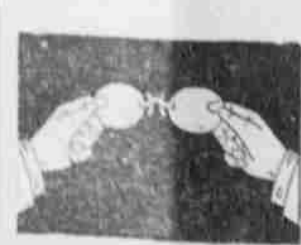

As illustrated. This fine big side ice chest priced at only $24. How does that sound. We Carry the NOT A SE ME Stone Lined Priced From $22.50 and up.

Use Our Free Rent Bureau

Calef Bros. HOME FURNISHERS COR COURT & HIGH STS

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD HERE

A Different Film From Yesterday Over 1300 People Die Like Rats Eastland Tragedy CHICAGO EXCURSION STEAMER LISTS Today at The Oregon 10c

ARE YOU NEAR SIGHTED? ARE YOU FAR SIGHTED? ARE YOU NERVOUS? DO YOU HAVE HEADACHES? DO YOUR EYES BLUR?

If so come to me as a Graduate Optometrist, for an examination of the eyes and for glasses which will SURELY BELIEVE your trouble!

Why not be helped today?

Miss A. McCulloch, Optometrist 208-209 Hubbard Bldg. Phone 109