CAROL S. DIBBLE.

A society event of much prominence both in Salem and throughout the state will be the marriage tonight of Miss Althea E. Moore, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore, to Robert C. Kinney, of Astoria. The ceremony will be performed at the Moore's residence, 895 Chemeketa street, at 8:30 o'clock, by Rev. James Elvin, of the Congressional church. Out-of-town guests for the wedding have been arriving for several days and are being entertained as house guests at the homes of relatives and friends. Among those from Portland are the Misses Bertha and Carrie Moore, cousins of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Tom M. Ward, Judge and Mrs. R. S. Bean, Judge and Mrs. C. E. Wolverton, from Astoria, Mr. Kinney's home; Mrs. W. S. Kinney, the mother of the bridegroom; William Kinney, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, and Miss Mildred Smith, who will be the maid of honor, from Seattle; the Misses Margaret and Gertrude Gray and Marshall Jackson, who will act as the groomsmen. Miss Lillian Bain, a cousin of the bridegroom, arrived today from New York City. Miss Bain is a New York artist, who has been connected with the Briar Cliff Manor school. She will be the house guest of Mrs. W. S. Kinney, in Astoria, after the wedding. Congressman Merrill Moore, of Indianapolis, who also arrived today, will complete the out-of-town guests.

A handsomely-appointed dinner party was given last evening at the Marion hotel for the members of the bridal party by Robert Kinney. The table was beautifully centered with pink Kil-larney roses. Those circling the table were: Robert Kinney, Miss Althea Moore, Miss Mildred Smith, Marshall Jackson, Miss Margery Marvin and Ralph Moore.

Rev. James Elvin and family have returned from a two weeks' outing, spent at a wheat ranch on the Deschutes river, near The Dalles. The Elvins formerly lived at The Dalles, where Rev. Elvin was pastor of the Congressional church for two years, and they were given a warm welcome by their many friends in that city. A unique event of their visit was the sermon which Rev. Elvin preached August 22 to the ranchers and their families in an immense wheat field with the thermometer 100 in the shade. On the last Sunday evening of their stay Rev. Elvin delivered the sermon at a union meeting of all the Protestant churches in The Dalles. On the following Monday Rev. and Mrs. Elvin were afforded an enjoyable opportunity of meeting old-time friends, when the members of the Protestant churches of the city held a reception in their honor in the parlors of the Christian church. All regular services at the local church will now be resumed on Sunday, and the mid-weekly services will be held Thursday night at 7:30.

As guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Chinook over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Evans and daughter, Miss Marie Evans, and Miss Alice Arm-

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Frey and two children, of Vancouver, Wash., are spending the week in Salem as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Richardson.

Miss Louise Clark returned last night from a six months' trip to California, where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. C. Nerod, Miss Emily Nerod and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Drain have returned from a week's stay at Newport at their cottage. Dr. O. W. Korneck, of Portland, was also of the party.

A pleasant motor trip to Willott Springs was enjoyed Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Dawson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. McCully, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Swartz and Mr. and Mrs. Neppin, all of Salem.

The semi-weekly dances at the South Lively hop yard will have an especially good orchestra this season, comprising the following well-known solo people: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frickey, violin and piano; Wm. Newman, drum; James Newman, organ; Don Wilson, trombone. The dances, which are held on Wednesday and Saturday nights, are in charge of J. H. Moyer. A large number of Salem young people attend these dances, and, in view of the music and other attractive features, it is expected that the attendance will be even larger this year.

Russia Will Soon Issue Paper Money For Expenses

Petrograd, Sept. 1.—An issue of paper money is soon to be made by Russia through the state bank because of the heavy increase in war expenses. It was officially announced today, the public was warned that taxes will be increased.

This year's war expenses were estimated at $3,220,000,000 by the department of finance. The government has already borrowed $3,000,000,000 and expects to borrow more to "continue the war to a victorious conclusion," it was stated.

New York Evening Post: One argument against the disbanding of the Progressives is that it would leave the diplomatic abilities of Mr. Perkins without adequate employment.

