tio $68, and extended the company's contract with the state for the completion of the project until September 11, 1917. In consideration of this, the company

In consideration of this, the company will be required to increase the size of its reservoir, by adding to the beight of the dam under construction. There are 12,000 acres in the Paisley project of which 7,05s are unsold. The company will not be permitted to sell anymore of the land until the water rights are adjudicated.

Champion Teams Not To Visit Coast

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—The Phillies and Red Sox will not go to San Fran-cisco to play a series of seven games, Manager McRoy of the national commission announced this afternoon. The Phillies rejected the proposition when informed by the exposition manage-ment that the latter did not guarantee the players $15,000 as requested. Mc Roy's announcement followed a con ersation over the long distance teleix owner stated his team had takes

"Duncan Marshall is the best man I cever heard on an agricultural talk. I heard him sometime ago address the Chamber of Commerce of Portland and after he once got under headway, he neld the close attention of all for two hours. He is not only an interesting talker, but his suggestions are practical. He talks good common sense instead of theory."

This opinion as expressed by C. P. Bishop, of Mr. Marshall, is of special interest, as this speaker will deliver an address Saturday afternoon at 3:00 an address Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the armory, immediately following the anction sale at the Waring lawre on Liberty street. The speaker is minister of agriculture for the province of Alberta and will be in this part of the state to deliver an address at Corvallis next Monday. Those in charge of the market regard themselves as exceedingly fortunate in securing a man of Mr. Marshall's prominence for the opening market day.

Eighty-two million dollars of the country's revenue depend upon the decision of these cases, and even more would be involved if congress decided to increase the tax.

The special point of attack was the question of the present regulation whereby incomes below $3,000 a year are exempted. The appellants charged that this constitutes discrimination by classifying taxpayers on the basis of wealth.

Soliaitor General Davis for the success Crook county plans to build other roads with the same material.

Somettor General Davis, for the government, argued that congress clearly intended to touch lightly the classes with small income, and bear more heavily on large incomes.

"When the government raises money by taxes," he said, "it should not heave."

"Washington county, $7,000 for the game may have commission now has pledged out of the $233,000 in next p by taxes," he said, "it should not bear down oppressively and unjustly on any one class. Income taxation tends to shift the burden upward."
