

The Daily Capital Journal

FULL LEASED
WIRE DISPATCHES

CIRCULATION IS
OVER 4000 DAILY

THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1915

PRICE TWO CENTS ON TRAINS AND NEWS
STANDS—FIVE CENTS

BOSTON NOW HAS THREE GAMES AT ITS BELT

GERMAN MORALE SHAKEN IS CLAIMED BY FRENCH

Say Germans Have Been Compelled to Draw Heavily From Eastern Front To Face French and British -- 25,000 Prisoners Captured, Representing 92 Regiments--246 Pieces of Abandoned Artillery Are Taken

Paris, Oct. 12.—In the face of recent German denials, the French war office has on record today as declaring Germany had hastily hurled additional troops into the western front fighting. These included even members of the guard withdrawn from the eastern front, said an official statement.

The German morale has been shaken, the statement added. Twenty-five thousand German prisoners, it was claimed, had fallen into French hands, along with 246 pieces of abandoned artillery. Included in the prisoners in the Ardennes and Champagne regions were men from 92 different regiments, which the war office concluded meant Germany had hastened men from everywhere into the west front struggle.

The statement claimed French success in some consolidation moves, while elsewhere the Germans had effected no results.

Aviation Station Wrecked.

Amsterdam, Oct. 12.—All German hangars and their contents at the Ghent aviation grounds have been destroyed in an allied aeroplane raid, according to the Echo Belge today.

On both the eastern and western fronts, birdmen have been particularly busy in the past day or two. Official reports last night told of several attacks. Berlin claimed to have brought down four enemy aeroplanes while the British statement told of 11 air fights.

French Held Their Gains.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The French forces hold their gains in heavy fighting which continued last night around Sonchez and the LaFolle heights, said today's official communique.

BULGARIA ATTACKS SERBIANS AT LAST

After Months of Dodging Bulgaria Is At Last Forced to Take Decisive Action

London, Oct. 12.—After days of doubt as to what Bulgaria actually intended in the Balkan tangle, her forces have delivered a blow against Serbia at Garoghaz near Serbian Knaizevatz, about 30 miles from Nish, according to dispatches from Athens today. This is on the railroad the allies must traverse from Salonika if they help the Serbians resist the Teuton advance. The dispatch declared two Bulgarian divisions crossed the frontier at Garoghaz.

Meantime, on the northern frontier, Field Marshal von Mackensen's 150,000 Teutons are still advancing southward, and also toward Nish for a junction with the Bulgarians.

The Serbians are reported resisting this advance, but it is believed they are only trying to delay the Teuton drive long enough to give the allies time to come to their rescue.

While the Teuton crossing of the Danube has been successful, the Serbians claim the enemy has not managed to reach the Serbian banks of the Save and Drina. Hard fighting is reported at both rivers.

Bulgarians Repulsed.

London, Oct. 12.—All Bulgarian attacks have been repulsed thus far, the Serbian legation today announced. They said the Bulgarian invasion began Monday night.

Both Big Teams To Come To the Coast

Boston, Oct. 12.—The national commission about noon decided to allow the Red Sox and Phillies to go on a tour to the Pacific coast immediately following the close of the present series. They will play Chicago, Omaha, Denver and other western cities. It is planned to have the clubs play in San Francisco the last Saturday in October.

President Tamm of the National League said: "Details will be worked out within a few days."

COMMISSIONER DOES NOT LIKE NATIONALISM

Iowa Railroad Commissioner Says States Have Originated Most Regulations

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Holding that too much "nationalism" is just as wrong as too much "states rights," President Clifford Thorne, of the Iowa railroad commission today told the National Association of Railway Commissioners there is a happy medium, and contended for maintenance of the system of state railroad regulation in conjunction with federal regulation.

Calling attention to a growing tendency toward nationalism, with abolition of state lines, Thorne declared: "If the national government is permitted to gradually absorb those functions formerly exercised by the states it will only be a question of time until some great evil will demand some great remedy. Agitation will follow agitation. There will be no opportunity to try out the new proposal; the nation as a whole must adopt it or reject it. Those will be trying times when the foresight of the best of us will differ and the future of this American system will be at stake. It would be wise for us to weigh well the advantages of that which we have before exchanging it for that which we have not. We believe that the federal plan as conceived by our fathers is better than the new nationalism. We believe the states are a distinct factor in our scheme of government. This in our scheme of government, this federal plan is a sort of safety valve against political and industrial revolution."

