RALPH YOHU STABBED IN FRIENDLY SCUFFLE

Lad of 14 Years Plunges His Own Knife Into His Chest While Playing

Stabbed by his own knife in a friendly scuffle, Ralph Yohu, the 14 year old son of Mrs. Letitia Yohu, of 1288 State street, appears to have recovered from the shock today and the physicians predict that he will recover permanently unless some unforeseen complications arise. Young Yohu was playing with some boys of his own age on State street last night when they engaged in a scuffle for the possession of a box of cookies. The boys had been eating the cookies and had left some in the box when the final scuffle for the remainder began.

Ralph Yohu had been whittling and held the open knife in his left hand and the cookie box in his right. Apparently he was preparing to throw the box to one of his companions when one of the boys was shoved by another boy toward Yohu. Ralph put up his left hand to steady himself and he and himself and when the shoulder of the boy who was off of his balance hit Yohu the knife was driven into Yohu's chest over the apex of the heart. The knife shows blood stains for an inch and one half along the blade and it is probably possible that it penetrated to this depth into the cavity of the heart.

Last night he was suffering from the shock and internal hemorrhages but this forenoon he seems to have recovered from the shock and is again resting easily. He was bleeding freely last night and was advised by his companions to hurry home. He walked the distance and fell at his own front gate. The police and a physician were called. The police questioned the boys who were playing at the time but it was evident that there was no quarrel and the accident happened in a friendly scuffle. Among the boys who were present at the time were Roy Anderson, Charles Chung, Osborne Maplethorpe and Sam Plummer. Arthur Yohu, an older brother of Ralph Yohu, was drowned in Mill creek about three months ago while swimming.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

"This is a clear case of fraud as both sides claim fraud on the part of the other and it could not be a clearer case of fraud," said Attorney Walter Winslow in his opening statement to the jury in the case of C. D. Fuitts against William Psetak (which was called in department No. 1 of the circuit court this morning). It appears that Psetak owned 160 acres of land in Washington some miles from Goldendale. Psetak traded his land to Fuitts for a house and lot in Independence. Fuitts claims that Psetak said the land was worth $4500 and that 7 tons of hay per acre had been raised on the land which was free from taxes except about five acres and that it had good buildings on it. The plaintiff asked damages in the sum of $2300 which was the real worth of the 160 acres. The defendant Psetak claims that Fuitts told him that the Independence property was worth $4500 and that it was encumbered by a mortgage. In fact both sides to the controversy said uncomplimentary things about the other's integrity and the jury is expected to settle the matter late this afternoon. Smith and Shields represent the defendant.

Frank O. Bishop pleaded guilty in department No. 1 of the circuit court this morning to a charge of living with Anna Sines as man and wife without being lawfully married. He was given a sentence of six months in jail and then paroled from the bench by Judge Kelly upon his promise to be good in the future, and in view of the fact that he has been in the county jail since August 8. He was represented by Attorney J. P. Kuntz.

Herbert Merithew pleaded not guilty to a crime alleged to have been committed in the penitentiary and his case will be set for trial later in the term. Attorney Elmo White was appointed by Judge Kelly to defend Merithew.

Roy Fakuda, charged with selling liquor without a license to Frank McCormick and to Roy Coville, a minor, entered a plea of not guilty in the circuit court today and will be brought to trial later in the present term. Yohu Katakai also charged with selling liquor without a license was indicted on five counts and charged with selling liquor to P. W. Landers, Ray McCormick, a minor, Roy Coville, a minor, A. J. Pruitt and Frank McCormick. Katakai entered a plea of not guilty.

The case of Carl Faushe and Alex Pauke against Ernest Naftiger went out on a motion for nonsuit made by the defendant in department No. 1 of the circuit court yesterday evening and the plaintiff was granted 10 days in which to file a motion for a new trial. This was an action for damages alleged to have been sustained by the defendant's swine rooting up a crop of potatoes belonging to the plaintiffs. W. C. Winslow appeared for the plaintiff and Carson & Brown for the defendant.

The suit brought by R. S. Tandy against A. C. Libby, an action to collect money alleged due for commission on the sale of real estate, was resumed on motion of the defendant in department No. 1 of the circuit court yesterday afternoon.

The jurk in the case of Fuitts vs. Psetak which is being tried in the circuit court today was taken to Independence this afternoon to view the premises which were exchanged for the 160 acre farm belonging to Psetak and located in Washington. The case will be resumed when the jury returns to Salem this afternoon.

