CAROL S. DIBBLE.

Mrs. W. O. Asseln entertained delightfully Friday afternoon with a thimble bee at her home on North Liberty street, honoring Mrs. F. F. Fink of Minneapolis, the house guest of Mrs. J. B. Pollock, and Mrs. E. P. Keyes, of St. John, Mich., the house guests of Mrs. H. W. Bross. The rooms were very attractive with their seasonable decorations of delicate pink and white asters. One of the pastimes of the afternoon was a contest in which the high prize fell to Mrs. Carleton and the second honors to Mrs. Gleason. The guests who enjoyed this affair were: Miss James E. Pruitt, F. W. Streuloff, J. R. Pollock, E. F. Carlson, H. W. Bross, J. K. Hensell, N. Leffingwell, W. Moore, L. Mickleson, Gleason, Elmer Dean, J. Elvin, T. W. Davies, H. Hays, H. Hickerson, W. H. A most pleasurable affair was the outdoor reception given Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cole, of Highland, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCracken (Pay Ritchie), whose marriage was one of an attractive July wedding. The guests, who were neighbors and members of the two Sunday school classes of the North Salem Friends church, passed the hours with music and games. The grounds were gay with Japanese lanterns, and festivities of all kinds were supremely in evidence throughout the evening.

Tenne invited to pay honor to Mr. and Mrs. McCracken were: Misses Vida Kethner, Lucille Tucker, Gladys Scott, Milly Nicwander, Deva Moorman, Rose Weidman, Belle White, Winnifred Frazier, Florence Frazier, Vera McMillan, Isola Smith, Rhelvin Armstrong, Jennie Debed, Bessie Barnett, Daisy Carter, Beulah Pressnell, Mrs. Carey Boss, Mrs. Vida McMillan, Mrs. Josephine Hockett, Mrs. Lee McCracken, Mrs. Vida Moorman, Mrs. Virgil Kenworthy, Mrs. Bessie Pruitt, and Messrs. A quiet but pretty wedding was that of Miss Lora Beck, of Macleay, to Alexander C. Steinka, of Salem, which took place Thursday at the parsonage of the Lutheran church. The ceremony was performed at 11:30 by Rev. George Koehler. Mr. and Mrs. F. Stroebel were the only attendants. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party adjourned to the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Stroebel, on Water street, where a wedding luncheon was served, the relatives and a few close friends being present. A profusion of flowers transformed the house into a bower of floral beauty. After a short trip to Seaside and Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Steinka will make their home in Salem.

Miss Chloe Waggoner, Miss Charlotte Hanna and Miss Florence Hanna, the house guests of Mrs. W. V. Johnson, left Thursday for their home in Woodlake, Nebraska. Numerous social affairs were given in their honor during their stay in the city. Among the affairs at the close of their visit was a stunner party given Monday night by the Misses Vida and Virginia Young at their home on the Garden road. The additional guests were Miss Leila Johnson and the Misses Mabel and Vernetta Bicket. The Nebraska visitors were much charmed with Salem and vicinity, and left, accompanied by best wishes of the many friends they made while in Salem.

Mrs. Henry Marty entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the Friends church and a number of her friends and neighbors at her home near the Fairgrounds on Wednesday afternoon. The evening was a most enjoyable one, being spent outdoors under the pleasant shade trees on Mrs. Marty's place, many of the ladies bringing their fancywork. Later refreshments were served to the guests present, who were: Mrs. Clifton Ross, Mrs. M. S. McLeod, Mrs. E. M. Beveridge, Mrs. E. P. Rogge, Mrs. Ella Harris, Mrs. Josephine Hockett, Mrs. A. G. Graham, Norma Ruth Graham, Mrs. Anna Shinn, Mrs. L. M. Lamb, Mrs. J. W. McAdams, Mrs. R. G. Frazier, Bessie R. Shinn, Mrs. S. U. Smith, Mrs. J. Virgil Kenworthy, Mrs. W. P. Ringler, Mrs. G. M. Harvey, Mrs. Emma Mason, Russ Mason, Vera Henman, Jennie Haverock, Beatrice Haverock, Mrs. Sylvia G. Smith.

The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon in their hall at the corner of Perry and Commercial streets. Mrs. Higgins will lead the meeting and Rev. H. E. Marshall will give an address on the "Evolution of Temperance."

The Bethel Sunday school enjoyed a unique picnic a week ago Sunday in George Zoff's canyon, the picnic being the outcome of a contest held for increasing the membership of the Sunday school. The two sides engaged in the contest were headed, respectively, by Guy T. Johnson and Harlan R. Hoffman. The former side won and true to the rules of the contest, the losing side rose graciously to the occasion, acting as hosts for a sumptuous luncheon, the committee in charge of which were Mrs. Renoh Evans, chairman; Miss Hazel Postman, Miss Lucy Nichols and Miss Alice Sebrunk, assisted by Guy Johnson and Harlan R. Hoffman. The food delectable, who lent their assistance to the affair, were invited, and 100 young people of the Presbyterian church, with Mrs. Lora Beck, the Endeavor president, as the hostess, came from town. About 60 were present in all to enjoy the outing and the informal program, consisting of musical selections and a solo by Mr. Ostrander. The membership of the Sunday school was increased about 300 per cent by the fall times such as this is the best for the year. The Sunday school meets at 10 and the local Endeavor Sunday evening at 8, at the Bethel school house. All

WOMEN FROM 45 to 55 TESTIFY

To the Merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life.