Practically every important advance step in the regulation of railroads, corporations and great consolidations, he said, has originated with the states.

Spanish Red Tape Longer Than Prevailing American Styles For This Year

The Spaniard's affinity for red tape evidently extends to red tape, according to a list of legal documents received at the office of the state industrial accident commission today. Ylaro Berazalze was killed in a saw mill at White Pine some time ago and was buried and as promptly forgotten but over in Spain his record was kept officially from the time he first said "da" or whatever the Spanish youngsters call it in Castilian.

At the office of the commission today are seven sets of legal documents bearing $14 worth of American consular stamps and 28 pages of depositions to prove that the deceased had a widow living in Spain. Three Spanish judges signed three sets of papers, one a deposition from the widow, one a record of the births of both the deceased and his widow and their marriage record signed by the judge, and one the deposition of the judge who affirms that the records are official and all are written in Spanish and must be translated before the commissioners are able to accept them.

Ylaro Berazalze, who caused all of the trouble had his arm torn off in the conveyor from the edge in a sawmill of the White Pine Lumber company and died from the shock leaving a widow and three children in Spain. The amounts have not been estimated by the commission because the records have not yet been translated and reduced to plain "United States."

Bill For Big Loan Before House of Commons

London, Oct. 12.—The bill providing ratification of the American half billion dollar loan to the allies was introduced in the house of commons tonight.

Chancellor of the Exchequer McKenna explained the loan is necessary to balance exchange, inasmuch as America imports the past six months have increased $292,000,000 while exports to America decreased $60,000,000. These figures did not include government supplies.

He defended the terms of the loan, saying the American rate is generally higher than the English rate.

THE DIVA LIKED HIM.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Because Mrs. Melba liked Professor Uda Waldrop's interpretation of how Cavalleria Rusticana would sound in rag time, he is the first American pianist ever engaged by her as accompanist on a concert tour. After filling twenty engagements in California, Melba will go east.

BODY NOT RECOVERED

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 12.—Divers from the U. S. S. San Diego early today failed in their efforts to locate the body of Lieutenant Walter Taliaferro, United States army aviator, who fell to his death into the bay from a biplane yesterday.

WAR NEWS OF ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Ostend's fall to Germany threatened, London and Paris admitted. Havre, France, was under Belgian government headquarters and Ostend's populace hurried in boats to England.

French advances were reported at Berry-au-Bac, French center, with slight advances in the Meuse and Argonne regions and the loss of Lille to the Germans.

Germany reported violent Aronne fighting, repulse of the French Soissons attacks and the taking of Hazebrack and Ypres. Allied Vovre victories claimed, were denied.

Russia said Przemysl withdrawal was "strategic." Germany claimed to hold all western Russian Poland except Warsaw. A Russian-Austro-German Vistula battle was predicted.

A Kiao-Chan, Jap-German armistice was declared while the dead were buried. German feeling caused martial law to be declared in the union of South Africa.

CHINA WOULD CONTROL TRADE OF THE PACIFIC

Chinese Mail Steamship Company Will Fight Japs For Ocean Service

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—China, through her influential merchants, today loomed up as a strong contender for the Pacific freight and passenger trade with Japan. With the announced intention of taking away from Japanese bottoms as much trans-Pacific trade as possible, the Chinese Mail Steamship company has purchased the former Pacific Mail line China from the Atlantic Transport company, as the nucleus for a fleet, which soon will be one of the largest on the Pacific.

The Chinese Mail is backed entirely by Chinese of the United States and southern China. It will establish an extensive service between San Francisco, Honolulu, Nagasaki, Manila and Hongkong.

Invaders Checked Except At Belgrade

Nish, via London, Oct. 12.—Hurled back at many points along the Danube Save and Drina, the Austro-German invaders of Serbia are not progressing except at Belgrade and vicinity. Along the Danube, they had been repulsed between Flawa and the Morava river mouth. When they attempted a crossing between Smederevo and Godomins, they were repulsed.

The Serbians again took Dedjonte, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

CHASED FOR 12,000 MILES.

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 12.—After a flight of 12,000 miles through America and Canada, Rollic A. York, 30, wanted in California for alleged counterfeiting in 1914, was today following his roundup by Secret Service Agent Thomas Callaghan of the Salt Lake district.

