

Social and Personal

CAROL S. DIRBLE

At a nicely appointed afternoon gathering Miss Hutcheon Cade, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Cade, of West Salem, announced her engagement to Albert Lindegar, of Hastings, Nebraska, the wedding to take place in November. Invitations for a social afternoon at the Cade home had been issued to about thirty-five friends residing in Salem, West Salem, and Salem Heights with the request that they bring sewing or fancy work. Cosmo and marlet Germaines were used effectively in the decoration of the living and dining rooms where the guests made merry and busied themselves with dainty needlework. Miss Beth Bedford added to the pleasure of the company by rendering several musical selections. In the late afternoon Miss Cade assisted by Miss Lydia Rex and Miss Margaret Munson served a dainty two-course luncheon. After which little Miss Helen Rex in dainty white costume presented to each guest the announcement cards which were hearts tied together with ribbon containing the initials of the parties. Those present were:

Mrs. D. Cade, Mrs. Joe Pennell, Mrs. Sarah J. Elliott, Mrs. J. W. Hunt, Mrs. Lydia Campbell, Mrs. M. J. Hunt, Mrs. J. D. Munson, Mrs. B. A. Hunt, Mrs. P. M. Moore, Mrs. Matilda White, Mrs. Arthur Rex, Mrs. Jane Wilson, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. John Engdahl, Mrs. Mary Smith Brannan, Mrs. Julia Brock, Mrs. Rebecca Bales, Mrs. Sarah Simon, Mrs. C. E. GERMANS ADMIT LOSS

Berlin, via London, Oct. 15.—Admission that the Russians "surrendered" was made in today's official statement.

CHAMPIONSHIP MAY BE DECIDED BY GAME

Aggies and Washington Each Have a Victory to Their Credit

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 15.—The Northwest conference football championship will practically be determined by the result of the Oregon Aggie-Washington state college game at Corvallis tomorrow. W. S. C. defeated the University of Oregon 25 to 3, a week ago, and as O. A. C. won from Whitman 34 to 7 on the same date the winner tomorrow will have a clean sweep to the honors held jointly by Washington and O. A. C. last year. Oregon teams Idaho at Eugene tomorrow. The teams appear evenly matched.

Gilmour Dobie's team remains idle tomorrow. The first big game is with Gonzaga university at Spokane, Oct. 20. Dobie has got Shiel, fullback, on the second team, and Almesworth, a fresh man, is taking his place. He threatens to replace Miller, his big halfback Brunson, a senior, is playing quarterback. Young's work having been unsatisfactory.

Date of Marriage Is Still Unknown

Washington, Oct. 15.—Arrival of Col. E. M. House of New York, at the White House gave fresh impetus today to speculation as to the date of the marriage of President Wilson to Mrs. Norman Galt. House, generally regarded as the president's closest personal friend, was mentioned as the executive's choice for best man, and it was understood he will aid the executive in arranging details for the ceremony.

While Mrs. Galt was reported busy arranging her trousseau competition was keen among the tailors of several cities to supply the president's wardrobe. Much of his clothing has been purchased in New York, hence it was regarded likely the metropolis would get this business order.

The president is understood to be planning to select a new summer residence, possibly in New Jersey, his home state, though Harlakenden close in the Cornish, N. H. pine has not yet been released.

Meantime, carpenters, decorators and painters are busy renovating the White House, making it spick and span for the occupancy of the new first lady of the land.

The president's secretary today called in the Washington society editors to discuss with them the matter of handling reports of the ceremony.

Another Billion Dollar Congress

Washington, Oct. 15.—The nation faces the certain prospect of another "billion dollar" congress.

Budget estimates compiled today indicate that the legislators will be asked to appropriate from $1,100,000,000 to $1,300,000,000. The treasury has a weekly deficit of about $500,000 and this must be met. A bond issue to make up this shortage, and to provide for the military preparedness program is under discussion.

Revision of the tariff, with continued duties on sugar is certain, and these are also discussed with regard to wool while officials hope that the revision will be the means of avoiding a bond issue.

Tillamook Prepares For Teachers' Institute

Programs announcing the annual teachers' institute for Tillamook county are being sent out by County School Superintendent W. S. Boel. The convention will be held in the high school building in Tillamook, beginning on October 18 and continuing three days.

The speakers from outside of the county are Frank E. Wilcox, assistant state superintendent of public instruction; M. S. Pittman, head of the rural school department of the Massachusetts Normal school; E. D. Bessler, department of industrial education of the Oregon Agricultural college; B. W. De Bock, extension division of the University of Oregon; Mrs. M. L. Falkerson, primary specialist, Salem, Oregon, and Mrs. Harriet Hickox Heller of the Boys' and Girls' Aid society, Portland.

