SOUTHERN PACIFIC CLAIMS WATER FRONT

Asserts Title to Entire Coast Line of Lincoln, Thirty Miles In Length

Portland, Ore., Aug. 13.—The Southern Pacific Railroad company is claiming the entire waterfrontage on the coast line of Lincoln county from Otter Rock, six miles north of Newport, down to the southern boundary of the county, a distance on a bee line, of about 30 miles, and a much greater distance when the bays and inlets are considered, it became known today.

Within this district is the Newport or Nye Beach, one of the most popular beaches in the state. If the Southern Pacific's assertion of title is sustained in the courts, which undoubtedly will be called upon to decide the question, it will be within the power of the railroad company to put up "private property, keep off" signs almost anywhere along the Lincoln county coast.

In 1874 the state legislature gave away "all the tide and marsh lands" in what was then Benton county to the Willamette Valley and Coast Railroad company, which was succeeded by the Covalis & Eastern railroad, now owned by the Southern Pacific. Out of Benton county, Lincoln county was carved and the tide and marsh lands involved extended along the coast the greater part of that county.

Knowledge that the railroad company claims the frontage came to light when a short time ago the company presented to the assessor of Lincoln county plans of the Newport beach assessment purposes. Not knowing what to do with the plans, the assessor referred the matter to the state tax commission for advice, and the tax commission has turned the matter over to Attorney General Brown for his decision.

Entire Family Burned While Spraying For Bugs With Gasoline

Homer Phillips and wife and 6-year-old daughter were so severely burned Tuesday afternoon while their home one mile east of Whiteoak was destroyed by fire that Mrs. Phillips died later in the hospital. They were spraying for bugs with gasoline and it is suggested that the friction from the pump ignited the gasoline. At any rate, a flash of flame filled the entire room, enveloping the occupants, and Mr. Phillips grabbed his daughter and carried her out of the house. He returned for his wife, Myrtle, and rushed her out into the open, but her wounds were so deep that she was unable to recover. The hospital authorities say that the little girl may recover, but that if Mr. Phillips lives he will be deprived of the use of his hands. Less than a week before Mr. Phillips' brother was killed by a savage bull in Polk county. Both men were well known in Salem, where they have friends and relatives.

Date of S. P. Picnic Changed To August 21

As far as practicable, the shops, stores and offices will be closed, and employees in all of these departments will be expected to attend the picnic. Their relatives and friends are cordially invited. Citizens of Salem have already inter-

LONE BANDIT ROBS CAR.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 13.—A lone highwayman, masked and armed, boarded a Portland avenue car at 12:15 this morning at the terminus of the line, forced the conductor to empty his pockets and money container and escaped with about $30. The police were notified within a few moments but have as yet been unable to locate the thief. This is the first street car holdup in Tacoma in several years.

exactly what our scales tell. For they are guaranteed to be absolutely accurate. Thus you get exactly what you pay for. Another point about this market is that we cut as closely as possible to the exact quantity of meat you ask for. We don't have to cut off a pound or so in order to swell sales. Our meat sells plenty well enough on its merits.

Fighting Law Which Requires Egg Branding

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—The law effective August 9, requiring the labeling of all eggs imported from foreign countries and placed on sale here in a violation of existing treaties between the United States and Canada and the state legislature, by the enactment of such a law, had no right to interfere with federal or interstate commerce. This is the contention today of Timothy Healy and John L. McNab, attorneys for William M. Foley, secretary of the Master Bakers' association, convicted in the police court for selling unlabeled Canadian eggs. The charge was brought by the Potlatch Chicken Raisers. Foley's attorneys will test the case in the higher courts. Pending its settlement delivery of 5,000 cases of Canadian eggs is being held up.
