Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I. PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y. PERU, N.Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass. SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

EXCLUSIVE SECTION OF LONDON SUFFERS

Press Censorship, However, Presents Papers Giving Details

New York, Sept. 10.—London's exclusive world end was probably attacked in Wednesday night's Zepplin raid. Though London today still maintained the strictest censorship concerning the raid, the Berlin official statement, passed by London, said that section of the city was raided.

It was regarded as probable that the Zepplin passed near or directly over Buckingham palace, the king's residence.

Press dispatches indicated that the raids occurred early in the evening, after the theatres were filled, and that the crowds flocked out to watch as the anti-aircraft guns opened fire. Warnings, it is thought, have been given that the populace must take the raids more seriously in the future.

That the Zepplin flew low over Trafalgar square was evidenced by the fact that newspaper spokes of the raid as a "spectacle"—apparently plainly visible and much observed.

A portion of the press demanded that the English retaliate for the raids, by striking at Cologne and Strassburg, within easy distance from the allied front.

Several persons wounded in Wednesday's attack are dying.

Thirty-seven Were Killed. London, Sept. 10.—Thirty-seven persons were killed in Tuesday's and Wednesday's raids against London and the west coast it was officially announced today.

Four of those wounded Tuesday died. Three of the "missing" were later found in the debris.

RED CROSS NURSES ONLY PROLONG WAR

Humane Treatment and Relief Work Not In Interest of Peace

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Red Cross nurses and humane treatment of soldiers only prolong war. This may seem brutal on the face of it, but one must realize that an increase in horrors hastens the end of war—so in the long run its the most humane thing to give no relief funds or nurses. That's why I left the Red Cross.

Such was the unusual view point expressed today by Miss Constance Drexel, wealthy young peace worker and suffragist, who attended the Hague peace conference and is here to attend the convention of Congressional congress of peace.

"War brides are somewhat of a fiction," she continued. "Few girls were forced into unwelcome marriages. Marriages that had been contemplated were merely rushed. The woman nature wanted a little touch of affection before the sweetheart died on the battlefield, that was all. That would will cease to bear children as a means of halting war is equally a fiction."

Miss Drexel was undoubtedly right when she said payoffs will be practiced after the war. But polygamy and war brides are not the real tragedy. The tragedy is in robbing the homes of husbands, fathers and sweethearts.

"I came back to America hoping to aid in peace work, only to find that this country has been spread with a militaristic spirit too. It was terribly discouraging. Women have much work to do along peace lines and should organize better to do it."

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Mrs. Florence Spencer satisfied her love against the Pacific ocean and lost, she asserted in her petition today for a divorce from Chief Engineer G. W. DAVID FOUNTAIN IS HANGED AT FOLSOM

Murderer of Little Margaret Milling Pays Penalty On Gallows

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 10.—David Fountain paid the death penalty at Folsom prison today for the murder of 10-year old Margaret Milling last December.

As he emerged from the cell in the condemned row a deathly pallor over spread his face. A cynical smile played around his mouth and his eyes stared.

With a guard on either side he mounted the three iron steps to the scaffold unassisted and turned his head towards the small throng of spectators. A guard quickly strapped his feet together while another slipped the noose over his head. A third adjusted the black cap. As the cap was finally placed over his head Warden Smith gave the signal and he dropped. The body slowly swayed from side to side for a moment. Dr. D. A. Prazier, prison physician, mounted the small platform beneath the body and applied the stethoscope.

The trap sprung at exactly ten seconds after 10 o'clock. At twelve minutes and fifty five seconds after the hour life was pronounced extinct. The first minute after the trap was sprung his heart action registered 74. Two minutes later it rose to 145 and slowly receded until it feebly registered 74 again. Life was pronounced extinct a minute later.

Fountain wore a plain black suit. Rev. J. F. McGovern, the prison chaplain preceded Fountain to the scaffold and began the Lord's Prayer as the condemned man stepped upon the trap. He continued his prayer until life was pronounced extinct.

On December 14, 1914, Fountain outraged and murdered Margaret Milling, 10 years of age, in the basement of the German Lutheran church in Sacramento. Fountain was the janitor. He had been hired from a public mission and little was known of his past. Fountain confessed his crime. His only defense was that he previously had been an inmate of an asylum in Iowa.

Large Woodburn Store Now In Receiver's Hands

The store of W. T. Binkley & Co., of Woodburn, one of the largest stores in the city, was placed in the hands of Frances M. Kemp, as receiver, this morning. The filing of the suit of R. L. Sabin against W. T. Binkley & Co., in the circuit court this week, brought a number of other creditors to close in and shut up the store. It is estimated that the stock of the store will appraise about $12,000 but the total amount of the debts against the firm is much larger than this amount.

Frances M. Kemp who was appointed receiver is one of the first women to practice law in this state and her appointment as receiver was made by R. E. Bean, judge of the district court of United States, district of Oregon.
