LEAGUE LEADERS ARE ALMOST SAFE NOW

Red Sox and Phillies Are Expected to Cinch Their Pennants This Week

By George H. Holmes.
(United Press staff correspondent.)
New York, Sept. 27.—The tiny thread by which the enemies of the Red Sox and Phillies still have a mathematical chance to beat them out will be cut this week. The leaders have had the races practically sewed up for the past two weeks but in a few days our old friend "mathematical impossibility" will come to the front and settle the hash of Detroit, Brooklyn and Boston once and for ever.

The Phillies have a snap. They still have nine games to play, not counting yesterday's and all they must do to clinch the flag irrevocably is to win three of these. Judging by the way the Quaker City gang has been travelling of late, that should be several degrees easier than falling off the well known log. After the Phillies have won three, both the Braves and Dodgers can win all theirs and it won't do anybody any good, but the magnoates.

Granting that the Dodgers and Braves do not lose a game from now on, and the Phillies win their three, the standing then will be:
Philadelphia ..... W. L. Per.
Boston ..... 88 66 571
Brooklyn ..... 87 67 569
According to this outlay, and barring upsets, the Phillies can clinch the banner by Tuesday or Wednesday.
The Red Sox must win half their games to absolutely nail the pennant to the mast, even granting that the Tigers win all their remaining six games, which isn't likely as they still have to play with Clark Griffith's sporting Senators. Assuming the Tigers do win the six and the Red Sox win half

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The grand jury met this morning at 10 o'clock to investigate a number of cases that have been reported since the July term of the circuit court. The personnel of the grand jury is as follows: Foreman, John N. McKay, F. W. Peterson, Earl Rowland, F. J. Wier, J. B. Ashby, F. W. Fry and J. P. C. Techenberg. Judge Percy R. Kelly will return to this city Friday and it is expected that the grand jury will report at this time.

Alleging that they secured a house and lot in "Smoky Row" on "Hungry Creek" through a misunderstanding as to its value in part payment for a farm in this county, John Skubal and Cecelia Skubal have brought suit in the circuit court against Samuel Gerig and Ardiana Gerig. The complaint states that the defendants purchased from the plaintiffs, lots 11 and 12 East side fruit farms and the personal property on the place for $3,000 giving in part payment $500 in cash, an equity in a mortgage for $1500 and the plaintiff further alleges that they understood that there was to be deposited to their credit in the bank the sum of $1,000. They state that when they went to the bank they found that no money had been placed to their credit and upon investigation found that they had been given in lieu of the $1000 the house and lot near Glendale in Douglas county. They state that the property in Southern Oregon is of little value and they ask that the defendants be enjoined from encumbering the property now in their possession and that upon repayment of the $500 that they receive their farm back. Carey F. Martin is attorney for the plaintiffs.

ST. LOUIS HEADS LIST

St. Louis, Sept. 27.—St. Louis made a clean sweep of the series with the Buffalo Federals by taking a double-header yesterday. In the first game Anderson, Ehmke and Marshall gave nine hits, four of them for extra bases, while the visitors drew an equal number from Davenport.

The St. Louis pitcher, however, allowed only one extra base hit and kept the others well scattered. In the second game Plank was almost invincible, holding Buffalo to three hits, two of them scratches. Today's victories put St. Louis in first place. The score:

St. Louis	7	9	2
Buffalo	2	9	1

Batteries: Anderson, Ehmke, Marshall and Allen; Davenport and Hartley.
Second game—
R. H. E.
St. Louis ..... 5 7 2
Buffalo ..... 3 9 1
Batteries: Bollant, Marshall and Blair; Plank and Chapman.

Ida M. Massey, Sarah Kemmer and Eva Smith, have filed a notice of appeal of their applications for widow's pension from the probate court to the circuit court of this county. These three cases came up in June of this year when the first petitions for widow's pensions were filed. The petitions were rejected and upon an alternative writ of mandamus, Judge Bushby was required to show cause in the circuit court why he did not grant these pensions. Upon the showing made the cases were dismissed August 30.

Pearl F. Green brought suit in the circuit court today to secure a divorce from Frank G. H. Green, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married in Salem in 1912 and for the last two years the plaintiff alleges the defendant has carried out a course of cruel and inhuman treatment and she asks for a decree of absolute divorce, $50 attorney's fees and the right to resume her maiden name of Pearl F. Rockhill. James G. Heltzel is attorney for the plaintiff.

William Brandes today filed a suit in the circuit court against M. M. Diel and W. L. Diel to collect $872 on a promissory note the payment of which was guaranteed by the defendants according to the allegations in the complaint. It is alleged that Walter B. Odale and wife gave their promissory note to Diel for the sum of $872 and that later the note was transferred to William Brandes, who says that the makers of the note refuse to pay it. In addition to judgment and costs the plaintiff seeks $90 attorney's fees.

C. W. Smith today filed a suit against Myrtle Knowland in the circuit court of this county in which it is alleged that the plaintiff ordered a musical instrument known as "Victrola XIV" from the defendant. He says he paid $150 for the machine which was not in stock at that time and that the defendant has failed to deliver it and that he has asked for the return of his money which has been refused. The plaintiff seeks judgment in the sum of $150 and the costs of the action. Carson & Brown are attorneys for the plaintiff.