"She Needs Me" Says Forgiving Husband

Shreveport, La., Oct. 15.—Though a month ago she and her children fled to Canada with J. C. Bransford, a prominent insurance man, Mrs. Moreau was back today with her husband and had his full forgiveness.

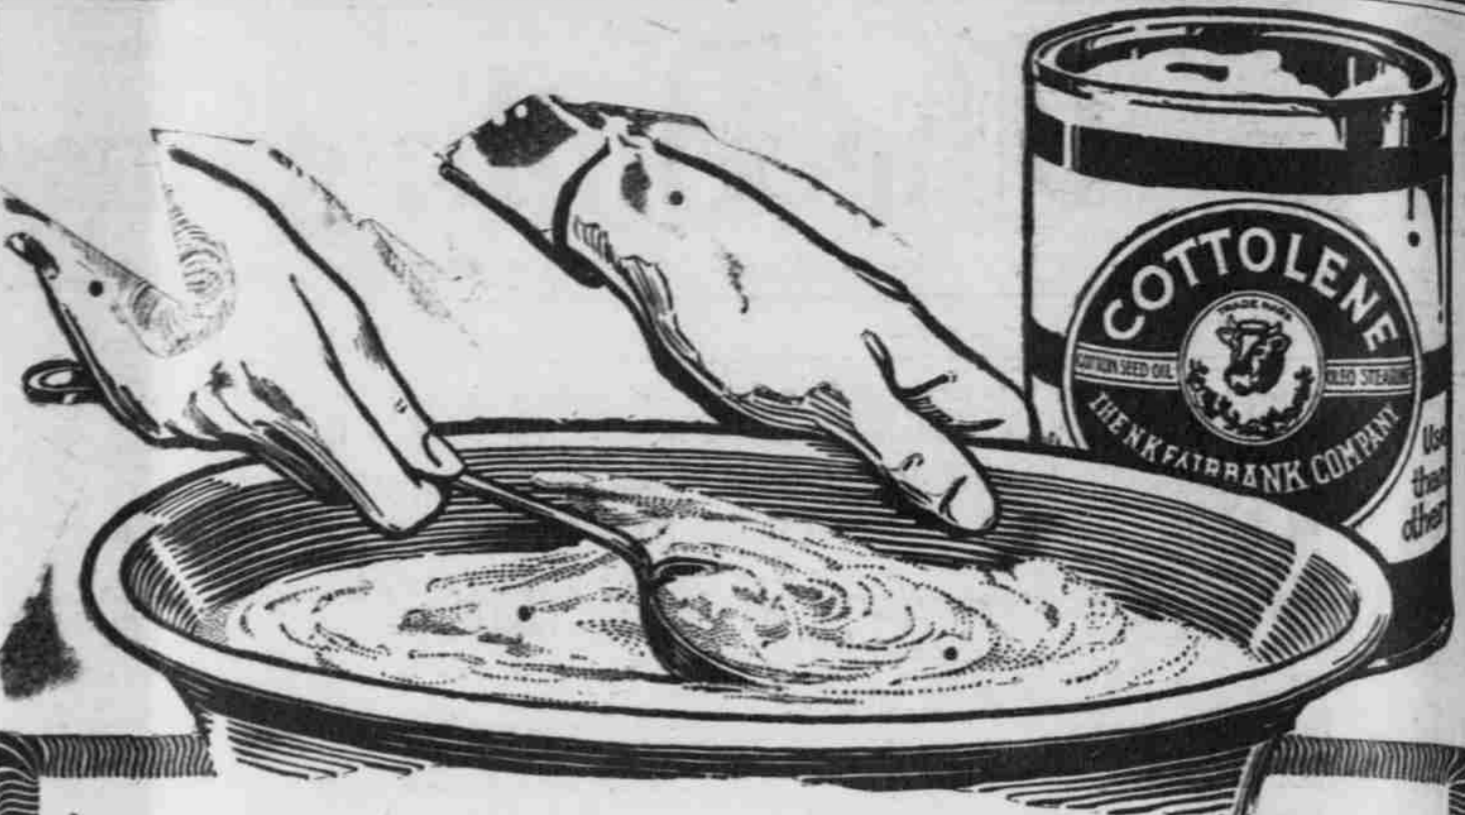

"She needs me," explained the husband, Professor Moreau, a local educator, after he had embraced her and installed her again in his home. "And a woman is seldom to blame." Meanwhile Bransford faces charges of embezzlement and white slavery. He refused to comment on the outcome of his short lived romance.

