CAROL S. DIBBLE.

A most attractive picture of Miss Nell Thielson, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielson, appeared in the Sunday issue of the San Francisco Examiner. Miss Thielson and Miss Iras Hawley have recently returned from a several weeks' sojourn in California, where during their stay at the Panama-Pacific exposition, they were much feted, as popular visitors at the Oregon building.

A distinguished guest for a day in Salem, enroute to Portland, during the early week was Dr. A. B. Potter of Oklahoma City, who is touring the Pacific coast and Canada after a visit to San Diego and San Francisco expositions. Dr. Potter was in attendance at the National Convention of Dentists which closed recently in San Francisco and was one of the leaders, being in charge of several of the clinics. Dr. Potter has become eminent as a writer and ranks high in scientific circles, and his articles on athletics are widely read. He was strongly identified with athletics during his training at Chicago Northwestern university. He is a golf enthusiast and a prominent clubman, and is being informally entertained during his visit on the coast.

Mrs. Minnie Sinclair and Mrs. Fred McCarty, of Grand Junction, Colorado, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Hellyer, of Salem Heights, for a few weeks, on their way to the exposition. Today Mr. and Mrs. Hellyer gave a small dinner party in their honor, inviting as guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond, and Mr. and Mrs. James Finell.

Mrs. W. P. Babcock asked in a few honoring Miss Euriil Brooker, who has returned from an extended stay in Portland. The evening was passed with five hundred, after which dainty refreshments were served, covers being laid for six.

Mrs. George H. Alden has returned from a week's stay in Seattle, where she attended a national woman's home missionary society convention in Seattle.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will give a musical party this evening at the church parlors. A novel feature will consist in each person's representing a song, thus carrying out the musical motif of the affair.

Mrs. George T. Pratt, of Newport, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Cochran, 1757 Chomeketa street, will return home tomorrow. Miss Ada Pratt, of Myrtle Point, Oregon, is also a guest at the Cochran home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Radcliff and small son, Robert, left last evening for Clayton, Iowa, to reside permanently. Mr. Radcliff will enter the real estate business in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paul and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hodson, of Newberg, were recent visitors in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fernal are relocated in Salem, after having spent six months as residents of Eugene.

Mrs. Joe Cooley returned Monday from Portland, where she spent several days, working in the interest of the home for homeless children, which is being organized in that city.

Miss Gladys Pemberton visited in Portland over the week end.

Mrs. George Peary, of Woodburn, was a week end guest of Mrs. Frank Peary at her home on Salem Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Kingsley visited in Portland last week for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mills have returned from a three weeks' trip to California, where they attended the expositions.

The missionary department of the woman's union of the Congregational church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. J. Fry, 606 South High street. Mrs. H. L. Clark and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., will be assistant hostesses for the afternoon.

Mrs. J. Montelmo Brown, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Clark, entertained the three adult Sunday school classes of the Jason Lee Memorial church last evening, at her home on North Winter street. A business meeting, when the officers for the term were elected, was followed by a social hour, a program of musical numbers and readings being enjoyed. This afternoon the ladies' aid society of the church met at the home of Mrs. Brown.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Van Cleve, at Silverton, on North Second street, was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Sunday evening, when their daughter, Miss Minnie Belle Van Cleve and Ernal Cramer, a well known young engineer of that city, were united in marriage.

The house was tastefully decorated in ivy and autumn leaves except in the dining room where white flowers predominated. The bride looked charming in her going away gown of chiffon broad cloth and Miss Floy Hartman acted as bridesmaid. Alfred Williams attended the bridegroom and little Miss Wilda Van Cleve was flower girl wearing a dainty white frock and carrying a basket of flowers.

The young couple took their places under a large white bell suspended from an arch in one corner of the room. Rev. Allyn Eason officiated and the beautiful ring service was used, the little flower girl carrying the ring in the heart of a lily. A delicious three course dinner was served, in which Chinese peasants held the place of honor; and was only rivaled by the bride cake made for this occasion by the bridesmaid.

There were present only the near relatives and a few close friends of the contracting parties, the only out of town guest being Miss Elizabeth Downey, of Salem, an aunt of the bride. The bridegroom is an efficient young engineer in the employ of the Silverton Lumber company, and the bride is the daughter of W. R. Van Cleve, proprietor of the Van Cleve hotel, and is very popular in social circles.

The young couple left for Salem the same evening amid showers of rice and old shoes, and after a short honeymoon

JUDGE BUSHEY SAYS GRAND JURY REPORT IS "SPITE WORK"

Another Motive Behind Report Says Head of Marion County Court

Judge Bushey characterizes the report of the grand jury scoring the county court as "spite work" on the part of other parties who prefer to remain unknown but who are well known to the county court. Judge Bushey says further that since he asked District Attorney Ringo to bring a suit and the latter refused that he has not called upon the district attorney to perform any services at all for the county court and that he does not intend to.

The grand jury which reported late yesterday afternoon scored the county court for hiring outside attorneys in county cases and stated in the report that such expenses were unnecessary and were prompted "solely by the county court's deep antipathy for the district attorney." Judge Bushey said he went before the grand jury on another matter and at that time when questioned by some of the jurymen he told them that he did not consider the district attorney as competent as other lawyers in town and that it was cheaper for the county to hire outside attorneys and that he thought he was saving money by so doing.

The scrap between the county court and the district attorney began some time ago and when a damage suit was filed against the county an outside attorney was employed. The case went to the supreme court where it was held by the supreme court that the case should have been brought by the county attorney and not by the plaintiff. In the meantime another damage suit was filed by L. H. McManan and the plaintiff secured a judgment against the county in justice court by default when Mr. McManan quoted the decision of the supreme court showing that the county was not represented by the county attorney but by another attorney.

The county court was then obliged to ask the district attorney to reopen the case and Judge Bushey says that the county court was informed by Mr. Ringo that the case could not be re-opened unless Mr. McManan agreed to it. Judge Bushey contends that the court is to rule upon such matters and not the attorney for the plaintiff and the matter rests at this status.

The full report of the grand jury follows:

To the Honorable Percy B. Kelly, circuit judge:

In addition to the indictments returned we the grand jury beg to submit the following report in investigating certain reports and complaints of unnecessary and extravagant expenditures of county funds by the county court in the employment of special counsel to see legal work that rightfully should be performed by the district attorney's office.

The grand jury finds that the county court has on several occasions ignored the district attorney's office and employed other attorneys to represent the county in suits brought against the county at quite a heavy expense to the county which in the opinion of the grand jury was wholly unnecessary and was prompted solely by the county court's deep antipathy to the district attorney's office.

Since the grand jury's close association with and through investigation of the district attorney's office we are fully convinced that he has stood ready and willing at all times and is thoroughly able and competent to attend to all legal matters of the county that rightly belong to his office.

Therefore the grand jury would recommend that the district attorney take the necessary legal steps to compel the county court to refund to the county treasury the money wrongfully expended in the employment of special counsel and would recommend that the county court discontinue the practice of needless employment of special counsel.

Chinese Cook Must Give Way to 'Mellican Man' Says Labor Commissioner

Chinese laborers will be obliged to confine their operations to the land clearing jobs suggested by Governor Withycombe in his campaign speeches if the law as interpreted by Labor Commissioner Hoff is upheld in the courts. According to Mr. Hoff the port of Portland is employing Chinese laborers as cooks and flunkies on public works now going on in Portland. A law passed in 1875 makes it unlawful to employ Chinese labor on public works except as punishment for crime, etc.