TEDDY SAMPSON AND ELMER CLIFTON IN "THE FOX WOMAN"
4-REEL MUTUAL MASTERPIECE MADE BY MAJESTIC

Two Film Stars Take Lessons In Making Love. No! Yes! Miss Teddy Sampson and Elmer Clifton, the famous Mutual actors, have been taking lessons in making love. That this should be necessary will seem incredible to film fans. Miss Sampson and Mr. Clifton, when they were cast as lovers in John Luther Long's four-part Mutual Masterpiece, "The Fox Woman," found that they did not know how to make love in the Japanese style. American style—oh, rather, but this was different again! So they spent several days in the Japanese section of Los Angeles and observed the Japanese way of showing affection. It was explained to them that Japanese lovers never kiss. They just simply rub the sides of their cheeks together. This they learned and lots more, and they have made effective use of their knowledge in the picture.

Miss Sampson has the sympathetic part of the little Japanese wife who is deserted by her husband. Mr. Clifton plays her husband. The part of the Fox Woman, the Japanese name for a vampire, is undertaken by Signe Auen, one of the Mutual's most fascinating stars.

"The Fox Woman" will be shown at the Bligh Theater tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Dr. Osler on Tuberculosis

Sir William Osler, one of the foremost of living medical men, formerly of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, and now Regius Professor of Medicine at Oxford, says in his "Practice of Medicine" (1912), on page 540:

"The healing of pulmonary tuberculosis is shown clinically by the recovery of patients in whose sputa elastic tissue and bacilli have been found. . . . In the granulations and associated pneumonia a scar tissue is formed, while the smaller caseous areas become impregnated with lime salts. To such conditions alone should the term 'healing' be applied."

Many eminent medical authorities have testified to the efficacy of lime salts in the treatment of tuberculosis, and the success of Eckman's Alternative in this and allied troubles some other reputable physicians testify to the fact that it contains a lime salt so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated.

Widespread use of this remedy in numerous cases of tuberculosis—many of which appear to have yielded completely to it—justifies our belief that it is worth a trial, unless some other treatment already is succeeding. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs. We make no promise concerning it any more than reputable physicians give promises with their prescriptions, but we know of many cases in which IT HAS HELPED.

Your druggist has it or can get it, or you can send direct.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Nearly $30,000 has been collected in taxes at the sheriff's office in the last two days of the month of August, which was the time limit for the payment of taxes upon which the first half had not been paid. About $14,000 of this sum was taken in at the sheriff's office over the counter and there is about $15,000 in the mails, according to the estimate of Sheriff Esch. The sheriff's force has been so busy attending to the taxes of the people who visit the office personally that the mail has not been attended to except at odd moments. However, all letters containing money which reached the office by September 1 will be written up as coming within the month of August, whether they are opened before September 1 or not.

P. H. D'Arcy has brought suit in the circuit court of this county against the Salem Amusement and Holding Co. to collect $1800 alleged due for rental of the Ye Liberty theater and the Wexford theaters. It is stated in the complaint that the buildings were rented at the rate of $400 per month and that on August 28 the sum of $1800 became due. The Ye Liberty was closed by the sheriff upon an attachment being served and the Wexford has been closed for some time. The plaintiff seeks judgment in the sum of $1800 and costs. George G. Bingham is attorney for the plaintiff.

A marriage license was issued today at the office of the county clerk to Arthur L. Schulz, a farmer of Salem, and Renoh Evans, a Salem teacher.

Jose Farrow has filed at the office of the county clerk a notice of the assumed business name of the Elk restaurant for her establishment at 333 State street.

Ann G. Estes, widow of Allen G. Estes, deceased, has been appointed by Judge Bushey as administratrix of the estate which consists of $1000 inherited from another estate. The heirs are Marie E. Hubert, of Turner, and Frank A. Estes, of San Francisco, Cal.

Six sheriff's sales are scheduled for next Saturday at the Marion county court house, where the property involved in the following cases will be disposed of to the highest bidder: Flora M. Murphy against M. M. Massey and others, one lot in Brooks; Bank of Woodburn against F. A. Meisau and others, sale of lower right in property owned by Mrs. Star Land Co. against Albert Lewis and others, fraction of lot 1, block 10, Southwest addition to Salem; R. E. Campbell and others; two suits of foreclosure on a mechanics lien on the same property in this city.

