W. U. PREPARES TO MEET BAILEY'S TEAM OF ALBANY COLLEGE

Coach Matthews Is Reducing the Bumps and Sprains Made by O. A. C.

The Willamette university football squad is being put through its paces this week by Coach Matthews to round them into shape for Saturday's game with Albany college team. The W. U. squad is still stiff and sore from the mauling administered by the O. A. C. linemen. Outriggered, outwheeled and outplayed, the Willamette boys fought to the last ditch but the O. A. C. mammoth piled up an enormous score and left Willamette bruised and crippled with only a week to come back in.

Hendricks, one of the most reliable backfieldmen is limping around today with a sore foot and Stam has a charley horse that has become also a night mare. Gates, a regular end is hobbling along on a bad leg and a number have those little "Job's comforters." Boils are distressing things when once they attack a football team. No husky football player likes to admit that he is bothered by such a small ornament as a boil but when he has one and someone finds it with a knee or an elbow in a scrimmage there is lots of tall language and a boil becomes a serious injury.

The boys are doing lots of light fast work this week and by Saturday all of the soreness and stiffness will have been worked out and the team that begins the attack on the Albany college team will not stop for charley horses, boils or even football players.

The Salem lads expect a good tough game and there is not the slightest doubt but that they will be accommodated if the tales from the Albany camp may be believed. Willamette is going after the non-conference championship this year with a vim and in spite of their setback at the hands of O. A. C. they promise to shine in their class.

Thiel, Hendricks, Clinton, Archibald and Flegel will complete the backfield. Flegel has been shifted to quarter by Coach Matthews who believes he will be able to utilize Flegel's experience and football knowledge to a better advantage in the pivotal position. Irvin who has been playing this position is too young and inexperienced to fill in at the job this year and although he is a fast man he lacks the experience necessary to develop the greatest efficiency out of the team as a scoring machine.

Raymond Archibald will be used as center Saturday with Walmer, Peterson and Spiess in the guard positions and Mann, Tobey or Fletcher as tackles. Miller, Randall and Grallop will handle the end positions.

Albany college is attempting a come back in the gridiron sport and has engaged Edward Bailey, of Portland to coach the team this year. Bailey was a star on the Eugene high school team and then played four years on the University of Oregon team, three of which he was selected as all-northwest tackle. Bailey has been doing wonders with the Albany man according to reports from their training camp and the team that lines up against the Willamette team Saturday will be by far the best team that has represented the Prosbyterians for years.

O. A. C. LINE WEAK

Portland, Or., Oct. 6.—With the first conference game of the year just four days distant and the Oregon Aggie line still full of good sized loopholes through which a heavy set of backfield men could pile without much effort, Coach Stewart is driving his men hard in the hopes of getting his machine perfected as far as possible before they tackle Coach Borleske's fast going Whitman Eleven. The Walla Walla college team surprised northwest football class last year when they threw an awful scare into the Multnomah club veterans holding them to one touchdown. The winged M. beat the Oregon university by two touchdowns to one.

Phillies Gain Minor Advantages Over Red Sox

By George E. Holmes.
(United Press staff correspondent.)
New York, Oct. 6.—The Phillies are getting a little the best of the pre-world's series breaks. This may or may not amount to anything in the big games which start Friday.

Not only will they play the first two games on their own lot amid familiar surroundings, with the short field walls and other peculiarities, but they will have a day's rest before the great battles open. They wind up their schedule today with a double-header at home. But the Red Sox still have three games in New York, with no chance of playing before hand in the Phillies' park. Possibly, however, they will have a chance to investigate all corners of it, when Gabby Cravath goes to bat.

Moran is perplexed. Grover Cleveland Alexander has not worked since he clinched the pennant last week. Moreover, Alce thrives on work. If he starts today, he will have only a day's rest before Friday. The weather probabilities are uncertain. Philadelphia forecasters swear that it will be cool with probably showers Friday. On the other hand, the Washington prophet says it will be warm and fair.

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—Chick Autrey, first baseman of the Minneapolis club, will replace Paul Molan at first today when the Seals take the field against the Tigers. Autrey had a non-reserve contract, and was signed by Wolverton yesterday.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 6.—Walter Laverens, of the Oaks, has been turned back to the St. Louis Americans because of failure to make good with the locals, it became known today.

Pittsburg, Oct. 6.—A sharp contest was in sight today when President Gwinner, of the Pittsburg Federals, left for New York for Pittsburg's rights to Federal league championship. He claims that Pittsburg by winning the first games of the Sunday double-header from the Whales, captured the pennant and that the second game should not have been played, as it was postponed from Pittsburg.

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 6.—The re-entry of the University of California into the American style of football has resulted in California being flooded with offers of games after the present season closes. Graduate Manager Stroud declared today. Rolla School of Mines, in Missouri, the Universities of Utah, Oregon, Colorado and others have asked for games.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Is Worth Saving, and Some Salem People Know How to Save It.

Many Salem people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Salem citizen's recommendation:

W. C. Johnston, gardener, 1021 Mill street, Salem, says: "After several medicines had failed to help me, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and got great relief from kidney and bladder trouble. I still use Doan's Kidney Pills once in a while when a cold settles in my back and kidneys and the kidney secretions become disordered. I always get quick relief. You may continue publishing the endorsement I have given Doan's Kidney Pills before."

PREPARE FOR NEXT FAIR.

(Roseburg News.)
School Superintendent O. C. Brown returned last night from Salem where he has been attending the state fair. Mr. Brown stated that a great deal of interest was taken in the school exhibits in which Douglas county took third prize, standing only a few points below first place and only two points below second. The exhibits were well placed and those who had the matter in charge deserve a great deal of praise. Superintendent Brown said this morning that the work of organizing the industrial work for next year's display would be begun at once and that next year Douglas county was going to take first place if possible. The work during the future year will be similar to the past and all pupils are asked to co-operate in the work.

THICK FOG IN FRISCO

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—The thickest fog in 12 years practically tied up shipping on the bay for several hours early today. Few small steamers from river points entered the harbor and fewer left until the mantle of fog had lifted. The steamer Mandalay was reported waterlogged off Crescent City. The steamer Santa Clara went ashore at Alcatraz island during the fog last night, but floated fifteen minutes later.

PRELIMINARY STEPS TAKEN ON TAX BUDGET

Other Meetings Will Be Necessary Before Final Budget Is Prepared

The preliminary skirmishing to formulate the city tax budget began last night at the city hall when the heads of the various departments of the city council met to prepare a tentative budget to be presented to the council. No definite decision was reached at last night's meeting and it will be necessary to hold another one or two before the budget is in shape to present to the city council. After it has been adopted by the city council it will be turned over to the people and a public meeting held at which the budget will be discussed and some changes may be made in it before it is made the basis for the computation of the city tax levy.

No definite amounts were settled at last night's meeting and the heads of the departments simply made their wants known and before final action is taken it will be necessary to prune down several of the amounts asked for in order that it may be made to conform to a reasonable tax levy. Some of the departments will need more money than last year and others less but it is estimated that the budget will be slightly larger than last year on account of the increased business of the city.

Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

Eckman's Alternative has restored to health many sufferers from lung trouble. Read what it did in this case:—

Wilmington, Del.
"Gentlemen—In January, 1905, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, a leading practitioner, said that it was lung trouble. I got very weak. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott's Department Store, recommended Eckman's Alternative that had done great good. I began taking it at once. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life."