Another member of the same gang was arrested in Ohio yesterday and both will be taken to California for trial. Both, it is alleged, specialized in $5 gold coin of fine workmanship. Thousands of dollars, it is claimed, was circulated by them on the Pacific coast.

WOLGAST WON DECISION.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 12.—Ad Wolgast today has another of the "comebacks" behind him in his attempt to climb back to his former eminence. He won a decision from Gene Delmont of Memphis in an eight round bout last night.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Wednesday, occasional rain in west, increasing cloudiness; probably showers east portion; southerly winds.

BIG PORTLAND BANK SWALLOWS ANOTHER

Northwestern National Bank Plans To Absorb the Merchants Nat'l Tomorrow

Portland, Ore., Oct. 12.—Plans for the absorption of the Merchants' National bank by the Northwestern National bank are announced here today. The change will take place tomorrow.

With the addition of the resources of the Merchants' National, the Northwestern will have deposits of approximately $8,000,000, and a reserve of $2,910,000, according to figures submitted to the comptroller of currency at the time of his last call in September.

The organization of the Northwestern National will remain the same, and some officers of the Merchants' National will become officers of the Northwestern.

H. L. Pittcock is president of the Northwestern National bank.

Six Wives Will Face Charles George

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 12.—A "conviction of wives," alleged to have been married by Charles George, New Orleans clubman, is planned by District Attorney Zabel when George is given a preliminary hearing October 21, on charges preferred by Mrs. Mae Ritter-George.

Six "delegates" will represent various sections from New York to San Francisco, including Mrs. Albertina Jensen-George of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ida L. Austrian-George of San Francisco.

LOS ANGELES MURDER TRIAL MOVES SLOWLY

Only Five Jurors Passed and These Will Be Challenged Peremptorily Tomorrow

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 12.—Peremptory challenges will be exercised tomorrow against the five jurors temporarily passed for cause in the murder trial of M. A. Schmidt, alleged McNamara accomplice. All five are subject to removal by these peremptory challenges. The prosecution's first move will probably be against John H. Dean of Los Angeles, who said after being questioned that he believed the Times building was blown up by gas and not dynamite, despite the McNamara confession.

Questioning of talesmen by both sides at the present time seems directed largely toward ascertaining the prospective jurors' beliefs regarding the guilt or innocence of the McNamaras. Several veniremen who declared they believed the Schmidt take positive evidence to the contrary to convince them the Times building was not dynamited, were ousted by the defense.

No session of the trial was held today, as this is Columbus Day. Nine more jurors must be sworn before the first witness is called.

Columbus To Land At San Francisco Tonight

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Back in 1492, Christopher Columbus landed on the shores of America. Tonight an imitation Columbus with his fleet will land on the shores of the Marina as part of the exposition Columbus holiday. Special events were held today. Speakers included Samuel M. Shortridge, Mayor Rolph and the exposition president.

NINE OF HIS COUSINS KILLED

Portland, Ore., Oct. 12.—Nine cousins of Charles J. Schnabel, a prominent Portland attorney, have been killed in the European war while serving with the German army. Three lost their lives during September, he was advised by the German government today.

WIRELESS OPERATORS STRIKE

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Asking a minimum wage of $60 a month for first grade operators and $50 for assistants, the wireless operators union, on strike, has presented its demands to the Marconi company.

THE POPE WRITES SULTAN.

Rome, Oct. 12.—Pope Benedict has written personally to the sultan, protesting against the wholesale massacres of Armenians, the Correspondence said today.

PHILLIES, OUT BATTLED BY BEAN-EATERS, LOSE GAME

Quakers Played Good Ball, and In Six of the Innings Got Men On Bases But Failure To Wallop When Wallops Were Sorely Needed Sent Their Hopes of Winning Down Blow the Freezing Point

Philadelphia made a last ditch attack in the eighth inning and came near tying the count. But again it was the same old story of failure to wallop when wallops were needed. Two men were down when Gabby Cravath came up and hit a low liner to Speaker in center. Tris saw there was no chance to get it on the fly and set himself for the hop. It hopped all right but clear over his head and went bounding away into deep center while Cravath puffed his way around the bases, finally stopping at third. Fred Luderus then got his third hit of the game, another liner over second which scored Cravath.

THE PLAYERS' TAKEOFF

Boston, Mass., Oct. 12.—The world's series title will mean that $3,806.08 goes to each member of the winning team, and $2,537.58 to each of the losers, according to the best available figures this afternoon.

