

Yessir, yessiree!

"7" stands for 7th point—the unknown point of Sterling Gum's superiority. Latest thing in Mystery. But—not unfindable. For every time you lift a stick of Sterling Gum, up goes—

- Point 1. Crowded with flavor.
- Point 2. Velvety body—NO GRIT.
- Point 3. Crumble-proof.
- Point 4. Sterling purity.
- Point 5. From a daylight factory.
- Point 6. Untouched by hands.

What?

Can you find that 7th point? Think of all the great discoverers—remember the persevering American pioneers of early days.

Oh, Brothers and Sisters and little ones, why not pioneer yourselves? Who knows? Maybe you'll discover that 7th point.

— Old Seven, the Baffler

THE MARKETS

The market in general is showing but few changes. Wheat is worth in the city about 75 cents, and oats from 30 to 32, although there is a disposition to feel that oats will soon be higher. Veal is rather weak. Poultry seems to have overstocked the market and quotations today are 11 cents for hens and 13 cents for spring fry. The lower prices in wheat has effected the quotations on flour and today all grocers are selling hard wheat flour at from $1.35 to $2.35 and valley flour at from $1.35 to $1.50.

YESTERDAY'S VAUDEVILLE BILL AT THE GRAND

The second weekly installment of Sullivan & Conside's vaudeville was the bill at the Grand theatre yesterday afternoon and evening at the same admission prices which prevailed a week ago. The attendance was such as to warrant both the management of the place and the lovers of high grade vaudeville in the belief that Salem is going to support the venture, at least sufficiently to insure its continuance.

Madame Orbesany's Cockatoos opened the program. Folks who have harbored the notion that cockatoos lack intelligence learned by means of this very pretty act that they have been mistaken.

John A. West & Co., the "Co." being Mrs. West and the Bunly wolf, followed with a musical act sprinkled with black face comedy and operatic singing by the wolf. The act would perhaps have been acceptable without the efforts of the wolf. Mr. West is sufficient of a comedian and musician to satisfy even an exacting audience.

In the sensational novelty "Outwitted" Victorson & Forrest have struck a new note in the way of playlets. The act was well done.

The Jean King Quartet was suggestive of Chattanooga days. Four good looking young people, 2m, 2f, sang real music interspersed with ragtime melody.

Hugo Lutgens gave an imitation of Billy Sunday that those who have heard the eminent Hood River evangelist pronounced good, and followed it with a burlesque sermon in Swedish dialect, that was very nice.

A Galley o' Fun!

OF COURSE NOT.
"As I understand it, our dispute with Turkey is over the claims of some missionaries and we're going to collect those claims by force, if necessary."
"Of course! The missionaries won't turn the other cheek."

THE REAL TROUBLE.
"Do you think that the fear of an increase of taxes drives rich men out of the community?"
"No. It is merely the fear that taxes may be collected."

If we devote time enough to work to earn sufficient money to spend we have no time left in which to spend it; and if we take any time off to spend it we don't earn enough to keep body and soul together.

KEEP DRY.
Madge—She just pokes around the bench all the time and never thinks of going into the water.
Marjorie—I don't blame her. She wears one of those blamish bathing suits.

THE SLAVE OF GLAMOR.
They said to me: "Man, you are broken and battered, the city has crushed you and sapped you of life, you want to go out where the folks are more scattered, away from the crowds and the slums and the strife. They have robbed you of air, and have taken your birthright, you toil for the wealth that your maners demand; O come, let us bring you once more to your earth-right—The country is calling you 'Back to the land!'"

So I came, and I flourished and prospered, but somehow I'm sick for the sight of the city again, and I think of the days when I lived in a slum, how I used to sit out with the neighboring men and smoke on the curb while the kids on the pavement were dancing about to the street organ's tune; For I was a slave—but I loved my enslavement, and I guess I got free just a little too soon.

There are birds in the trees here whose warbling is pretty, there are flowers and grass, and they're lovely, maybe, but O for the bands in the parks of the city, and the fun and the life and the crowds that you see! The city is filled with injustice and illness, but still it's alive, and I'm hearing it call, while here—why, I can't go to sleep for the stillness, and nothing whatever is doing at all!

I know I'm a fool to be longing and longing for pavements and smoke and for hurrying and noise, but I'm wishing the sight of the people all thronging, the old folks and babies, the girls and the boys, it did me no good, and it robbed me and stripped me, it kept me half-starved, and it trampled me down, but the spell of the city has reached me and gripped me, and it's "Me from the country right back to town!"

Kitchen Economy

With wood or coal—waste heat. Too much or too little for best cooking. In hot weather too much heat coming out into the room.
With a good oil-stove—no waste heat or fuel. One burner or four—low flame or high—a slow fire or a hot one. All the convenience of gas for every home, all the year round.

New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove

Better cooking—flame adjustable to just the degree needed for roasts, for bread, for pastry. No odor. Does not tint the food. A cool cook and a clean kitchen. Ask your dealer. See demonstration, Palace of Manufacturers, Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Congressman Hawley Talks On the Apostle Paul

Congressman W. C. Hawley occupied the pulpit of the First Methodist church last evening, delivering a discourse on St. Paul.
Having been a teacher of history for several years in the Willamette university, Mr. Hawley said that he had always been interested in history and especially the world history for 90 years following the birth of Christ, and that it has been his custom to devote one hour a day to the study of St. Paul and his times.

Having conquered a country, it was the custom of the Romans to permit the use of its own religion, but not to promulgate any new religion. Rome was against secret societies or secret religions, as these secret societies were often the means of fermenting revolts. For this reason, Paul in his preachings, claimed that the teachings of Christ were but a fruitage of the Jewish faith. According to the history of those times, Christians were executed not because they were followers of Christ, but because they were supporting a new religion, contrary to the Roman law. This Roman law forbade the practice of any religion, unless licensed according to law. It was believed at first that Gentiles must first become Jews before accepting the Christian faith, but this was later abandoned by the council that met at Rome.

Paul wrote the first words of the New Testament, said Mr. Hawley, and for this reason, in his letters, does not quote any of the sayings of Christ, as the books according to Mark, Matthew, Luke, and St. John were not written until many years after those of Paul's letters.
Before writing any of his letters, Paul had been a missionary 20 years and had traveled on foot 25,000 miles in all parts of the then-civilized world, making his way working as a tent maker, and preaching the gospel of Christ. Paul was executed at Rome when about 65 years of age, not so much for being a Christian, said the speaker, but for teaching a new religion contrary to the Roman law.

DANGERS OF A COLD

Salem People Will Do Well to Heed Them.

Many bad cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poison-laden blood and backache, headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Salem resident's example:

J. H. Penton, 1415 Lee St., Salem, says: "A cold settled on my kidneys, causing pain through my back. I knew that my kidneys were to blame, and, hearing several local citizens endorse Doan's Kidney Pills highly, I began using them. They were just what I needed to relieve the pains and other kidney troubles. Whenever I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills since, a few doses have brought me relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Penton had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED SORE, ACHING FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, calluses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet, or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ."

"TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is magical; "TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Get a 25 cent box at any drug or department store, and get relief