Strahorn Would Build Independent Railroad Through Eastern Oregon

Portland, Oct. 8.—Portland businessmen and financiers were enthusiastic today over the plans of Robert E. Strahorn to build 400 miles of railroad in central Oregon which will connect all existing lines in the state's interior. Strahorn's project includes: A road from Bend to Klamath Falls, connecting with the O. W. R. & N. and the Oregon trunk at Bend. A road from Silver Lake to Lakeview, connecting with the proposed Bend-Klamath line at Silver Lake, and with the Nevada, California and Oregon railroad at Lakeview. A road from a point between Bend and Silver Lake eastward to connect with the O. W. R. & N. company's extension now being built westward from Vale.

The lines, according to Strahorn's plans, which were outlined to a large number of Portland representative businessmen late yesterday, will be built by independent capital at a cost of $6,000,000, but will have the co-operation of the railroads with which they will connect.

committed at a hop yard last month pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Kelly this afternoon and sentence will be imposed at 7:30 this evening. The defendant will ask for a parole from the bench and the matter will be heard by Judge Kelly at the evening session. Donald W. Miles is attorney for the defendant. Mrs. Harding was locked up in the county jail this afternoon pending further disposition of the case.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk today to Ernest Alfred Hunt, a musician of this city, and Kathleen Price, also of Salem. The wedding will be held in St. Paul's Episcopal church, October 20.

Oregon Electric Railway and Products Show

The Oregon Electric railway has published attractive round trip fares from all points to the Manufacturers' and Land Products show at Portland, and general interest in the event is aroused through the announcement that floor space for displays of products of the soil will be free this year. This fact is being impressed upon communities seeking to exploit their resources before the many thousands of strangers passing through Portland en route to and from the California exposition.

The Land Show's popularity is established as an agency of promotion. The Portland Chamber of Commerce is back of the enterprise. As the show is held October 25th to November 13th when all county and district fares are over the cream of the agricultural and horticultural wealth of the county will be shown.

More than 50,000 square feet of exhibit space will be filled with exhibits from the factory, field and forest. The railway representatives state that many cities and towns in the northwest will have special days at the exhibition and others are invited to celebrate here.

There is to be one grand for the best county display, special awards for apple and potato displays and awards for the best individual farm exhibits.

WILL CONFER PALLIUM

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—The insignia of office of an archbishop, the pallium, will be conferred on Archbishop Edw. J. Hanna, with all the ceremony of the Catholic church, on Sunday, October 17. Owing to the European war, the usual custom of having the pallium brought from Rome by an apostolic delegation was dispensed with at the time of the installation of Archbishop Hanna. A pontifical mass will be celebrated in connection with the ceremony.

Young men naturally want clothes that are a trifle more "kinky" than their fathers'. The new English effects with wide lapels, close fitting, and with cuff bottom trousers, appeal to the young fellow—and very properly.

The tailor or the clothier who simply uses men's patterns cut down, is tabooed by the boys.

The fact that our young men's clothes are a little "sporty" naturally makes this store attractive to the brightest boys.

Two Children Burned To Death With House

Needles, Cal., Oct. 8.—While the frantic father and mother stood helpless, listening to the dying shrieks of their little ones, the two children of J. Martin, rancher, burned to death here today. Their mother was probably fatally scorched trying to rescue them.

Martin was awakened by the cries of his daughter, 7, and his son, 4. A wall of flame barred him from their bedroom. After a vain effort to dash through it, Martin fell almost unconscious from burns and suffocation. His wife threw herself headlong into the fire as she dropped senseless. Martin carried her to safety. Soon the flames stifled the cries of the children.

Egyptienne LUXURY CIGARETTES

CORK TIP CIGARETTES

In the NEW FLAT BOX with protective inner foil and outer linen paper wrapper.

15 Cents

"Luxury" quality in the new flat box has BRIDGED THE GAP between 15 Cent cigarettes and 25 Cent cigarettes.

"Luxury" quality is challenging 25 Cent brands of long established reputation—and if you will buy just one of the new flat boxes you will quickly know the REASON WHY.

We ask for critical comparison of "Luxury", with any other brand of Turkish-Egyptian Cigarettes, not merely with 15 Cent brands, but with most 25 Cent brands.

Don't pay 25 Cents for cigarettes until you have tried "Luxury" Quality in the NEW FLAT BOX.

Margarites Makers of the Highest Grade Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World.

No other 15 Cent Cork Tip Turkish-Egyptian Cigarette approaches "Luxury". This is fact. S.A.