THE SCORE BY INNINGS.

	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Stock, 3b	0	1	0	0	0
Bancroft, ss	0	0	0	0	0
Parkert, cf	0	0	0	0	0
Cravath, rf	1	1	0	0	0
Luderus, lb	0	3	5	0	0
Whitted, lf & 1b	0	0	4	0	0
Niehoff, 2b	0	0	3	2	0
Burns, c	0	1	7	1	0
Chalmers, p	0	0	0	0	0
Duguey	0	0	0	0	0
Becker, lf	0	0	0	0	0
Bryne	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	1	7	24	10	0

—Run for Luderus in eighth.
*—Batted for Chalmers in ninth.

THE SCORE BY INNINGS.

	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Hooper, rf	0	1	2	0	0
Scott, ss	0	2	4	0	0
Speaker, cf	0	1	0	0	0
Hobbitel, lb	1	3	5	2	0
Lewis, lf	0	1	0	0	0
Gardner, 3b	0	0	2	0	0
Barry, 2b	1	0	3	0	1
Cauly, c	0	2	6	0	0
Shore, p	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	2	8	27	10	1

Runs and hits by innings:
Philadelphia 000 000 010-1
Base hits 110 101 120-7
Boston 001 001 002-2
Base hits 002 112 028-8
Summary: Three base hits, Cravath. Two base hits, Lewis. Sacrifice hits, Whitted, Shore, Lewis. Struck out by Chalmers, 6; by Shore, 4. Base on balls, 6; off Chalmers, 3; off Shore, 4. Runs recorded by Chalmers, 2; Shore, 1. Double plays, Scott to Barry to Hobbitel to Barry; Chalmers to Burns to Whitted. Time of game, 2:06. Umpires, Higler, Klem, Evans, O'Loughlin.

Official Figures.
Attendance, 41,006.
Gross receipts, $82,046.50.
Players' share, $44,305.11.
Clubs' share, $14,708.37.
Total players' share for four games, $145,899.55. This is divided 60 and 40 per cent between the players of the winning and losing teams. Twenty-three men on each team will share in the melon cut.

Chalmers was using a spitter which had Boston batters completely baffled. His two strike outs were clean ones.

Second: Philadelphia—Luderus up, ball one, foul, strike one. Luderus singled to right field. Whitted up, foul, strike one. Whitted sacrificed. Hobbitel to Barry. Barry covered. Niehoff up, foul, strike one. Niehoff fouled to Cauly. Burns up, ball one, ball two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one. Chalmers fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Chalmers was Shore's third strikeout victim. With a runner on second, Niehoff again failed to get a hit and his record for the series is still blank.

Boston—Hobbitel up, ball one, ball two, strike one, called; ball three, strike two, called. Hobbitel fanned. Niehoff up, foul, strike one, called; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one. Chalmers fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

By George Holmes (United Press staff correspondent.)
Braves' Field, Boston, Mass., Oct. 12.—Boston's onrushing Red Sox climbed to within one game of the world's baseball championship this afternoon, by defeating the Phillies in the fourth game of the series, 2 to 1, before a crowd that packed the mammoth new Braves' field.

Philadelphia's defeat is now a three-day-old story of failing to hit in the pinches.

In only three of the nine innings did Philadelphia fail to get men on bases, but each time her sluggers succumbed to the elusive slants of young Ernie Shore, who by his victory made up for his defeat in the opening game of the series. Lewis was again in the individual star, accepting six chances without a bobble and driving in Boston's second run. Batting honors for the day were equally divided between Fred Luderus the big Philadelphia first baseman and Dick Hiltzel, who operates around the same bag for the Carigrats club. Boston's first run came in the third inning on a combination of peculiar hits and circumstances. After Barry had walked, Cauly dumped a bunt toward Chalmers and George fell down while trying to field it. Shore sacrificed and Hooper got a freak single which scored Barry. The ball took a bad hop so Niehoff was setting for it and bounded clear over his head. Chalmers then steeled and forced Scott to fly to Whitted, Speaker to pop weakly to Luderus.

Boston's other run came in the sixth, when, after Speaker had died, Hobbitel pushed a low liner over second. Duffy Lewis then hit a terrific double into left field which carried on a line to within a few feet of the wall. Only remarkably fast work by Whitted kept the hit down to a double. Hobbitel scored standing.