JUDGE FINED FOR SPEEDING

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 15.—Thomas C. Morphey, "honorary judge" of the sunrise court where persons arrested for being drunk are questioned, was fined $50 by Police Judge Crawford today for speeding.

Murphy paid his fine. He was arrested by Motorcycle Officer Owens for speeding in West Washington street, October 13.

HORLICK'S
The Original Malted Milk
Unless you say "HORLICK'S" you may get a Substitute.

For good cooking use Cottolene

You will find in making biscuits, pie-crust, cakes and doughnuts that Cottolene is supreme, because it is the purest cooking fat and possesses important food values.

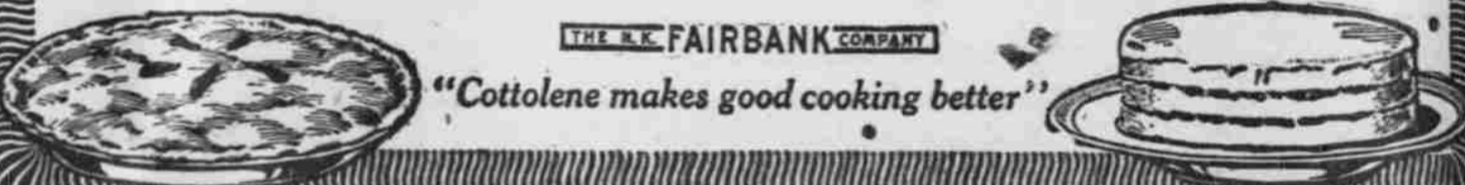

It is a precise combination of specially refined cottonseed oil, of the highest grade, with pure beef-stearine from selected leaf beef suet. This combination gives Cottolene its unexcelled cooking qualities.

Cottolene

There are imitations, but there is no substitute for Cottolene.

For economy, as well as for good cooking, use Cottolene. You will require a third less of it than of any other shortening or cooking fat.

Pails of various sizes. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply. Write our General Offices, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book—"HOME HELPS."

Portland, Or., Oct. 15.—Ex-Governor Oswald West will seek the Democratic nomination for congress in the primaries next spring. It was rumored in political circles today.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

The Willamette Institute of Scientific Research was called to order by Pres. Willis M. Bartlett at Science Hall last night. About 20 members were present, the object of the meeting was to outline a working plan for the coming year. It was decided to have a number of the business men who are scientifically inclined give lectures at future meetings.

Dean Chase of the College of Music has selected the men for the Willamette Glee Club for the coming year. They are: Joe Tenor, Anderson, Stevens, Jeffrey, Masters; Ted tenor, Irvine, Mills, Smith, Gillette; 1st bass, Chaplin, Hall, Jackson, Moore; 2nd bass, Lyons, Metcalf, Douglas, Bowers. The club will practice every Wednesday afternoon and during the Xmas holidays they plan to make a tour giving recitals at various cities on the trip. The club will be exceedingly good this year, as a number of the old members are back and the new men the best out of a large number of applicants.

The Adelante Literary society presented a very unique autumn number program at their meeting this afternoon. Miss Laura Ross, president called the society to order and the roll call was responded to by "Nuts to Crank." Miss Carrie Cooksey gave a talk on "Assorted Nuts", which was followed by a recitation by Miss Emma Winton. "Nuts I Have Known". The next talk was entitled "The Heart of a Nut" by Misses Annie Harris and Mabel Garrett. The closing number was an instrumental solo by Miss Gertrude Cunningham.

The Philodotian Society at their meeting this afternoon had as the title of their program "The Nations at War."

The program as follows: Martial music, viroleta. Relation of U. S. to warring nations. Miss Beryl Holt. National songs of warring nations. viroleta. Reading, "War Brides", Miss Frances Gittins. Music, viroleta.

Both societies are at home to visitors today and next week will begin an active campaign for new members.

Dress Up the Boys

If you only knew what an excellent pick you could make from our stacks of Suits on our counters, you would have the Boy down early Saturday morning.

You would pay a leading clothier in Portland a handsome price for the identical Suit selected from the same line.

The only difference in your purchase, if made here, would be in Price—really, ours is almost homely in comparison.

And, the same transaction, involving the same Suit and Price, could not be made anywhere else in Salem or vicinity.

We can't illustrate and describe, in catalogue fashion, in a newspaper, but we ask you to come into actual touch with some real Clothing values in Salem.

The Fabrics are the best and most handsome that a given price can buy; the workmanship is of the highest order; the styles include every touch of present requirements; the prices are
