Watching the Scoreboard

Osks twice succeeded before the Tiger sluggers. That gives Tom Vernon his third place. Portland lost its sixth straight to the Angels in the afternoon, 5 to 3. The worm, etc. Salt Lake began playing true to that color camp form again and lost to San Francisco 12 to 5. Ping Bodie did the heavy stick labor for the Soals. Philadelphia 14, Cincinnati 6. Why say more? Brooklyn took two from the Cubs. The second game was close, Brooklyn winning by the proverbial eyelash. Three brave pitchers fell before the siege gun staff unscathed by St. Louis, and the score was 7 to 2.

TOOK THE PAPER SEVEN YEARS. I've stopped the paper—yes, I have, I didn't like to do it. But the editor he got too smart. And I allow he'll rue it. I am the man who pays his debts. And will not be insulted. So when the editor gets smart I want to be consulted.

I took the paper seven years. And helped him all I could, sir. But when it comes to "dunin' me," I didn't think he would, sir; but that he did, and you can bet I made no hot as thunder; I says, "I'll stop that sheet, I will, if the doggone things goes under."

Russians Driven Out. Berlin, via wireless to London, Aug. 9.—Prags, the eastern suburb of Warsaw, has been occupied by the Germans. Since evacuating Warsaw the Russians have systematically bombarded the city from the eastern bank of the Vistula. The Bavarians who crossed the river have now driven them out of Prags and allowed their guns, an official statement announced today.

The Russians were forced to retire further to the east to escape capture by the Germans who are closing in on the angle formed by the Bug and Vistula rivers. The forces in hot pursuit of the retreating Slavs now threaten to form a complete ring about Novo-Georgiewsk. This would completely isolate the fortress still held by the Russians and which is declared to be prepared to resist a siege.