County Judge W. M. Bushey today issued an order appointing Elizabeth Savage executrix of the will of Henry Walker Savage, deceased, whose last will and testament was admitted to probate. Mr. Savage died August 25, leaving an estate valued at $25,000. The heirs are Elizabeth Savage, widow of the deceased, of this city; Frank Hall Savage, a son, of Mallem, Idaho; Henry L. Savage, a son, of Kato, Harrison; daughter; Jess W. FRANCE'S GREAT AIRMAN DEAD

Great Diplomatic Victory Say New York Brokers

New York, Sept. 1.—Foreign exchange, which fell to 4:56 1/2 yesterday, and which afterward sold at 4:55, made another downward plunge in rates today, though with a recovery afterward which cancelled all of the day's early decline and went some distance toward removing the Streets apprehension.

When our own international situation was the worst a year ago this month, sterling did not range as far above par as it has now fallen below it; for rates between 6 and 7 to a pound were nominal prices of the first war panic, and a five rate, or 13 1/2 cents above par was prevalent quotation during the strain of August and September.

The stock exchange remained largely under the influence of its misgiving regarding the course in sterling today. It displayed an underlying strength greater than yesterday's. Although prices as a rule tended to keep stationary, there were few declines and some rather marked recoveries. These were ascribed partly to a relaxing of apprehensions regarding international exchange, but partly also to the apparently final official settlement with

CHAMPIONS ELIMINATED.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 1.—Francis Quimet, present national amateur golf champion, and Jerome D. Travers, four times national champion, were both eliminated in the second round of the national amateur golf tournament this afternoon. James D. Standish, of Detroit, defeated Quimet by the hollow score of 5 up and 4 to go and Max Marston, of Baltusrol, eliminated Travers 2 up and 1 to play.

Standish, after playing Quimet to a standstill in the morning round, pulled away from the champion during the afternoon.

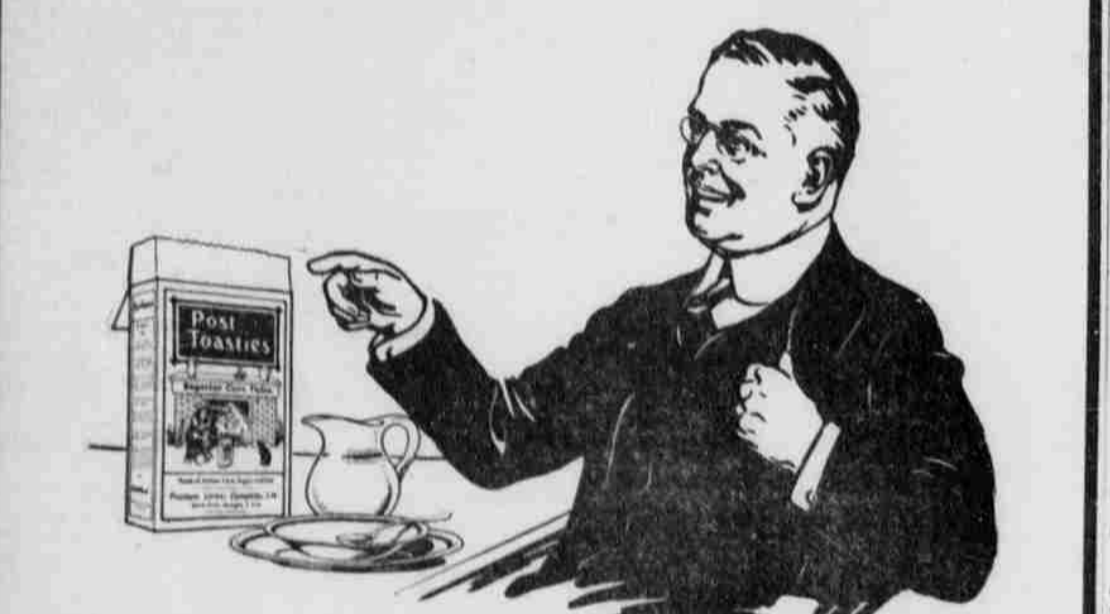

The elimination of these two stars has made D. E. Sawyer, conqueror of "Chick" Evans, a strong favorite for the title.

HOP PICKERS DROWNED

Newberg, Ore., Sept. 1.—The bodies of Lewis Stobel, aged 40, of Lensing, Mich., and Miss Ruth Doyle, aged 14, of Portland, who were drowned in the Willamette last night, were brought here today.

Miss Doyle was swimming when she became distressed, stabel went to her rescue and both drowned.
