

SOCIETY

CAROL S. DIBBLE.

Mrs. Russell Caslin entertained at a delightful tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of her house guest, Miss Paula Linn, of Portland. Mrs. Frank Spears assisted in the serving. The guests were: Miss Catherine Larson, Miss Florence Hofer, Miss Margaret Rodgers, Miss Mildred Wiggins, Miss Marjorie Kay, Miss Carolyn Dick, Miss Helen Deschbach, Miss Gail Reed.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was the dancing party given by Mrs. A. Eugene Anfrance, Wednesday evening at her home on South Commercial street, honoring Miss Nell Sykes who left today for Prineville, Oregon, where she has accepted a position in the Crook county high school. The color motif of red and white was emphasized in masses of dahlias and autumn leaves, which formed an effective backing for the fireplace, and was carried out as a formal decoration throughout. The spacious room and hardwood floors were admirably adapted for dancing. As a part of the dance program, Miss Margaret Sykes gave several pleasing fancy dances in costume. Soloists by Miss Frances Ward and Miss Jeannette Sykes were also enjoyed during the evening. Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. Rena Hunter, Mrs. Horace Sykes and Mrs. Ralph White. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. Rena Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anfrance, Mr. and Mrs. Bevier, Miss Hensha Swart, Miss Martha Swart, Miss Nell Sykes, Miss Eunice Fleener, Joe McAllister, Evans Houston and Gene Good.

Mrs. O. O. McClellan entertained informally at a bridge tea this afternoon, complimentary to Miss Harriet Meader, the house guest of Miss Calista Moore. The guests consisted of three tables.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Isenhart, of Woodlark, Nebraska, are guests of Mrs. W. V. Johnson over the week end.

The Chauncey Bishop home was the scene of a gay gathering of small folk last Saturday afternoon when Robert Chauncey Bishop celebrated his sixth birthday. The afternoon's entertainment was varied most happily including an automobile ride and that ever welcome diversion, a "picture show," followed by a daintily appointed luncheon at the Bishop home. The color motif of yellow was attractively carried out in the table decorations, consisting of an artistic arrangement of goldenrod and broad bands of yellow caftan stretched across the table. The unique favors which straightway found approval in the eyes of the small masculine recipients were footballs. The juvenile guests were: Max Hartley, Sherman Plimpton, Charles Herr, Harold Olinger, Charles Kay Bishop, Howard Kurtz, Donald Church, Jimmie Church, Tommy Livesley, Henry Wesley Taintsen, Chandler Brown.

A wedding of much interest to Salem people was that of Miss Gertrude Reeves of Lebanon to Ray L. Smith, of Salem, which took place, Wednesday evening in the First Methodist church of Lebanon. The ceremony was performed at eight thirty by Rev. McDougall, of Portland, the double ring service being used. The decorations of the church which were marked by the simplicity and beauty of their arrangement, consisted of white asters, intermingled with ferns and clusters of pansy past blossoms. The bride was attired in a lovely gown of white crepe metron, trimmed with pearls and lace and carried a bouquet of white brides' roses. The maid of honor, Miss Mildred Bartholomew, of Portland, wore a becoming frock of pink crepe de chine and carried an armful of pink sweet peas. The matrons of honor, Mrs. Floyd Utter, of Salem, and Mrs. Carl Hollingsworth, of Seattle, wore the wedding gowns of white satin and also carried pink sweet peas. Paul Smith, a brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and the ushers were Rex Parson, of Oregon, Oregon, and Ralph Reeves, of Lebanon, Oregon, and Miss Nan Stewart, of Lebanon, Oregon, played the wedding march from Lohengrin and a wedding chorus was sung by six girl friends of the bride. Miss Grace Smith sang "Love's Coronation at Dawn," and Rose Reeves sang "O Proudest Me." Following the ceremony, the reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Reeves. Mrs. Hollingsworth and Mrs. Utter presided at the coffee urns. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately on their wedding trip, the objective point being New Haven, Connecticut, though they will go East by way of the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco and will also spend a short time at Washington, D. C. Mr. Smith will study law at Yale this year. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are both well known in Salem, having graduated from Willamette university with the 1915 class. Their universal popularity makes their departure from the vicinity a matter of sincere regret to their many friends. The out-of-town guests present at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. McDougall, of Portland; the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith, of Salem; his sisters, Miss Elva Smith and Miss Grace Smith; and his brother, Paul Smith; Miss Mildred Bartholomew, of Portland; Mrs. Carl Hollingsworth, of Seattle; Mrs. E. B. Bradley, of Hood River; Rex Parsons, of Oregon; Inez Galtra, of Portland; H. L. Weider, of Albany; Mrs. Ivan Hollingsworth, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Hellyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ringo, Mrs. Floyd Utter, Mrs. Margaret Graham, Miss Louie Penn, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, Ralph Stevens, of Salem.