Philadelphia made a last ditch attack in the eighth inning and came near tying the count. But again it was the same old story of failure to wallop when wallops were needed. Two men were down when Gabby Cravath came up and hit a low liner to Speaker in center. Tris saw there was no chance to get it on the fly and set himself for the hop. It hopped all right but clear over his head and went bounding away into deep center while Cravath puffed his way around the bases, finally stopping at third. Fred Luderus then got his third hit of the game, another liner over second which scored Cravath.

The Score by Innings.
First: Philadelphia—Stock up, ball one, strike one, called; strike two, called; ball two. Stock singled to left, and out at second, Lewis to Scott. Bancroft up, (Stock trying to stretch it), ball one, ball two, strike one, called; ball three, walked. Parkert up, ball one, strike one, called; foul, strike two; ball two, ball three, Bancroft stole second when Barry dropped the ball. Parkert fanned. Cauly touching him after dropping third strike. Cravath up, foul, strike one; strike two, called (Bancroft on third ball two). Cravath fanned. No runs, one hit, one error.
Shore had a close call on a roller from Cravath which went foul by inches.
Boston—Hooper up, ball one, strike one, called; ball two, strike two, called. Hooper fanned, swung. Scott up, strike one, called; foul, strike two; ball one, ball two, strike one, called. Scott fanned, swung. Speaker up, ball one, ball two, strike one, called. Speaker walked. Hobbitel up, strike one, called; Speaker out, stealing. Burns to Niehoff. No runs, no hits, no errors.
Chalmers was using a spitter which had Boston batters completely baffled. His two strike outs were clean ones.
Second: Philadelphia—Luderus up, ball one, foul, strike one. Luderus singled to right field. Whitted up, foul, strike one. Whitted sacrificed. Hobbitel to Barry. Barry covered. Niehoff up, foul, strike one. Niehoff fouled to Cauly. Burns up, ball one, ball two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one. Chalmers fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.
Chalmers was Shore's third strikeout victim. With a runner on second, Niehoff again failed to get a hit and his record for the series is still blank.
Boston—Hobbitel up, ball one, ball two, strike one, called; ball three, strike two, called. Hobbitel fanned. Niehoff up, foul, strike one, called; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one; ball one, strike two, foul, strike one. Chalmers fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.
By George Holmes (United Press staff correspondent.)
Braves' Field, Boston, Mass., Oct. 12.—Boston's onrushing Red Sox climbed to within one game of the world's baseball championship this afternoon, by defeating the Phillies in the fourth game of the series, 2 to 1, before a crowd that packed the mammoth new Braves' field.
Philadelphia's defeat is now a three-day-old story of failing to hit in the pinches.
In only three of the nine innings did Philadelphia fail to get men on bases, but each time her sluggers succumbed to the elusive slants of young Ernie Shore, who by his victory made up for his defeat in the opening game of the series. Lewis was again in the individual star, accepting six chances without a bobble and driving in Boston's second run. Batting honors for the day were equally divided between Fred Luderus the big Philadelphia first baseman and Dick Hiltzel, who operates around the same bag for the Carigrats club. Boston's first run came in the third inning on a combination of peculiar hits and circumstances. After Barry had walked, Cauly dumped a bunt toward Chalmers and George fell down while trying to field it. Shore sacrificed and Hooper got a freak single which scored Barry. The ball took a bad hop so Niehoff was setting for it and bounded clear over his head. Chalmers then steeled and forced Scott to fly to Whitted, Speaker to pop weakly to Luderus.
Boston's other run came in the sixth, when, after Speaker had died, Hobbitel pushed a low liner over second. Duffy Lewis then hit a terrific double into left field which carried on a line to within a few feet of the wall. Only remarkably fast work by Whitted kept the hit down to a double. Hobbitel scored standing.
Philadelphia made a last ditch attack in the eighth inning and came near tying the count. But again it was the same old story of failure to wallop when wallops were needed. Two men were down when Gabby Cravath came up and hit a low liner to Speaker in center. Tris saw there was no chance to get it on the fly and set himself for the hop. It hopped all right but clear over his head and went bounding away into deep center while Cravath puffed his way around the bases, finally stopping at third. Fred Luderus then got his third hit of the game, another liner over second which scored Cravath.
Fourth: Philadelphia—Luderus up, strike one, called; ball one. Luderus

(Continued on page two)