To make this exhibit accurate, a case of eggs are received each day from a Portland commission house, and these are placed on display with those brought in by the members of the Egg Circle. Arrangements have been made by Mr. Lamb by which the Salem Egg Circle will be made the shipping point for Lebanon and Corvallis. This will enable the Sa-lem Sircle to supply a larger market, and secure larger contracts.

P. E. Fullerton and D. Misner claim to hold the record for night driving whon on a pleasure tour. To attend the Pendleton Round-Up, the parties left Salem last Wednesday afternoon, and drove all the night until 3 o'clock the following morning, when they camped in a hay stack. Thursday morncamped is a hay stack. Thursday morning, they were again on the road, and drove all that day and until 4 o'clock Friday morning, when they arrived in Pendleton. After an hour's search for accommodations they finally found a private house that took them in. Leaving Pendleton Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, they drove all that night, and all day Sunday, camping late that evening at the government camp, 52 miles east of Portland. Mr. Fullerton re-ports the roads especially bad in the eastern part of the scate, where they were cut up by wagons hauling wheat. Their speedometer recorded 342 miles from Salem to Pendleton.
