STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take olive tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

EVERY THREE MINUTES ONE DIES IN THE U. S.

The Anti-Tuberculosis Society illustrates the frightful toll of consumption by extinguishing a light every three minutes, and shows that it is the man or woman, girl or boy, who neglects colds, whose blood is impure, who feels weak and languid, who is the very one to contract tuberculosis—and note are immune.

During changing seasons, or after sickness, blood-quality is most important, and if you and your family will take Scott's Emulsion after meals it will charge your blood with health-sustaining richness, quicken circulation, and strengthen both lungs and throat.

Scott's is free from alcohol—easy to take—it cannot harm. Get a bottle to-day.

QUINABY HAPPENINGS

The Clear Lake church will hold a Rally Day next Sunday, with a special program prepared for the occasion. Rev. Mr. Winter, of Salem, will be in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cole and young son, and Gus Harold of Stayton were visitors at the Harold home this week. A feature of their visit was the taking of the group picture representing four generations. They were Mrs. Marie Harold, her son Gus, his daughter, Della Harold Cole, and her young son, Curtis, Jr.

Mrs. W. W. Ector had a narrow escape from death Saturday when a neighbor, hunting upon her place, fired toward her door as she stepped into the yard. One shot struck her dog, another a chicken, and while surrounded by flying missiles she escaped injury. Although the parties are known to Mrs. Ector, she made no complaint, as she believed the matter accidental, and should she report them she feared, as do most of the residents of this section, that there might be danger of intentional shooting. The game season is one of intense apprehension here, as the number of game wardens are entirely too few in number to keep track of violators of the law.

A special tax was voted at the Perkins school Friday evening to secure funds to continue the school for eight months. The rate of payment is $62.50 per month for the teacher, $25.00 going to the janitor, which leaves $60 for the teacher. A few years ago competent teachers were secured for $40 per month. There is perhaps no other occupation in which an untrained young person can secure $3 per day for six hours standing around, at a time when $1.50 is regarded as a fair day's wage for a man who is producing something to feed and clothe the world.

News of the illness of Mrs. Frances Crabtree at Scio was received by relatives a few days ago. Mrs. Crabtree is one of Linn county's most respected pioneers, and has often visited here.

Mrs. Arthur Girod who has been critically ill for the past two weeks from rheumatism, is able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson, of the Quinaby store, were dinner guests of the Arthur Browning family, Sunday.

LOGANBERRY JUICE.
(By H. M. Crane, Aumsville.)

Old Oregon grew famous
And she went upon the map,
When they pressed the Loganberry
And took from it the sap.
We have canned and dried the berry,
But we never knew its use
Until we made the "Loju"
From the Loganberry juice.

(Chorus.)
Then give cheers for "Loju,"
The Loganberry juice
That eastern folks may know it,
And put it into use.
It's the finest thing a-going
It is far ahead of wine!
For it's made of choicest berries
That are fresh from off the vine.

We gained the nation's honor
When we bottled up a hope,
That is good for kings and emperors
As well as priest and pope.
It is good to serve at supper,
Just as good to serve at lunch,
And it strikes the timid palates
Of the legislative bunch.

It has no taint of alcohol;
It's good for wet or dry;
It beats the noted hop juice
And it's team-mate rock and rye.
We've tried to get a better drink
But find it is no use;
For there's nothing beats the "Loju"
The Loganberry juice.

It's sure to please the tourist
When it's on the hill of rare;
And they head direct for Salem
For they know they make it there.
It's a good for picnic parties
Or for any other use—
The famous drink of "Loju,"
The Loganberry juice.

Now while we've got it going
And as the state's gone dry
We'll use the blessed godsend
In the place of "corn and rye."
You can't find any better
And there isn't any use
To try to beat the "Loju,"
The Loganberry juice.

DON'T SUFFER—LAUGH AT STOMACH MISERY

Daniel J. Fry Will Return the Money If Mi-o-na Does Not Relieve Dyspepsia.

Among all the remedies in Daniel J. Fry's popular drug store, there are few that he is willing to sell on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not cure.

Mi-o-na, the famous dyspepsia remedy has helped so many of his customers that Daniel J. Fry says, "If this remedy does not relieve you, come back to my store and I will cheerfully return your money."

Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headache, dizzy feelings or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without any risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-o-na will relieve you, will regulate the digestion, will enable you to eat what you want. If it does not do all this it will not cost you a cent.

Daniel J. Fry has sold hundreds of boxes of Mi-o-na in the last few weeks and has yet to receive the first complaint from any customer. Such a record is simply marvelous and speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

It is easy enough to fill a column with the symptoms afflicting those who have dyspepsia, but there is no need of describing their condition. What they want is relief and they can get it in Mi-o-na. Do not suffer a day longer with disordered digestion. If Mi-o-na relieves you it costs you 50 cents a box, if it does not, you have Daniel J. Fry's personal guarantee to return your money.

"DUFFY" IS WELCOMED.

Boyes Springs, Cal., Oct. 20.—At 5:31 this morning a freight train pulled into town. A half minute later, the engine tooted his whistle and then apparently tied 'er down for the next 20 minutes.

It was his belated celebration to one glorious night for Boyes Springs.

Duffy Lewis had come home.

All Boyes Springs greeted the hero of the great national pastime. Fireworks, cheers, electric signs, handclapping made him a proud and happy man. Then there was some speakmaking in which "Devil Duff" modestly gave the Red Sox and the native sons a flock of credit and left himself out.

Boyes Springs welcome continued until the 5:31 freight pulled in with its shrill whistle.

AUMSVILLE YOUNGSTER IS ALSO A SONGSTER

About Loju Has Tilt and Swing and Should Be Popular

This morning in the Capital Journal's mail the following "Song" on the Loganberry juice now leaping into prominence under the catchy name of "Loju," was received. There was no communication with it, but at the bottom of the poem was the signature of the author and the statement, "For the Commercial club," from which it is fair to presume, it is written by a school boy and is submitted in the contest. We, of course, know nothing of the other "Songs," but we doubt if among the many that have been or will be received if there are any that beat it. It has tilt and swing to it and with proper music should become popular.

If there are any of the songs submitted that exceed it as to words and sentiment, then indeed will the Commercial club have some good songs, for it will be hard to beat. We submit it to the Commercial club in competition for the prize.

It was written by H. M. Crane, Aumsville.
