KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

Then that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

CHURCHILL PREPARES LIST OF BOOKS FOR TEACHERS OF STATE

Reading Course Instituted Last Year Enlarged for Teachers of 1915

A reading circle course for the teachers of Oregon has just been prepared by Superintendent of Public Instruction J. A. Churchill.

The reading circle course is much more complete than any that has previously been issued by the state department of Education.

The list of books is larger and practically all of them are new, most of them having been copyrighted in 1914 and 1915.

Each book is fully described, so that teachers may select those which will be of the greatest assistance to them in their work.

Following is the list of books selected, the name of the author preceding the title:

Bagley: School Discipline; Charters; Teaching the Common Branches; Cook: Domestic Art in Woman's Education; Crshaw: Manual Arts for Vocational Ends; Cromwell: Agriculture and Life; Davis: Vocational and Moral Guidance; Earhart: Types of Teaching; Foster: The Social Emergency; Hart: Educational Resources of Village and Rural Communities; Monroe: Principles of Secondary Education; Morgan: The Backward Child; Monroe: New Demands in Education; Parker: Methods of Teaching in High School Subjects; Strayer: A Brief Course in the Teaching Process; Strayer & Thorndike: Educational Administration; Sherman: Food Products; Swift: Learning and Doing; Terman: The Hygiene of the School Child; Thompson: Commercial Education in Public and Secondary Schools.

By William Philip Stimmis. Paris, Oct. 11.—Fighting between Bulgarians and Serbians massed in their frontiers is momentarily expected. The allies continue to land troops as fast as possible at Salonika and are pushing their way to Serbia.

A hundred thousand Serbians are concentrated on the Bulgaria frontier, including 20,000 along the Guevgherit-Stranitzka railroad.

Belgrade is completely in the hands of the Germans. The city for several weeks had been deserted by civilians, but the garrison fought bravely in the streets although it was too weak to last long. The town is badly damaged.

Bear Guard Actions Only. London, Oct. 11.—Serbian forces, following up the same lines they pursued successfully months since, are retiring from the fallen city of Belgrade toward the mountains.

There, it is regarded likely, they will make a stand against the Teuton invaders, but whether they will be able to hurl them back with the terrific slaughter which marked the previous battle it is considered doubtful.

The Teutons are throwing heavy forces into the pursuit, and undoubtedly will profit from their other costly experience.

Bear guard actions are proceeding, but a big engagement is not anticipated for some days. The allies continue to land forces for Serbia's aid, and are pushing them forward as rapidly as possible.

Allies representatives are trying to induce Greece to answer definitely regarding her future course toward the Serbian-Greecian alliance. Meantime, however, she is maintaining her position of "benevolent neutrality."

Two city districts were wrecked entirely in the Austro-German capture of Belgrade. Six thousand shells were thrown into the city. From Belgrade, the Teutons pushed steadily on, all reports indicated, but authorities hope that Serbian claims of a victory on the Drina are true. Germany, however, denied them.

Germans Advancing. Berlin, via London, Oct. 11.—"Further battles" in the Teuton invasion of Serbia have developed along the Drina, it was officially announced today.

We were officially announced today. Sabar and Gradiste, and captured Zarkowa and the Mirijevo heights south of Belgrade. We took prisoner 1556 Serbians and 17 cannon.

Bulgarian Ministers Leave. London, Oct. 11.—Bulgarian ministers and their staffs have left the allied capitals.

Sunk by Submarine. London, Oct. 11.—The British vessel Thorpwood, 3184 tons, has been sunk by a submarine, but her crew was saved, it was officially announced today.

Eleven members of the crew of the German steamship Lulea, torpedoed by a British submarine, off Gjedzer have been landed there. An unidentified steamer picked up the remaining eleven.

Snow Follows Heat. Denver, Col., Oct. 11.—Following the warmest October Sunday on record, a heavy snowfall was general over the Rocky mountains region today. The storm was so bad here that it was scarcely possible to see a flock away.

The Same Old Story of the Unloaded Gun

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 11.—Mary Sayan, 5-1/2 years of age, is hovering between life and death today, and her brother, Arnold, 11 years of age, sits weeping by her bedside. The girl has a bullet wound in her head, and the doctor says she cannot live.

Sunday Arnold found a rusty revolver in a bureau drawer and called his sister. As the girl entered the room, he playfully commanded her to hold up her hands.

"Cheer, to make it realistic, he pressed the trigger.

STUDENT BODY ACTIVITIES. Last week was a busy one at Willamette university, as far as election of officers for the different departments of student body activities was concerned.

Sophomores—Erol Proctor, president; Gertrude Cunningham, vice-president; Lucile Jaskoski, secretary, and Leola Lee, treasurer. The Criterion Literary society of the academy has elected the following officers: George Lewis, '15, president; Lynn Lonsberry, '15, vice-president; Mary Findley, '15, secretary; John Woodfin, special treasurer, and H. J. Hickerson, special, sergeant-at-arms. All the elections are for the first semester only.

SCHOOL STARTS IN DISTRICT 33. School opened Monday morning in the Evans Valley school, district No. 33, with Miss Hilda Nerison in charge.

The school starts off under favorable conditions. The enrollment is about 30 pupils. Lewis Anderson, clerk of the district, stated in an appeal reporter that he was satisfied that the year would be one of profit to all the pupils.

The school was painted both inside and out preparatory to opening.—Silverton Appeal.

HONORS FOR GALLANT SAILOR. Portland, Or., Oct. 11.—Memorial services for George Deoth of Oregon City, who went to his death on the submarine F-4 in Honolulu harbor last spring were held here Sunday.

Relatives and hundreds of friends attended the services.

Death's body, with those of other victims of the F-4 was buried in Arlington cemetery at Washington, September 28.

PORTLAND DRESSES UP. Portland, Ore., Oct. 11.—"Dress Up Week" began in Portland today and everybody is supposed to completely fit themselves out for the winter.

Retail stores have prepared extraordinary bargains and displays of everything in the way of wearing apparel.

Dancing in the street will be held tonight in honor of the occasion.

Philadelphia North American: One of the associated military experts came around to say that if the allies capture Lens they will have a look in. That will be a fine spectacle.
