Mildred, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wolcott, was struck by an automobile last Monday afternoon and thrown to the pavement. It was thought at first she was seriously hurt but fortunately a nervous shock and a large bump on the back of the head were the worst injuries received and she was at school on Tuesday, not much the worse for the novel experience which might have been a very serious affair.

Mrs. Solomon Smith, who died at her home on Water street last Wednesday morning, was one of pioneer women of this community, having come to Oregon from Missouri in 1847. She is mourned by a large circle of friends, who sincerely sympathize with the family in this time of grief. She is survived by her husband, four children and one brother. The children are: Mrs. M. D. Ramsby and Irwin Smith of Silvertown; Mrs. Amy Cowing of Portland; and Harvey Smith of Mt. Angel. Funeral services were held at the home on Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Albyn Essen, pastor of the Christian church, and interment in the Silvertown cemetery.

Why it Succeeds Because It's For One Thing Only and Salem People Appreciate This. Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only.

For weak or disordered kidneys. Here is Salem evidence to prove their worth.

John L. Conger, prop. printing shop, 845 N. 17th St., Salem, says: 'My back got weak and sore and my kidneys did not act as they should. At times I could hardly straighten. I used them and they gave me relief from the first. It took Doan's Kidney Pills only a short time to rid me of kidney trouble.'

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Conger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW HEAD OF FRENCH AT DARDANELLES General Serrail.

The French seem to be having difficulty in finding the right man to lead their expeditionary force at the Dardanelles. At first General d'Amade was chosen for this position. After his failure he was succeeded by General H. J. E. Gouraud. Now Gouraud has been asked to step aside and make way for General Serrail, who has been named commander-in-chief of the French army of the orient.
