CAROL S. DIBBEL

Among the sojourners returning from extended visits at the California exhibitions and other points of interest to the general sight-seeer, is Miss Aline Hawk who arrived in Salem Sunday night after a six months' trip in the southern state.

Mrs. William McEllebrist, Jr. entertained informally Friday evening in honor of Mr. McEllebrist's birthday at a delightful picnic supper held in the garage.

Word has been received from Mrs. Frank Myers and children who left Salem a short time ago to visit relatives and friends in the middle western states that they are enjoying their trip exceedingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young and Mrs. Rocky Mason, of Albany, were guests of the Ganucey Bishops over the week end. Taking advantage of the ideal weather, a picnic party composed of the Bishops, their house guests, and Miss Aline Thompson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Elsa Deibel, Carl Gabrielson and Ralph Moores motored out to the golf links where a delightful day was spent picnicking.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kinney stopped off at Salem yesterday on their return from their wedding trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition. Mr. Kinney left this afternoon for Astoria, but Mrs. Kinney will remain a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. N. Moores, of Chemeketa street.

Rev. George Koehler of the Lutheran church was happily surprised last evening by the members of his church who gathered at his home on State and Eighteenth streets, in honor of his birthday. The evening was enjoyably passed with music and the other informal diversions, which usually link themselves with a genuine surprise party, followed by the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Anna Culbertson and son, Leon Culbertson, have returned from a month's sojourn in California and Arizona. Outside of the exhibitions they visited many other interesting places, including the Yosemite Valley, the Grand Canyon of Arizona, Catalina

Island and various cities of Southern California. Mrs. George Winshell entertained delightfully Friday afternoon at her home on North High street for the Pythian Sisters. A Pythian Sisters' club was organized during the afternoon, with Mrs. Betsch as president, Mrs. Gilson as vice-president, and Mrs. Barbour, secretary. Mrs. Betsch then appointed Mrs. Shipp, Mrs. Davies and Mrs. Fitch as a committee on rules and regulations. Following the business meeting, refreshments were served. Mrs. Parmenter will entertain the club on October 8.

Mrs. Leda Henderson of Morningside left last Friday evening for Jefferson, where she holds a position as a teacher in the public schools. The Eugene Bible university will hold a rally this evening at eight o'clock at the First Christian church. A most entertaining evening is planned, with special music furnished by the E. B. U. Ladies' Quartet and the Male Quartet of the local church. T. B. Kay will be the toast master. Among the out of town guests will be G. S. O. Humbert, field secretary of the E. B. U.; Leon L. Meyers, pastor of the Christian church at The Dalles, E. C. Sanderson, president of the E. B. U., and Otho H. Williams, the leader of the team. All those interested are cordially invited to attend.

The W. C. Miller home, on North Commercial street, was the scene of a pleasant gathering Sunday a number of friends being informally asked to spend the afternoon and enjoy a late tea in the evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Karl Walter and daughter, Miss Emma Hinkley, Mr. and Mrs. E. Schoen and son, Miss Ella Schoen and Arthur Cobe.

Mr. Schumann said that he had not enlisted any men into the service since the opening in Salem, but had many applications.—Eugene Guard.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

District Attorney Ringo returned from Silverton and Gervais last night after spending the day in trying cases in the justice courts of these two cities. At Gervais an alleged bootlegging Japanese, Yoko Katsuki, Roy Fukuda, and Charlie Hori being bound over to the grand jury under bonds of $200 each which were supplied by the men and they were released. It was charged that while in a hop yard at Gervais the men made a business of disposing of liquor unlawfully.

At Silverton in the case of the state against Eddie Evens, charged with willfully disturbing the peace at a public gathering was tried. It was alleged that Evens with two companions went to a hop yard dance and were ejected from the hall and that they then entered their auto and charged through the crowd a few times and navigated the machine up the hill backwards. The two companions of Evens pleaded guilty and were given small fines, Evens pleaded not guilty and demanded a trial after which he was acquitted and the case dismissed.

C. C. Crow & Co. has brought suit in the circuit court of this county against M. E. Phillips and T. McRae alleging failure on the part of the defendants to fulfill a piling contract. The complaint alleges that a contract was entered into with the defendants whereby they were to deliver a certain amount of piling at a price of 14 cents per lineal foot F. O. B. the cars at Hubbard. The plaintiff alleges that the contract was not fulfilled and when forced to go into the open market to purchase the piling was obliged to pay $283.05 more than the contract price for the necessary amount.

AN OVERBURDENED WIFE

If the work that women do and the pains they suffer could be measured in figures, what a terrible array they would present! Through girlhood, wifehood and motherhood woman toils on, often suffering with backache, pains in side, headaches and nervousness which are tell-tale symptoms of organic derangements which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—made from roots and herbs—can undoubtedly correct. Women who suffer should not give up hope until they have given it a trial.
