

SOCIETY

CAROL S. DIBBLE.

THE event culminating society's anticipation for weeks, and in view of which all minor claims have been made secondary, took place Wednesday evening when Miss Gertrude Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Madison L. Jones of Labish Meadows, became the bride of Merrill B. Moores of Portland.

The wedding took place at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Robert S. Gill, the pastor, officiating at the ceremony. The ring service was used. A canopy extending from the church to the curb formed an entrance for the guests, who were met at the church doors by Chester A. Moores of Portland, a brother of the bride, and the maid of honor, Miss Janet Gray. The bride was accompanied by the two small flower girls, Miss Peggy Cannon, a niece of the bride, and Miss Virginia Wells, a niece of the bridegroom of Portland. Following came the bridesmaids, Miss Hazel Robb of Portland and Miss Elizabeth Lord of Salem. The matron of honor was Mrs. George W. Gray, a sister of the bride, and the maid of honor, Miss Janet Gray. The bride was accompanied by the two small flower girls, Miss Peggy Cannon, a niece of the bride, and Miss Virginia Wells, a niece of the bridegroom of Portland. Following came the bridesmaids, Miss Hazel Robb of Portland and Miss Elizabeth Lord of Salem. The matron of honor was Mrs. George W. Gray, a sister of the bride, and the maid of honor, Miss Janet Gray.

ors in the shower bouquet thrown by the bride, consisting of the ring, the tumbler and the dime, were received by Miss Lucile Bell, Miss Alice Hoogs and Miss Aline Thompson. The bride received an array of beautiful gifts.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Moores left on a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches. The bride's traveling costume was a chic suit of blue serge trimmed with fox fur, with a small blue tailored hat to match. After their return the young couple will make their home in Portland where Mr. Moores is engaged in the automobile business.

The bride, who has grown up in this community, is a graduate of St. Helens high school at Portland. She is a charming girl and has a host of friends. It may be well said of her that she is liked by everyone. Mr. Moores is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Moores of Portland a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and of Cornell university. His popularity at college has since attended him and he is well known in many circles. Among the out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moores of Portland; Mrs. Fanny Love and Miss Alice Hoog of Honolulu, H. I.; Mr. and Mrs. John Withycombe of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moores of White Salmon, Wash., and the following from Portland: Mr. and Mrs. E. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hovenden, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, Mrs. Carrie Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grover, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Litherland, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moores, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wells, Mrs. Sarah Clarke, Miss Ethel Clarke and Miss Hazel Robb.

sponsive to the exaltation of both music and drama. Among other things Mrs. Denton makes mention of the Wagner concert, Sept. 5, by the expository orchestra conducted by Dr. Damsch. She much enjoyed the trip and found the musical opportunities there altogether satisfying and to be remembered.

Mrs. George E. Waters, assisted by Mrs. William C. Knighton, entertained at a charming tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Waters on Summer street, in honor of Mrs. E. E. Waters. The rooms, which are attractive of themselves, were tastefully decorated with a pleasing arrangement of dahlias, asters and geraniums. The affair, which was in the nature of a Kensington, contained an added element of charm, the occasion being Mrs. Waters' birthday.

Every feature which could contribute to the festive spirit of the day was present, including the sparkling birthday cake. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. C. J. McNary and Miss Ida Simmons. The guests were: Mrs. E. Gillogham, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. William Patterson, Mrs. E. Hofer, Mrs. Adm. Strong, Mrs. C. L. McNary, Mrs. J. M. Martin, Mrs. W. P. Lord, Mrs. J. A. Carson, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. J. H. McNary, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. Harvey Wells, Mrs. J. P. Robertson, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Mrs. George Mack of Los Angeles, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Jr., Mrs. E. S. Stewart, Mrs. J. W. Stately, Mrs. W. T. Jenks, Mrs. H. B. Thielens, Mrs. W. H. Root, Mrs. A. J. Monroe, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. J. H. Lauterborn, Mrs. F. A. Moore, Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. M. E. Breymann, Miss Calista Moore, Miss Lillian Root and Miss Ida Simmons.

Mrs. Merrill B. Moores. (Miss Gertrude Jones) whose marriage to Merrill B. Moores of Portland on Wednesday evening was an event of much social interest.

resulting from their use of leisure time in the home. Club politics are discussed continually, says the Oregonian. Wherever a group of club women is noticed it is safe to wager that they are asking each other who will be the next president and what will be the nature of the work at the convention. The election of delegates to the state gathering of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs is an important feature of all the early season club gatherings. Upon the personnel of these delegations will depend the action of the convention, which will be held in Salem next month.