Miss Laura Grant was hostess at an enjoyable "5000" party Thursday evening at her home on Center street, complimenting Mrs. Jeffe Long, of Idaho, Iowa, who is the house guest of Miss Regina Long. Naaturnisms and sweet peas formed most attractive decorations throughout the room. The guests surrounded three tables of cards. The invitation list included: Mrs. Donald Miles, Mrs. Jeffe Long, Miss Regina Long, Miss Marie Bolinger, Miss Zoe Olmstead, Miss Joy Turner, Miss Jennie Hollister, Miss Alice Hollister, Miss Ruth Hollister, Miss Ruth Brown, Miss Mollie Hancock, Miss Ruby Hancock, Miss Marie Ramsdell, Miss Marie Hollister, Miss Edith Elliott, Mrs. Aivan Godfrey, Mrs. Danielson, Mrs. Bolinger.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Hellyer, of Salem Heights avenue, attended the Smith-Reeves wedding at Lebanon last Wednesday evening.

The Ching Chinick camp of camp fire girls formed the motif for a pleasant affair, given by Miss Amelia Babcock at her home on South Commercial street Wednesday evening. The spacious yard of the Babcock home, illuminated by Japanese lanterns, and the leaping flames of a large bon fire, made a picturesque setting for the merry gathering. The evening was gaily passed with games and music, followed by "weenie" roasts and the serving of punch and sandwiches. The camp fire girls and their friends present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Girlich and small son, Miss Gretchen Brown, Miss Mary Bayne, Miss Edna Ackerson, Miss Alice McClellan, Miss Florence Scarier, Miss Lenahie George, Reed Roland, Charles Huggins, Wolcott Buren, Wyndon Buren, Fern Drager, Clifford Townsend.

In honor of the fourth birthday of her little son, William, Mrs. Charles Nafziger entertained a number of little folks and their mothers at her home, 1543 Broadway, on Wednesday afternoon, September eighth. Stomping games were enjoyed by the children after which light refreshments were served. The children present were: Evelyn and Orville Hale, Sylvia Barton, Beta, Ellen and Billie Shank, Preston and Gertrude Hale and Ernest Nafziger. Mrs. Nafziger was assisted by Miss Alberta Hale.

The local Review, Woman's Benefit Association of Macraebens, will hold its annual election of officers Wednesday evening, September 15, in the lodge rooms in the McCracken building. The Commander and Resol. Keeper-elect will go to Portland Thursday to attend the officers' class of instruction to be held in that city by Deputy Supreme Commander Ayllott.

In Portland last week pie in general, which includes our own loganberry, blackberry and delicious apple pie, was put under the ban by Mrs. Rorer at her cooking demonstrations. She classes it with mashed potatoes, as not to be tolerated. No great man, as Mrs. Rorer is quoted, ate pie, which reminds one of an Emerson story. Emerson was one day discoursing to a circle of admirers, and among other things touched upon the virtues of pie. "But," spoke up a lady, "of Emerson, do you eat pie?" "I replied the philosopher, and went on talking.

The many friends of Mrs. J. O. Beger will be glad to learn that she is convalescing satisfactorily after an operation at the Willamette Sanatorium.

The aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps was entertained by Mrs. John Shipp, Thursday afternoon at her home on South Fourteenth street. Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. Louis Short, Mrs. Claude Griggie, Mrs. W. O. Asselin and Mrs. H. B. McDams.

