COURT HOUSE NEWS

After spending nearly the entire day in hearing the testimony of witnesses the county court took the matter of the petition of G. W. Knight and others for a road through the Hovenden farm under advisement and has as yet reached no decision in the matter. Numerous witnesses were examined by both sides of the controversy in an endeavor to establish the proper amount of damage to be allowed. The contentions range from the $628 recommended by the viewers to $10,000 as estimated by Mr. Hovenden. Residents of the vicinity of Hubbard were put on the stand to give their opinions as to the proper amount of damages to be allowed. Walter Winslow represented the petitioners and John A. Carson appeared for Mr. Hovenden.

The final account in the matter of the estate of Robert Mitzke, deceased, was filed today by E. F. Brown, the administrator of the estate which consisted of real and personal property amounting to $2,054.74. The heirs all reside in Minnesota. It is stated in the papers filed today that the entire estate has been disposed of with the exception of a welding plant which will be turned over to the heirs.

Ida M. Russell was appointed today by Judge Bushey as administratrix of the estate of Mary A. Childers, who died intestate in this county August 6. The estate consists of personal property valued at $500. The only heir is Ida M. Russell, a sister, who resides in this city. Lloyd T. Rigdon, M. S. Lamport and R. F. Richardson were named as appraisers.

An inventory and appraisal in the matter of the estate of Louisa Murray filed in the probate court today shows the estate to consist of 156 acres of land valued at $10,300 and personal property making a total of $10,652.72. The appraisers were J. J. Ryan, A. D. Yergen and Fred Bents.

A motion to dismiss was filed in the circuit court today by Dana H. Allen, attorney for the plaintiff in the suit of R. A. Van Cleave against A. B. Gardner and Zelta L. Gardner. The reason given for the dismissal of the suit was that it had been settled out of court.

A marriage license was issued at the office of the county clerk today to Virgil B. Darby a farmer of Aumsville, and Maudie Ward, of Turner.

EAT A SQUARE MEAL AND NOT FEAR INDIGESTION

There are hundreds of people in Salem who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the Journal that Daniel J. Fry is selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not relieve. This remarkable dyspepsia remedy will relieve the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness, or the general played-out condition that afflicts every one suffering with stomach trouble. Mi-o-na does not simply relieve, it aims to cure.

Daniel J. Fry can tell you of many well known people in this city who this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit. No other dyspepsia remedy has made so large a percentage of cures as Mi-o-na. It is so large that Daniel J. Fry stands ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds in Salem today praising Mi-o-na because it does what it is advertised to do. A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na, they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering. This medicine comes in the form of a small tablet and is very pleasant to take. It speedily and permanently relieves almost all forms of stomach trouble and is the only one sold under a positive guarantee without any restriction, to refund the money if it does not relieve. This is a good time to get well and you ought to take advantage of Daniel J. Fry's offer.

FRUITLAND NOTES

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Fruitland, Ore., Aug. 27.—J. B. Simpson has finished picking and delivering his acre and a half of canning beans. The yield was about four tons. Mr. Simpson states he is satisfied with the yield and with the price received. Hunt Bros. of Salem, took the crop.

H. C. Bressler, who has been serving on the federal grand jury at Portland, for several weeks, is now at home.

The family of C. H. Colvin are now at the coast.

Francis Schrank has today—Wednesday—committed the act of matrimony. Miss Ruth White of the Hickey district, becoming the wife of our handsome bachelor neighbor. The young couple went to Portland today.

When domestic storms sweep round the family hearth and squalls disturb by night the calm repose of needed rest, don't fret and sweat and the boat upset. And wish the storm had staid away, but go and seek the cradle.

The sad calamity that befell the Andregg family Sunday night at Salem startled our community as the family was well known here. Especially the news was appalling to Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Egler, of this place, as the Andreggs were old friends and neighbors in Wisconsin.

A. W. Schrank and family will soon move to a hop ranch for a short time at Independence, then to Salem to remain for the winter.

Miss Jessie Bowers, who is caring for Mrs. Dr. Peyton, of Salem, reports that her charge recently in attempting to cross the room fell and injured herself quite severely. This has occurred several times lately. The aged invalid is attacked by a sort of vertigo.

Bert Bressler is harvesting his bean crop. A dozen or so busy pickers are employed.

STOLE CHIEF'S PANTS
Hood River, Ore., Aug. 27.—Chief of Police Harry Bailey isn't bringing about his sleuthing ability today. No, indeed. Complaints reached the chief that clothing of bathers in the river were being rifled. Disguised in a bathing suit he took a plunge last night so that he could catch the culprit with the goods. When he emerged from the water the chief discovered that some one had "frisked" his official trousseau of every red cent.

County Agriculturalist Returns From Auto Trip

Luther J. Chapin, county agriculturalist, has just returned from an automobile tour of ten days in Washington and Oregon. The chief trouble on the trip was the absence of sign boards and the difficulty he had in knowing what road to travel, especially around Ellensburg. Coming from Portland this way, the first Salem signs were seen at Dundee. Mr. Chapin favors the placing of signs directing travelers to Salem as soon as they are out a few miles from Portland. In fact, he is of the opinion that directing signs to Salem should be placed on all leading and all cross roads, so that motorists will have Salem in mind as soon as they are within 50 miles of the city. The Goodrich tire people have a few signs, but not enough to keep travelers fully posted. Coming into town Wednesday night, Mr. Chapin got on the wrong road when but ten miles out, as there was no sign directing towards Salem.

MACLEAY NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Macleay, Ore., Aug. 27.—Born, at the family home one and one-half miles west of Macleay, to Mr. and Mrs. William Stapleton, still-born twin boys. Interment took place Monday afternoon in the City View cemetery. Only a few friends and relatives were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kaiser started to San Francisco August 24 in their new six Studebaker auto to be gone one month.

All grain in the Waldo Hills was rather light this year.

Miss Alma Russell, who was bit by a poisonous insect last week is doing nicely.

Miss Jean Byers, of Portland, and former teacher of Macleay was here the last week visiting her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Taylor have as their guests Mr. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Alta Bown, of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Teckenburg made a trip to the mountains over Saturday and Sunday, reporting an excellent trip.

WAR CAUSED SUICIDE

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—Jean Lahlere, a Frenchman, leaped to death today after brooding over the plight of his country in the war. Poisoning in the window in the third story of his hotel above the heads of a crowd, he shouted "Viva France" and plunged. Nearly every bone in his body was broken.
