WILLAMETTE NOTES

The petition for a writ of review in the case of C. W. Gillingham against H. E. Brown wits denied by Judge Galloway this morning and the case sent back to the justice court where it was first tried. It appears that the plaintiff brought suit to recover $106 from the defendant and the jury in the justice court brought in a verdict for the plaintiff but did not specify the amount. Judge Galloway held that the jury should have specified the amount to be due the defendant.

The cases of the three Japanese at Gervais who were charged with illieit liquor selling came up in the circuit court this afternoon before Judge Kel-The case against Roy Fukuda was missed. Yoho Katuki was fined $100 on one charge and $150 on another, Charles Hori was fined $250. Both paid their fines and were allowed to go.

Herbert Marithew, charged with a rime alleged to have been committed inside the state pen, appeared in the circuit court this afternoon and by con-sent his case was continued until the lanuary term of the circuit court. Noel Wolfard's case was also continued. Young Wolfard is charged with criminal assault upon a young girl, and his bail has been fixed at $1000. It is thought that he will arrange to be reeased upon bail.

The famous chimney case of S. A. Hughes against the Salem school district was continuing in the circuit court this afternoon with the prospect that it would reach the jury late this evening. The jurymen were being informed in the latest methods of conducting smoke and hot air from crowded to come in public buildings.