Mrs. L. K. Page has been spending a few days in Donald. She will entertain as guests over the week end, Mrs. Geo. Colledge, of Liveley, and Mrs. Fred J. Laitson, of Idagrove, Iowa, a sister of Mrs. Colledge. Mrs. Laitson leaves tomorrow for San Francisco where she will join Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Sparrier, of Guthrie, Oklahoma also recent guests at the Coolidge home. After a sojourn in Southern California, the Sparriers and Mrs. Laitson will return to their homes in the East.

Robert Chauncey and Charles Kay Bishop, the handsome, small sons, of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, who annually celebrate their birthdays with delightful juvenile parties, Charles Kay's second birthday in May, having been the occasion of a pretty al fresco party and Robert Chauncey being honored on his sixth birthday, last Saturday with a merry gathering of small folk at the Bishop home.

Robert Chauncey and Charles Kay Bishop, the handsome, small sons, of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, who annually celebrate their birthdays with delightful juvenile parties, Charles Kay's second birthday in May, having been the occasion of a pretty al fresco party and Robert Chauncey being honored on his sixth birthday, last Saturday with a merry gathering of small folk at the Bishop home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cook motored to Cascade today for a short outing. They will stop on the way at Sweet Home where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Ivan E. Bellinger.

Rev. Myron Haines, of Franklin, Indiana, is spending a short time in Salem. Rev. Haines is studying along educational lines in the Baptist denomination and will speak tomorrow morning at the Baptist church.

On Wednesday afternoon from two-thirty to five o'clock, the first of a series of showers to be given by the members of St. Monica's Altar society for the benefit of the bazaar, was held at Mrs. H. K. Merwin's home. The bazaar will be given the last of October.

Mrs. Merlin Harding was a dinner hostess Friday evening at her home in the Oaks addition when she entertained in honor of her husband and mother, Mrs. W. M. Savage, who celebrated their birthdays on Friday. The table was daintily adorned with pink and white asters, and covers were laid for Mrs. W. M. Savage, followed by a theatre party.

The Sacred Heart Academy has added to its staff, Blanche Liston-Niemeyer, who comes to it highly recommended. Mrs. Niemeyer's aim is to specialize in expression and dramatic art.

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

By MARGARET MASON.

"Is it a waste, the maiden said, To buy a lovely waist of red, That's made of many yards of mull? Sure such a waist fall can't be waste-ful."

New York, Sept. 11.—The new fall blouses are rightly designated for few and far between are the females who won't fall for them. Such exquisiteness is theirs as has never been before or behind either for they are much ornamented in the rear.

They are more bouffant for one thing and require divers lengths of diaphanous material to complete their sheer entirety. Georgette crepe, chiffon, and crepe de chine continue to be the favorite mediums. For lace and metallic embroideries are the favored garnishments.

One unique model of white crepe de chine is absolutely plain in front with a deep sailor collar of white silk plush in the back that is edged with a fringe of mossy little black and white ermine tails. The long sleeves are caught together at the cuff with a single tiny tail and there you are—the tail of this blouse is ended.

A stunning blouse for an elderly woman (if there is any such thing) is of a hanging of skunk around the neck and down each side of the front to the bust line. The sleeves which have a cap top of lace and full under-sleeves of the chiffon are cuffed in the fur. The lace is set in the back to form a point from the shoulders to the waist line and in front extends from the shoulders straight down each side of the fur bands.

Combinations of materials and of two colors are distinctly smart. Of those that seek their contrasting color in the white waists combined with skunk and the yellow with skunk are perhaps the loveliest.

Chiffon and velvet waists are also rich and effective. A Russian green velvet waist with sleeves and yoke of the same shade of chiffon has for adornment a checker collar of bear with a greenish gold metallic rose snugling cooly on the left side.

A vivid striped velvet of grey, black, scarlet and yellow has a high collar of astrakhan and the long flaring bell sleeves are deeply banded with the same.