During the session of the land grant conference at the state house this week the Commercial club served "Lojii" and waters, assisted by a competent committee under the supervision of Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president of the Salem Women's club, and Mrs. William C. Knighton. The following ladies assisted in serving: Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. C. L. Dick, Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Miss Veda Cross, Miss Margaret Gray, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Elsie Diemel, Miss Marjorie Marvill, Miss Aline Thompson, Miss Winifred Byrd, Miss Mabel Robertson.

Mrs. Robert Eakin and her Sabbath school class of the First Presbyterian church were afforded an opportunity to extend greetings to Miss Ruth Gibson on her return from Seal Rocks, Ore., by a Kensington which Mrs. A. O. Condit gave on Friday afternoon at her residence on Oak street. Needles, shuffles, crochet hooks, etc., were very skillfully laid aside while Miss Mildred Wiggins and Miss Vera Dilley sang several selections accompanied by Miss Lucile Ross.

Games called the company to the lawn later where an enthusiastic contest took place, following which dainty refreshments were served. The following young ladies are members of the organization: Lois Martin, Lucile Ross, Grace McCall, Ruth Rosebrough, Dorothy Buchner, Vera Dilley, Winnie Edwards, Margaret Rodgers, Mildred Wiggins, Ruth Gibson, Odell Savage, Irene Curtis, Carolyn Dick and Mrs. Johnson.

The executive committee of the Parent-Teacher association of the Lincoln school met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Luther J. Chapin to discuss plans for the coming school exhibit, September 25. It was decided that any work done last year by any child in the district is eligible for entry. And although the boundaries line of the district has been somewhat changed any child who did work last year in the Lincoln school may participate. The exhibits will include agricultural work, garden work, canning, making of jellies, baking bread, cake and the best school work received last semester. Special emphasis this year will be laid upon the garden work.

In the general exhibit first prize, boys, will be $1, second prize 50 cents; girls, first prize, $1, second prize 50 cents. In the agricultural exhibit, three best vegetables first prize, will be $1, second prize 50 cents; best 10 ears corn, first prize 50 cents; second 25 cents; best 10 potatoes, first prize 50 cents; second prize 25 cents; best six onions, first prize 50c; second 25c. In the canned goods exhibit the first prize will be 50 cents, and second 25 cents. There will also be prizes for the best loaf of bread; first 50 cents, second 25 cents, and for the best cake, either layer or loaf, first prize 50 cents, second 25 cents. The exhibit will take place on Saturday, and there will be a program given by the children.

The business men's quartet and the ladies' double quartet which as before announced will furnish the music at the state fair, beginning September 27, are devoting themselves these days with singleness of purpose to the work in hand. To illustrate the quality of music that may be expected, it may be mentioned that three of the singers are vocal teachers, and the remainder professional singers. Miss Minetta Magers, who has charge of the music at the fair is well pleased at the progress which the quartets are making. On Woman's day, Good Home day and Portland day at the fair, members of the ladies' double quartet will give solos, and on Friday evening after the regular concert, at the banquet of the editors and newspaper men of the state at the new pavilion, the two quartets will furnish the music. The ladies' double quartet is composed of soprano, Mrs. Theodore Roth, Miss Mary Bolinger, Miss Gertrude Erickson, mezzo soprano, Mrs. Thomas H. Galloway, Miss Rose Pratt; first contralto, Miss Lucile Barton, Miss Myrtle Erickson, second contralto, Miss Ruth Magers, Miss Minetta Magers. The tenor's quartet, first tenor, Dr. Ross T. McIntire; second tenor, Dr. Ross T. McIntire; first tenor, W. T. Jenks; baritone, F. S. Barton; bass, E. L. Boas.

Miss Ida Simmons left today by the Great Northern for San Francisco, where she will join Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wells.

Mrs. George Mack of Los Angeles is the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, for the remainder of the month.

Ellis Jones, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Madison L. Jones of Labish Meadows, has gone East to attend the Columbia school of journalism in Missouri.

Mrs. George Gray and small daughter, Prudence, spent the day in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houston have returned from an enjoyable two-weeks' trip to California. They visited friends in both San Francisco and Los Angeles, were fully demonstrated to them the beauties of the southern state by a series of delightful motor rides. Despite the charms of California, however, Mr. and Mrs. Houston were equally glad to find themselves once more nearing Oregon and the welcome home stretch leading straight to Salem.

Miss Hortense Epply left on Tuesday for Hoquiam, Wash., where she will have full charge of the domestic science department of the high school.

The state convention of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations will meet in Corvallis October 20 to 23. There will be an election of all the officers of the state branch at this convention. Mrs. George McMath is mentioned for the presidency.

The congress and the associations throughout the state are expending much effort in preparation for a junior exhibit to be given in Portland during October. This exhibit will include all articles which represent the skill, ingenuity, intellectual achievement, perseverance, etc., of children under 16.