Westbrook, Me. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial." — Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis. — "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and joints until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would get wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since." — Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Manston, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled in such cases. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Interested are cordially invited to attend the meetings. Those who had charge of the picnic wished especially to tender Mr. Johnston a vote of thanks for the generous assistance he gave them in helping to make the picnic a success.

BOLD BANDIT HOOPER MAKES GOOD ESCAPE

After Overpowering Sheriff He Gets Buggy and Automobile Rides

Grants Pass, Ore., Aug. 16.—John Austin Hooper, the desperado who is wanted in three states for daring robberies perpetrated in the past few months, Sunday morning made his escape from the Josephine county jail in Grants Pass, where he has been held since July 23 for the robbery of the Southern Pacific depot at that place. Hooper and a fellow prisoner overpowered the sheriff as he was giving them their breakfast, threw him in the cell and made their dash for freedom. The accomplice in the escape was soon captured but Hooper appears to have made good his getaway. He first commandeered a horse and buggy at the point of a 45 calibre gun and got to the foothills near town. Later in the evening Hooper took possession of an automobile belonging to E. E. Kroh and made the owner drive him to Rogue River, nine miles east of Grants Pass. Hooper showed the utmost coolness and self possession throughout his successful escape. At the time of his latest exploit, the automobile holdup he appeared to be in very good humor, joking and punning with the machine load of people, though continually maintaining a careful watchfulness.

Hooper forced Kroh to drive him, holding his Colt revolver next to Kroh's ribs and at the same time keeping up a lively line of talk to the other occupants of the car. He joked as he passed the jail at Rogue River, pleading with Kroh not to stop there, while he jammed the big gun a little deeper in Kroh's ribs. As he passed the bank in Rogue River he said: "There is the bank I robbed; that is, the bank they say I robbed!"

Then followed a hard back story of his unjust accusation. Getting out on the other side of Rogue River, Hooper told his victims that he had fifty miles to make that night over the mountains to where he had friends.

No Trace of Fugitive. Grants Pass, Ore., Aug. 16.—Up to 12:30 o'clock this afternoon the sheriff's office had made no headway in the re-capture of Bandit Hooper, who broke jail here Sunday morning. Nothing additional had been learned of his whereabouts since he left the automobile he commandeered at a short distance east of Rogue River Sunday night about 9:30.

Hooper is known to be in a desperate frame of mind and willing to go to any extreme to keep his freedom. The sheriff and deputies have maneuvered to cut off escape by all known avenues, but as Hooper is thoroughly acquainted with the mountain district from here to northern California it is likely that he will proceed westward.

Citizens Enroll For Military Training Camp

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 16.—Between 500 and 600 business and professional men of Seattle, Tacoma and small nearby cities had enrolled for the military training camp to be held at Cosgrove, American lake near Tacoma, from Aug. 25 to September 12 inclusive, at noon today.

The surprising total of names from professional and business ranks, considering the fact the movement was not started until last Tuesday evening, testifies that the citizens of the north-west are in favor of a policy of preparedness.

Every hour brings an increase to the roll and it would not be exaggerating to predict between 700 and 800 will attend the training camp.

The idea of the camp is to educate an intelligent class of citizens, leaders in the professional and business world as officers for volunteers, so that should a call to arms ever be sounded the citizen soldiery could be more rapidly made ready for military service.

The course of instruction will begin with personal hygiene, camp sanitation, company administration, rationing and clothing of volunteers, and as knowledge increases, military marching, road sketching, tactical walks, guard practice marches, instructions in guarding the rear, the Van, and covering detachments in short the basic facts, the most military matters. Those qualifying will be given certificates of proficiency.

Major General Arthur Murray, commanding the western department will within a few days name an officer of the regular army to take charge of the camp.

First Hunting Victim Killed By Own Gun

Albany, Ore., Aug. 16.—The first victim of the deer-hunting season, Fred Layton, aged 16, is dead here today. He was killed by the accidental discharge of his own high-powered rifle in the wilds of the Alsea mountain district six hours after the season opened. The range of the boiler indicated he had shoved the butt of the gun over a log when it went off. He died while being brought to Albany on an improvised litter.

Layton was a member of a hunting party composed of his father, E. G. Layton, and several friends.

SILKS

And the prominent place they will occupy on the stage of Fashion this Fall and Winter.

Never before has there been such an advance season for Fall Silks—indicating their extensive use in Costumes, Dresses and Suits. And so varied are the weaves and colorings that no one in particular will dominate the fashion situation. However, the lead will be given to TAFETAS

There is a reason for giving Taffetas first place. The full effect in dress is gaining favor and as Taffetas are especially suitable for this style, and as manufacturers have achieved excellent results in color combinations, indications point to their use in phenomenally large proportions.

RIBBED WEAVES
Will be very strong, chief among which might be mentioned Gros De Londres. This new Silk has gained favor wherever shown this season and is rapidly coming to the front.

FAILLES
Will be good for two reasons: First, they naturally fall into full effects in dress; second, they are among the best Silks that can be sold at a popular price.

COLORS
Are decidedly dark. Many plaids in new, dark color effects will be extensively used for waists, trimmings and combinations.

WHAT WE ARE SHOWING NOW
The above mentioned Silks in exclusive patterns and designs never shown before. Wonderful qualities, colorings and low prices, ready for you to see.

Taffeta Silks in plain colors, stripes, checks, plaids, printed warp and changeable. Gros De Londres in fancy stripes, checks, changeable, plain colors and Jacquard. Faille Silks in plain colors and most prominent shades. Duchess Satin, Silk and Wool Failles, Silk and Wool Poplins, Crepe De Chines, Imported Pongees, Radium Taffeta, identical Pussy Willow Taffeta, but can be sold for less money.