The colored waists of Jersey silk promise but a dubious following for fall although the fur trimmed sweaters of heavy wool or silk have been shaken off of the summer girl's fair shoulders only to descend gracefully and fittingly upon those of Miss Autumn. They are sure to be decidedly smart well up into November for wear with tailor made skirts of serge, velvet and even taffeta. For yes, taffeta is to be a fall fabric this year as well as a perennial spring one.

Quite the cleverest of the tailored coat suits are fashioned of this silk and combined with fur to give them a bit more stability. Although military styles and trench fashions are trying to retrench they have suffered almost a total defeat in the autumn mode encounter. With the exception of the prevalence of Russian coats, turbanned and full skirted a la Cosack, and a gleaming gold tassel or so a la Belbian officer little or no militarism has been allowed to gain headway against the lines of the allied a la modes.

It certainly brooks much for fashionable pence that the awful onslaught of military helmets, turbans, Highland bonnets and Belgian caps has been stayed and female headgear is once more staid again also. That is of course it is as circumspect as feminine headgear could ever be. Really very little exaggeration is shown as yet in the fall hat models and either the close fitting little round and tri-corn shapes of velvet are effected or the ultra large round floppy velvet shapes. A one color scheme has gripped the little hat and odd and bizarre shades have been evolved to meet the needs of a hat toned hat that will at the same time be sufficiently striking.

Royal purple, mahogany and a bright Prussian blue are a few of the colors used and a variation on the ever popular erise is also offered. So vivid are some of the hues that it is going to be mighty hard for mere man to pass the hats this fall without adding blinders to his other recently acquired fashionable accessory—the wrist watch.

They are more bouffant for one thing and require divers lengths of diaphanous material to complete their sheer entirety. Georgette crepe, chiffon, and crepe de chine continue to be the favorite mediums. For lace and metallic embroideries are the favored garnishments.

One unique model of white crepe de chine is absolutely plain in front with a deep sailor collar of white silk plush in the back that is edged with a fringe of mossy little black and white ermine tails. The long sleeves are caught together at the cuff with a single tiny tail and there you are—the tail of this blouse is ended.

Combinations of materials and of two colors are distinctly smart. Of those that seek their contrasting color in the white waists combined with skunk and the yellow with skunk are perhaps the loveliest.

Chiffon and velvet waists are also rich and effective. A Russian green velvet waist with sleeves and yoke of the same shade of chiffon has for adornment a checker collar of bear with a greenish gold metallic rose snugling cooly on the left side.

A vivid striped velvet of grey, black, scarlet and yellow has a high collar of astrakhan and the long flaring bell sleeves are deeply banded with the same.

The colored waists of Jersey silk promise but a dubious following for fall although the fur trimmed sweaters of heavy wool or silk have been shaken off of the summer girl's fair shoulders only to descend gracefully and fittingly upon those of Miss Autumn. They are sure to be decidedly smart well up into November for wear with tailor made skirts of serge, velvet and even taffeta. For yes, taffeta is to be a fall fabric this year as well as a perennial spring one.

Quite the cleverest of the tailored coat suits are fashioned of this silk and combined with fur to give them a bit more stability. Although military styles and trench fashions are trying to retrench they

The fundamental principles of expression are based upon the intellectual, imaginative, emotional and volitional processes. Suitable literary excerpts are taken to inculcate the principles of expression. The general air of expression is to secure a thorough mastery of mind, voice and body essential to all the speaking professions. Mrs. Niemeyer is fully qualified to furnish instruction in all branches of expression, physical culture, and kindred subjects. The methods embody both the theoretical and the practical. The theoretical separated from the practical is useless, but when united with the practical is useful. The understanding of expression is that "To do is to know" specifically, the aim of the work is to prepare students for:

- (1.) Public Reading and the Interpretation of Literature.
(2.) The Concert Platform.
(3.) Public Speaking.
(4.) Dramatic Work.
(5.) The Teaching of—
(a.) Expression.
(b.) Literature.
(c.) Voice Culture.
(d.) Physical Culture.
(e.) Public Speaking.
(f.) Dramatic Art.

