

FULL LEASED WIRE DISPATCHES

The Daily Capital Journal

CIRCULATION IS OVER 4000 DAILY

THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1915

PRICE TWO CENTS ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS—FIVE CENTS

SERBIAN SITUATION IS ADMITTED TO BE SERIOUS

Greatest Fight Just Now Is That To Win Greece—Austrians Claim Successes At All Points, While Serbians Say They Have Defeated Them, and Driven Them Back With Losses of 60,000—And That In Another Battle 8,000 Were Killed or Wounded

London, Oct. 22.—With the Serbian situation, admitted by Nish to be "more and more serious" despite the "desperate, heroic" resistance of her gallant defenders, all the warring nations today are struggling for a decisive victory to influence the wavering course of Greece and Rumania.

main Teuton army and the two bodies are trying to effect a junction. Austria claimed the Mlava plain has been swept clear of the enemy and that the army of General Kovacs and the Germans are advancing along the Morava further toward Constantinople.

TO TALK BY WIRELESS AROUND THE WORLD

Will Try Talking To Tokio First, Then Try To Talk Clear Around Globe

Washington, Oct. 22.—Following the success achieved in talking by wireless to Honolulu and Paris, the Arlington wireless station's assistants' next ambition is conversation gridding the world.

STERLING EXCHANGE GOES STILL LOWER

New York, Oct. 22.—When Europe's warring nations cease their struggle, it may not be the cable, nor yet the wireless telegraph that will flash the great tidings to America.

ABE MARTIN

This has been a hard summer on our winter clothes. World peace must look like an awful big proposition to the head of 'th' average family.

350 BOYS TO VISIT SALEM TO ATTEND BOYS' CONFERENCE

Delegates From All Parts of the State Will Be Here In November

The special committee in charge of the preliminary arrangements for the Boys' Conference, which will be held in this city beginning Friday evening, November 26, and closing Sunday evening, November 28, met at the Y. M. C. A. today to formulate plans for the entertainment of the 350 boys who will come from all parts of the state to be the guests of the churches of the city.

CONGRESSMAN HAWLEY HAS A VISIT COMING

Deputation of Women to Call On Him In Behalf of National Suffrage

Miss Virginia Arnold, of Portland, state organizer of the Congressional Union of Woman Suffrage, is in the city, making arrangements to organize a deputation of voting women to call on Congressman Hawley on behalf of the National Woman's suffrage amendment.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

MAY ESTABLISH MILITARY ZONE FOR THE RAIDERS

Mexican Troubles May Cause Court Martial Proceedings To Be Taken

DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO COMPEL INTERVENTION

Claim Americans Hostile to Carranza Are Causing the Trouble

Washington, Oct. 22.—Following on the heels of Mexican border raids of the past two days, Secretary of War Garrison today ordered the Twenty-eighth infantry from Texas City to Brownsville and the Twenty-third from Jacksonville, Fla., to Texas City.

Mrs. Parias Tells Story of Her Crime

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—Broken under a police third degree, Mrs. Mary Parias, admitted slayer of the crippled Michael Weinstein, her former lover, this afternoon confessed to the police she had hacked up his body in cold blood.

SLAVS CAPTURE 18,000

Geneva, Oct. 22.—Eighteen thousand men and miles of trenches in the Ekan region, along the River An, fell before the Slavs according to a Radiogram dispatch today.

GERMANS MUST SOLVE A SERIOUS PROBLEM

New York, Oct. 22.—The increasing Russian successes are assuming proportions which may be beginning to attract the notice of the central allies.

TEN OPINIONS ARE HANDED DOWN TODAY BY SUPREME COURT

Higher Court Decides In Favor of J. H. Lauterman, Reversing Kelly

The supreme court handed down ten opinions today to clear up the week's business before going to Pendleton to hold court in that district of the supreme court.

EXECUTION OF WOMAN HORRIFIES ENGLAND

London, Oct. 22.—British rage and horror at the German execution of Miss Edith Cavell for assisting allied soldiers to flee Belgium, promised today appreciably to affect war sentiment, in the wake of disclosures of American Minister Brand Whitlock's efforts to prevent the killing.

Blame the Governor

The best informed persons, however, thought that Miss Cavell's execution was rushed because the military government feared the Kaiser would extend clemency, and thus weaken the governor's authority in the court-martial.

TRYING TO FORCE GREECE

Paris, Oct. 22.—That the allies will resort to force against Greece was declared increasingly likely today following the ultimatum from Athens that Greece will adhere to her policy of armed neutrality.

THIRTEEN NEW ATTORNEYS TURNED LOOSE TO PRACTICE BY STATE SUPREME COURT

Thirteen new attorneys were released today and given diplomas by the state supreme court entitling them to practice law in this state by virtue of their high marks in the recent bar examination conducted by the state bar association.

MEXICAN BANDITS MAY CAUSE WAR; TEXANS ARE MAD

One Hundred Citizens of Brownsville Threaten to Cross Border

BANDIT LEADER READY FOR ANOTHER ATTACK

Secret Mass Meeting Held to Plan Reprisals Bodes No Good for Mexicans

Brownsville, Texas, Oct. 22.—One hundred citizens today announced that as the next instance of banditry along the border here they intend to cross into Mexico and "take it out on the greasers."

WORK FOR INTERVENTION

Washington, Oct. 22.—Reinforcing the Rio Grande border today with additional troops was one of several steps to end terrorism of Mexican raiders there, Secretary of War Garrison sought special secret agents from the department of justice; afterward Attorney General Gregory discussed the situation with President Wilson.

SUIT TO BE BROUGHT TO COLLECT $4 ON INSURANCE POLICY

The Horticultural River Relief of Oregon, by Harvey Wells receiver, today filed a suit in the circuit court of this county against G. M. Reeves to collect an assessment alleged due on an insurance policy.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

MEXICAN BANDITS MAY CAUSE WAR; TEXANS ARE MAD

One Hundred Citizens of Brownsville Threaten to Cross Border

BANDIT LEADER READY FOR ANOTHER ATTACK

Secret Mass Meeting Held to Plan Reprisals Bodes No Good for Mexicans

Brownsville, Texas, Oct. 22.—One hundred citizens today announced that as the next instance of banditry along the border here they intend to cross into Mexico and "take it out on the greasers."

WORK FOR INTERVENTION

Washington, Oct. 22.—Reinforcing the Rio Grande border today with additional troops was one of several steps to end terrorism of Mexican raiders there, Secretary of War Garrison sought special secret agents from the department of justice; afterward Attorney General Gregory discussed the situation with President Wilson.

SUIT TO BE BROUGHT TO COLLECT $4 ON INSURANCE POLICY

The Horticultural River Relief of Oregon, by Harvey Wells receiver, today filed a suit in the circuit court of this county against G. M. Reeves to collect an assessment alleged due on an insurance policy.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably rain west, cloudy east portion; and southerly winds.