For those who do not contemplate a professional career, the work of expression affords a means of mental, physical, and vocal development and the opportunity of the broad culture to be secured from this course.

PERSONALS

Architect F. A. Legg is in Portland today on business.

Reed Roland went to Portland today for an over Sunday visit.

Max Ball, editor of The Collegian, is here today from Portland.

Ed Eberhart, a prominent farmer of Aumsville, is here today on business.

Mrs. F. E. Aline is in Woodburn for a two weeks' visit with relatives.

J. C. Jones, district manager for the Woodmen of the World, is in the city today.

Mrs. L. G. Hall will return tomorrow from a two weeks' visit with her son at Pratum.

Mrs. S. E. Yantis is spending the weekend in Portland visiting her son, David R. Yantis.

J. P. Case, of Long Beach, Cal., is in the city today on his way to Elkhorn to visit with his children.

F. T. Miles, local agent for the Wells Fargo Express company is an over Sunday visitor in Portland.

J. W. Kinzel is in the city today from Milwaukee.

Oscar Hubbard was a business visitor here yesterday from McMinnville.

Mrs. Wm. H. McLaughlin left this morning for Spokane, Wash., to be with her mother, who is seriously ill.

Rev. Lawrence, pastor of the Baptist church at Hayesville, returned last evening from a visit to the San Francisco exposition.

Miss Harriet Bigdon returned last evening from a two months' visit at San Diego, with relatives. She will leave next Thursday to enter the O. A. C. for the coming year.

R. H. Mills, local manager of the Spaulding Logging company and wife will leave this evening for a three weeks' visit at the exposition. Their visit will also include the San Diego fair and Los Angeles.

On account of his large land interests at Klamath Falls and in that section of the state, Geo. W. Henderson of the Kansas Cash store will go to Klamath Falls. The store room now occupied by the Kansas Cash store will be taken by the Valley Music house.

Beaver State Printers

Society and Commercial Printing. Phone 1512. Rooms 1-3, Patton Block

Imperial Dermatologist Parlors

Massage and Shampooing a Specialty...

My scalp treatments cure dandruff and stop falling hair. I cure black-heads and pimples and remove warts, moles, freckles, hair on face, neck or arms.

301 Steeves Bldg. Phone 393

Salem's Educational Directory

Music Business Law Art

Schools and Colleges

Capital Normal and Industrial School Term of 12 weeks opens September 13-15 13th and Wilbur Streets, Salem

Willamette University Opens September 13-15 Carl G. Doney, President. I. H. Van Winkle, Dean of Law School

Music and Art

Frederic S. Mendenhall Piano—Organ—Theory Myrtle Long Mendenhall Voice Culture. Studio, room 311, Hubbard Bldg. Students now registering.

Frank E. Churchill, Pianiste. Pupil of Emil Liebling, Chicago; graduate of Western Conservatory, Chicago. Studio—Rooms 12, Opera House Bldg. Res. Phone 1671-B.

Miss Beatrice Shelton Teacher of Piano. Studio 245 Marion St. Phone 1200

Elma Weller Pianist Lischitzky Technique and Dancing System of Improved Music Study for Beginners. Phone 1351 695 N. Liberty

Dan F. Langenberg Basso-Cantante Late pupil of F. Arenz. Studio 314-15-16-17 Hubbard Bldg. Phone 2070

Mrs. D. T. Junk China Artist. Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby Teacher of Piano. Phone 1950 W. 679 N. Cottage St.

Miss Lucile Barton Teacher of Voice and Theory 1017 North Twentieth St. Phone 564

Advertisement for Calef Bros. Home Furnishers. Text: 'Your Credit Is Good Here', 'Stores in Oregon and Washington', 'JUST RECEIVED', 'A shipment of the latest designs in Electric Reading Lamps. Prices Ranging From $3.50 to $12.00', 'We also have one of the most complete line of Library Tables in solid oak and veneered. Prices Ranging From $5.50 to $30.00', 'Calef Bros. HOME FURNISHERS COR. COURT & HIGH STS. SALEM, ORE. We are Exclusive agents for the famous Way Sagless Springs.'